Books in Print ,1991      Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1975      Eye of the Beholder Lowell Cauffiel,2014-07-08 A fascinating psychological study of an unrepentant murderer from a New York Times bestselling author Library Journal Battle Creek Michigan is famous as the birthplace of breakfast cereal and the nearby suburb of Marshall is as wholesome as shredded wheat Well known for its colorful Victorian mansions this stately slice of nineteenth century Americana became infamous on a frigid night in February of 1991 Newscaster Diane Newton King was stepping out of her car her children strapped into the backseat when a sniper s bullet cut her down The police assumed that the killer was her stalker a crazed fan who had been terrorizing King for weeks But as their investigation ground to a standstill the police turned to another suspect one much closer to home In this gripping retelling of the crime and its aftermath journalist Lowell Cauffiel re creates the atmosphere of terror that marked King s last days giving us a story of celebrity obsession and what it means to kill

A Taste of Power Elaine Brown,1993-12-01 Profound funny wild and moving heartbreaking accounts of a lonely black childhood Brown sees racial oppression in national and global context every political word she writes pounds home a lesson about commerce money racism communism you name it A glowing achievement Los Angeles Times Elaine Brown assumed her role as the first and only female leader of the Black Panther Party with these words I have all the guns and all the money I can withstand challenge from without and from within Am I right Comrade It was August 1974 From a small Oakland based cell the Panthers had grown to become a revolutionary national organization mobilizing black communities and white supporters across the country but relentlessly targeted by the police and the FBI and increasingly riven by violence and strife within How Brown came to a position of power over this paramilitary male dominated organization and what she did with that power is a riveting unsparing account of self discovery Brown s story begins with growing up in an impoverished neighborhood in Philadelphia and attending a predominantly white school where she first sensed what it meant to be black female and poor in America She describes her political awakening during the bohemian years of her adolescence and her time as a foot soldier for the Panthers who seemed to hold the promise of redemption And she tells of her ascent into the upper echelons of Panther leadership her tumultuous relationship with the charismatic Huey Newton who would become her lover and her nemesis her experience with the male power rituals that would sow the seeds of the party s demise and the scars that she both suffered and inflicted in that era s paradigm shifting clashes of sex and power Stunning lyrical and acute this is the indelible testimony of a black woman s battle to define herself

Family Affairs Andy Hoffman,1992 A prize winning reporter tells the complete and riveting story of the gruesome murder of 13 year old Chris Hobson Driven to a remote area and forced to dig his own grave Chris was then cold

heartedly shot to death by his own mother A compelling and chilling look deep into America's troubled heartland The Spell of the Sensuous David Abram, 1997-02-25 Winner of the International Lannan Literary Award for Nonfiction Animal tracks word magic the speech of stones the power of letters and the taste of the wind all figure prominently in this intellectual tour de force that returns us to our senses and to the sensuous terrain that sustains us This major work of ecological philosophy startles the senses out of habitual ways of perception For a thousand generations human beings viewed themselves as part of the wider community of nature and they carried on active relationships not only with other people with other animals plants and natural objects including mountains rivers winds and weather patterns that we have only lately come to think of as inanimate How then did humans come to sever their ancient reciprocity with the natural world What will it take for us to recover a sustaining relation with the breathing earth In The Spell of the Sensuous David Abram draws on sources as diverse as the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Balinese shamanism Apache storytelling and his own experience as an accomplished sleight of hand of magician to reveal the subtle dependence of human cognition on the natural environment He explores the character of perception and excavates the sensual foundations of language which even at its most abstract echoes the calls and cries of the earth On every page of this lyrical work Abram weaves his arguments with a passion a precision and an intellectual daring that recall such writers as Loren Eiseley Annie Dillard and Barry Lopez Portrait Of A Killer: Jack The Ripper -- Case Closed Patricia Cornwell, 2002-11-11 Now updated with new material that brings the killer's picture into clearer focus In the fall of 1888 all of London was held in the grip of unspeakable terror An elusive madman calling himself Jack the Ripper was brutally butchering women in the slums of London's East End Police seemed powerless to stop the killer who delighted in taunting them and whose crimes were clearly escalating in violence from victim to victim And then the Ripper's violent spree seemingly ended as abruptly as it had begun He had struck out of nowhere and then vanished from the scene Decades passed then fifty years then a hundred and the Ripper's bloody sexual crimes became anemic and impotent fodder for puzzles mystery weekends crime conventions and so called Ripper Walks that end with pints of ale in the pubs of Whitechapel But to number one New York Times bestselling novelist Patricia Cornwell the Ripper murders are not cute little mysteries to be transformed into parlor games or movies but rather a series of terrible crimes that no one should get away with even after death Now Cornwell applies her trademark skills for meticulous research and scientific expertise to dig deeper into the Ripper case than any detective before her and reveal the true identity of this fabled Victorian killer In Portrait of a Killer Jack the Ripper Case Closed Cornwell combines the rigorous discipline of twenty first century police investigation with forensic techniques undreamed of during the late Victorian era to solve one of the most infamous and difficult serial murder cases in history Drawing on unparalleled access to original Ripper evidence documents and records as well as archival academic and law enforcement resources FBI profilers and top forensic scientists Cornwell reveals that Jack the Ripper was none other than a respected painter of his day an artist now collected by some of the world's finest museums

