Copyright Office,1974 Consensus and Dissent Anne Storch,2017-03-10 This book is the result of intensive and continued discussions about the social role of language and its conceptualisations in societies other than Northern European American ones Language as a means of expressing as well as evoking both interiority and community has been in the focus of these discussions led among linguists anthropologists and Egyptologists and leading to a collection of essays that provide studies that transcend previously considered approaches Its contributions are in particular interested in understanding how the attitude of the individual towards societal processes and strategies of norming is negotiated emotionally and how individual interests and attitudes can be articulated Discourses on public spaces are in the focus in order to analyse those strategies that are employed to articulate dissent for example in the sense of face threatening acts This raises a number of questions on the spatial and public situatedness of emotions and language How is the public space dealt with and reflected in language as property heritage and as a part of ascribed identities Which role do emotions play in this space How is emotion employed there as part of place making in relation to identity constructions What is the connection between emotion performance and emblematic spaces and places Which opportunities of the violation of norms and transgression do such public spaces offer to actors and speakers These questions intend to address the communicative representation of core cultural processes and concepts Books in Print ,1987 The Moving Picture World ,1915 The Saturday Evening Post ,1901 Love Cures Laine E. Doggett,2012-04-30 What is love Popular culture bombards us with notions of the intoxicating capacities of love or of beguiling women who can bewitch or heal to the point that it is easy to believe that such images are timeless and universal Not so argues Laine Doggett in Love Cures Aspects of love that are expressed in popular music such as love is a drug sexual healing and love potion number nine trace deep roots to Old French romance of the high Middle Ages A young woman heals a poisoned knight A mother prepares a love potion for a daughter who will marry a stranger in a faraway land How can readers interpret such events In contrast to scholars who have dismissed these women as fantasy figures or labeled them witches Doggett looks at them in the light of medical and magical practices of the high Middle Ages Love Cures argues that these practitioners as represented in romance have shaped modern notions of love Love Cures seeks to engage scholars of love marriage and magic in disciplines as diverse as literature history anthropology and philosophy American Theatre: A Chronicle of Comedy and Drama 1914-1930 Gerald Bordman,1995 The American Theatre series discusses every Broadway production chronologically show by show and season by season It offers plot summaries production details names of leading actors and actresses the roles they played as well as any special or unusual aspects of individual shows This second volume in the series covers what is probably the richest period in American theater the years 1914 through 1930 Bordman includes most of Eugene O'Neill's work along with playwrights as diverse as Elmer Rice and George Kaufman Among the era's stars one finds John and Ethel Barrymore Helen Hayes Katherine Cornell and Lynn Fontaine and Alfred Lunt Considering the sheer number of productions American theater climbed to its all time high in the 1920s by mid decade nearly 300 new plays appeared on Broadway each year America saw more theatrical activity in every sense of the word than any time before or since An Inculturation Model of the Catholic Marriage Ritual David William Antonio, 2002 In An Inculturation Model of the Catholic Marriage Ritual David William Antonio presents a model of how the Catholic Ritual of Marriage may be adapted to the language culture and traditions of a particular people specifically the Ilocanos of Northern Luzon in the Philippines Vatican II called for the revision and adaptation of the rite of marriage exhorting local churches to develop their own rites suited to their people's particular customs and traditions The work of preparing a rite of marriage for a particular region cannot be limited to merely translating the typical edition There has to be a thorough examination of both the editio typica and the people's religious and cultural traditions the socio economic and political realities that confront them attending to the positive values expressed therein Only a dialogical process such as this will guarantee a liturgy that is faithful to the Christian tradition and meaningful to a given people An Inculturation Model of the Catholic Marriage Ritual will serve as a model for people of other cultures who have to do similar liturgical preparation and will be important especially to churches whose membership includes people who experienced colonization but never lost the riches of their own cultures in the blending of cultures and beliefs that followed The American Catalogue ,1891
