Seasons of the Christian Life Robert Cummings Neville, 2016-07-04 Once liberal Christianity was preached in ways that defined it in the public eye Now Christianity is identified almost exclusively with its conservative expressions Seasons of the Christian Life presents a series of sermons articulating a liberal Christianity over against its conservative neighbors They were preached at the University Church Marsh Chapel at Boston University save for one preached in Memorial Church at Harvard during the 2004 2005 academic year when President George W Bush was reelected and the country was at war in Iraq and Afghanistan and at war with terrorists wherever they could be imagined The sermons follow the Revised Common Lectionary and focus on biblical interpretation as it is applied to the then current spiritual cultural social and political situation The author is a professor of theology and at the time was Dean of Marsh Chapel and Chaplain of the University

Intimacy Christopher Lauer, 2016-02-25 An important contribution to the burgeoning field of the ethics of recognition this book examines the contradictions inherent in the very concept of intimacy Working with a wide variety of philosophical and literary sources it warns against measuring our relationships against ideal standards since there is no consummate form of intimacy After analyzing ten major ways that we aim to establish intimacy with one another including gift giving touching and fetishes the book concludes that each fails on its own terms since intimacy wants something that is impossible The very concept of intimacy is a superlative one it aims not just for closeness but for a closeness beyond closeness Nevertheless far from a pessimistic diagnosis of the human condition this is a meditation on how to live intimately in a world in which intimacy is impossible Rather than contenting itself with a deconstructive approach it proposes to treat intimacy dialectically For all its contradictions it shows intimacy is central to how we understand ourselves and our relations to others The Sermons, and Other Practical Works Ralph Erskine, 1821 Origins of Walter Rauschenbusch's Social Ethics Donovan E.

Smucker, 1994 Rauschenbusch 1861-1918 is known as the father of the Social Concern movement in America Traditionally the source of his social ethic has been seen to lie in the single motif of liberalism Smucker social science emeritus U of Waterloo provides a new perspective arguing that Rauschenbusch's social ethic was based on not one but four complementary influences pietism sectarianism liberalism and transformationism Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Англо-американські прислів'я та приказки. In an Eastern Rose Garden Hazrat Inayat Khan, 2020-09-28 The Prophet has said God is beautiful and He loves beauty Now the word beautiful does not refer to the form of God God is formless He has no personality until He manifests Himself to Himself Therefore it is not His personality which is beautiful for God is beyond that which in the ordinary sense of the word is called personality What then is the source of God s beauty God is beautiful because He has created beauty If there were no beauty in God there could have been none in His manifestation If there were no beauty in the thought of the poet he could not write beautiful verse If there were no beauty in the thought of the artist he could never have painted the picture One cannot see the beauty in the heart of the painter except in the beauty of the picture he has made It is not only the picture which is beautiful the heart of the painter was beautiful first Consequently we become able to see the beauty not only in manifestation but also before it was manifested and before it was manifested it existed in love In other words we can see that the beauty was hidden in love beauty is hidden in love and the beauty that love has before it to love is its own beauty Therefore to whatever extent beauty is beautiful so is love beautiful even more so for the Creator is more beautiful than the thing He has created All things that we make are the work of our hands We are their creator and we are greater than our hands So it is with love Love is greater than beauty because love is the creator of the beauty that love loves in its life No doubt by loving love becomes limited limited as beauty but then that is the purpose of love If there were no beauty His love could not have realized the latent joy of its own nature The joy of its existence would die out As soon as we can think in this way we come to see that the lover is vaster incomparably vaster than the object he loves The real love the real beauty is in the lover The object that he loves is much smaller although for the moment the lover is not aware of the difference The lover thinks You are the object before which I bow You are the object of which I think day and night before which I am helpless You are the object that I admire that I adore Yet he does not realize the vastness of his love and indeed strictly speaking love is vaster than the lover

Somebody Scream! Marcus Reeves, 2009-03-17 For many African Americans of a certain demographic the sixties and seventies were the golden age of political movements The Civil Rights movement segued into the Black Power movement which begat the Black Arts movement Fast forward to 1979 and the release of Sugarhill Gang s Rapper s Delight With the onset of the Reagan years we begin to see the unraveling of many of the advances fought for in the previous decades Much of this occurred in the absence of credible long term leadership in the black community Young blacks disillusioned with politics and feeling society no longer cared or looked out for their concerns started rapping with each other about their plight becoming their own leaders on the

Michael LaMagna, 2018-04-10 Have you ever found yourself wondering if there was any more to this life Have you ever questioned God's plan for you your purpose or destiny Of course you have When I asked those questions the answer that I was given threw me for a loop The answer was so unexpected and out of my comfort zone that I spent many years wondering if I had heard the correct answer Our main purpose is to worship and glorify God God inspired me to glorify Him in this manner Inspirations is a book that started as a simple exercise in expressing thoughts not necessarily meant to be shared but as a vehicle to let new emotions and new ideals flow from my heart When I began this journey I was both new to poetry and a brand new Christian I had never had the desire to write nor had any idea how far the process of writing would take me It was several years of expression through writing and sharing with others before I realized I had the beginnings of a book Even then I had no concept of the height depth and width of this project or how far God could take me in such an uncomfortable and untenable position All forms of art are born out of some manner of inspiration This collection of poetry has had its share of unusual types of inspiration from cartoons and movies to other authors and people in my everyday life even situations in which I found myself that would show the glory and majesty of our Lord The subject matter of all these poems while most are individually inspired can be separated into two categories either confession or revelation There is truth within these pages truth about my life and I would be willing to guess at least some truth about your life as well My prayer is that the words within these pages would first serve to glorify God and second serve to inspire you to do something perhaps outside of your comfort zone so that you will rely on God's strength and knowledge Let us remain humble by getting out of our own way and letting Jesus shine through us
