Love Honor And Negotiate:

Love Honor and Negotiate Joan Peters, Betty Carter, 1997-06 In Love Honor and Negotiate Making your Marriage Work family therapist Betty Carter offers a cutting edge common sense approach to helping marriages survive grow and flourish renegotiating the marriage contract

How to Negotiate Like a Pro Mary Greenwood, 2006-06 For over twenty five years author Mary Greenwood has worked in careers that required expert negotiation After becoming a professional union negotiator she began to notice a specific set of rules people use to settle disputes Greenwood compiles many of these rules in How to Negotiate Like a Pro 41 Rules for Resolving Disputes an easy to understand guide to negotiating any type of situation Among these rules you will find the following Focus on the goal and resist being distracted by emotions Request ground rules Avoid negotiating against yourself Do your research Know when to walk away Greenwood lists each rule and subsequently offers a concise explanation on how and when to use it in your negotiations She explains the emotional frame of mind you need for negotiations and reveals the preparations strategies and tactics required to close the deal Telephone and on line negotiations are also discussed Whether you re involved in a professional dispute with another business associate your boss or even an online seller How to Negotiate Like a Pro will put you ahead of the game

Love, Honor and Forgive Bill Farrel, Pam Farrel, 2000-01-12 How do we forgive when we don t feel like it Here is a down to earth look from Bill and Pam Farrel at forgiveness as we experience it or don t in marriage

We Love Each Other, But . . . Ellen Wachtel, 2000-02-14 From one of New York City s leading therapists comes a positive message to help couples maintain their perspective in all stages of marriage

Family Re-union Robert Kuttner, Sharland Trotter, 2002 In this relevant new book a journalist husband and his psychologist wife offer wise and inspiring advice to middle aged adults on how to have more meaningful relationships with their adult children and elderly parents

Growing Yourself Up Jenny Brown, 2017-11-01 To be human is to be in relationships We can t survive without them but it s in relationships that we can so easily get unravelled Some relationships just seem to do us in Either we feel like we lose ourselves or feel burnt out from futile efforts to make things right for another In our relationships we can experience the very best of ourselves and the very worst The message of Growing Yourself Up is that you can t separate understanding the individual from understanding relationships All of life s relationships are integral to increasing self awareness and maturity And it s not necessarily the comfortable relationships that promote personal growth In this 2nd edition of the bestselling book Jenny examines how to help others without fostering dependency and how to determine what kind of help you or others want from therapists This is in response to the many lay and professional people who have found this book valuable personally and want to know how to help others grow Drawing from Bowen family systems theory the book takes you on a journey through each stage of life to see predictable patterns of relationships and to show how to use this knowledge to make purposeful adjustments in yourself as well as lending a mature helping hand to others The result is a sturdier self sturdier relationships and a refreshing new way to view life s challenges and opportunities

Parenthood in America Jack C. Westman, 2001 In this outgrowth of a conference called Parenthood in America held at in April 1998 Westman emeritus psychiatry U of Wisconsin Medical School identifies the parent child relationship as the fundamental institution in our society one that fosters a lifelong ability to form and sustain intimate relationships and be a thoughtful moral person He argues for a shift in thinking toward the use of quality of life rather than material achievement as the central measure of success The work s 23 articles bring insights from research to bear on the practical aspects of childrearing and on policies that influence the context in which parenting occurs in the home and in the community Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Love, Honor and Value Suzanne Mintz, Suzanne Geffen Mintz, 2002 This book is about family caregivers those who are just beginning a caregiving journey and those for whom family caregiving is an integral part of their daily lives      The Way We Really Are Stephanie Coontz, 2008-08-06 Stephanie Coontz the author of The Way We Never Were now turns her attention to the mythology that surrounds today's family the demonizing of untraditional family forms and marriage and parenting issues She argues that while it's not crazy to miss the more hopeful economic trends of the 1950s and 1960s few would want to go back to the gender roles and race relations of those years Mothers are going to remain in the workforce family diversity is here to stay and the nuclear family can no longer handle all the responsibilities of elder care and childrearing Coontz gives a balanced account of how these changes affect families both positively and negatively but she rejects the notion that the new diversity is a sentence of doom Every family has distinctive resources and special vulnerabilities and there are ways to help each one build on its strengths and minimize its weaknesses The book provides a meticulously researched balanced account showing why a historically informed perspective on family life can be as much help to people in sorting through family issues as going into therapy and much more help than listening to today's political debates