Walter Richard Sickert It has been said of Cornwell that no one depicts the human capability for evil better than she Adding layer after layer of circumstantial evidence to the physical evidence discovered by modern forensic science and expert minds Cornwell shows that Sickert who died peacefully in his bed in 1942 at the age of 81 was not only one of Great Britain's greatest painters but also a serial killer a damaged diabolical man driven by megalomania and hate She exposes Sickert as the author of the infamous Ripper letters that were written to the Metropolitan Police and the press Her detailed analysis of his paintings shows that his art continually depicted his horrific mutilation of his victims and her examination of this man's birth defects the consequent genital surgical interventions and their effects on his upbringing present a casebook example of how a psychopathic killer is created New information and startling revelations detailed in Portrait of a Killer include How a year long battery of more than 100 DNA tests on samples drawn by Cornwell's forensics team in September 2001 from original Ripper letters and Sickert documents yielded the first shadows of the 75 to 114 year old genetic evid

Family Violence and Criminal Justice Brian K. Payne, Randy R. Gainey, 2014-09-25 The historical context of family violence is explored as well as the various forms of violence their prevalence in specific stages of life and responses to it made by the criminal justice system and other agencies The linkage among child abuse partner violence and elder abuse is scrutinized and the usefulness of the life course approach is couched in terms of its potential effect on policy implications research methods that recognize the importance of life stages trajectories and transitions and crime causation theories that can be enhanced by it

Sexual Harassment of Women National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, Policy and Global Affairs, Committee on Women in Science, Engineering, and Medicine, Committee on the Impacts of Sexual Harassment in Academia, 2018-09-01 Over the last few decades research activity and funding has been devoted to improving the recruitment retention and advancement of women in the fields of science engineering and medicine In recent years the diversity of those participating in these fields particularly the participation of women has improved and there are significantly more women entering careers and studying science engineering and medicine than ever before However as women increasingly enter these fields they face biases and barriers and it is not surprising that sexual harassment is one of these barriers Over thirty years the incidence of sexual harassment in different industries has held steady yet now more women are in the workforce and in academia and in the fields of science engineering and medicine as students and faculty and so more women are experiencing sexual harassment as they work and learn Over the last several years revelations of the sexual harassment experienced by women in the workplace and in academic settings have raised urgent questions about the specific impact of this discriminatory behavior on women and the extent to which it is limiting their careers Sexual Harassment of Women explores the influence of sexual harassment in academia on the career advancement of women in the scientific technical and medical workforce This report reviews the research on the extent to which women in the fields of science engineering and medicine are victimized by sexual harassment and examines the existing information on the extent to which sexual harassment in academia negatively impacts the recruitment retention and advancement of women pursuing scientific engineering technical and medical careers It also identifies and analyzes the policies strategies and practices that have been the most successful in preventing and addressing sexual harassment in these settings
