J. Sass, 2022-03-22 Winner of a Sydney Taylor Book Award Honor. A heartfelt novel about a neurodivergent thirteen-year-old navigating changing friendships, a school trip, and expanding horizons for fans of Rain Reign and Ivy Aberdeen's Letter to the World. Thirteen-year-old Ellen Katz feels most comfortable when her life is well planned out and people fit neatly into her predefined categories. She attends temple with Abba and Mom every Friday and Saturday. Ellen only gets crushes on girls, never boys, and she knows she can always rely on her best and only friend, Laurel, to help navigate social situations at their private Georgia middle school. Laurel has always made Ellen feel like being autistic is no big deal. But lately, Laurel has started making more friends and cancelling more weekend plans with Ellen than she keeps. A school trip to Barcelona seems like the perfect place for Ellen to get their friendship back on track. Except it doesn't. Toss in a new nonbinary classmate whose identity has Ellen questioning her very binary way of seeing the world, homesickness, a scavenger hunt style team project that takes the students through Barcelona to learn about Spanish culture, and this trip is anything but what Ellen planned. Making new friends and letting go of old ones is never easy, but Ellen might just find a comfortable new place for herself if she can learn to embrace the fact that life doesn't always stick to a planned itinerary. My Mother's Song Ellen E. Gee, 2015-08-07 In 1963, thousands flooded the Lincoln Memorial for Martin Luther King's March on DC. Five miles away, Ellen's father handed rifles to his children. Three months later, Ellen ran home from school to find her father celebrating President Kennedy's assassination. Four years later, her father was dead, and she couldn't understand why the police were charging her mother with his murder. After all, wasn't it clear her father left no choice: someone was eventually going to die, and at least it wasn't her or one of her brothers or sisters. Ellen, however, was never prepared for the mother she knew and loved to die along with her father. Afterwards, very little remained of the college graduate, the accomplished pianist, and the self-confident woman, the marine who had once appeared in the pages of Life magazine. This is the story of Ellen's journey to recapture that other woman, the beloved mother she lost on that painful day. Signing with a Heavy Hand and Heart, Love Mommy Sondra Torres, Chanel Torres, 2013-03-13 Words from Ms. Torres: I take my FAS and turn it in to a teaching tool to help others learn what I go through every day of my life. If one person listens to what I have to say, then I have done my job. This is what I was born to do. I have won many awards for my work. The awards I've won have been great, but my biggest award is knowing that my message is being delivered and knowing that I might be helping so many people and unborn babies. If I can prevent one more child from this awful syndrome, I will be happy. My ultimate goal is to get the word out there that FAS is 100% preventable. I want everyone to know about the effects of alcohol on the fetus. My advice, my plea is that you PLEASE PLEASE do not drink while you are pregnant, even if you plan on giving your baby up for adoption Let your baby fulfil his or her dreams and live a normal life For all the fathers to be you play an important role in this too You must be encouraging and supportive Staying away from alcohol yourself would be helpful What others are saying Thank you for sending your book to me I read it all and I wanted to cry What a wonderful sacrifice you and your family took on It is wonderful what you have done and how Chanel has grown and turned out to be a wonderful young lady You are certainly a very special person blessed by God from the beginning I love you very much Aunt Gloria Ms Torres is a true light in a world that needs more education on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome and its effects on unborn children She has opened doors that will never be shut She has just begun to educate the nation on Fetal Alcohol Syndrome Deborah Thornton SEDNET Project Management Ms Torres is the epitome of self advocacy and embodies strength resilience and determination She is courageous and tireless in her quest to educate others regarding FAS and is compassionate and determined in her mission to empower and advocate for other young adults with disabilities Barbara Shannon School Psychologist Last night I received a copy of Signing with a heavy hand and heart Love Mommy A journey through fetal alcohol syndrome by Mrs Sondra A Torres and Miss Chanel E Torres from Ms Torres I opened it and couldn't put it down until I was finished This story of a young woman living with the effects of fetal alcohol syndrome a birth defect that is 100% preventable all pregnant women need to do is not drink when pregnant is moving sometimes funny and always inspirational I quickly grew to care about Chanel and her adoptive family Ms Torres creates a vivid picture of what it is like to live with and care for children with special needs In relatively few words Torres brings her family to life its struggles and its joys The feelings of love and joy are powerfully conveyed while not minimizing the challenges presented in raising a child with FAS As a teacher and parent I laughed and cried and wished I could meet this brave girl and her loving mother Torres is compassionate towards all including birth parents but my heart breaks for the children who struggle with this disability It is a daily battle for which there are some effective interventions but no cures I will say that Ms Torres left me more hopeful for these children than my experience as a teacher had her powerful home environment is definitely a plus for Chanel CHANEL TORRES IS AVAILABLE FOR SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS TO BOOK THIS SPEAKER FOR A PRESENTATION PLEASE GO TO
