Dinner with the Smileys Sarah Smiley, 2013-05-07 Fifty two guests take turns filling a military father's chair at his family's dinner table while he serves his yearlong deployment The week before Thanksgiving 2011 Dustin Smiley left for a yearlong military deployment Soon after his son Ford eleven invited Senator Susan Collins to fill his dad's chair at dinner On January 3 2012 Senator Collins came to dinner and brought brownies So began Dinner with the Smileys nationally syndicated columnist Sarah Smiley's fifty two week commitment to fill her husband's place at the family dinner table with interesting people from schoolteachers to Olympians professional athletes to famous authors comedians to politicians and unique role models for her three sons even as she knows Dustin's seat cannot truly be filled until he is home again for the fifty third dinner Why dinner Because dinnertime is often the loneliest time for people living alone If houses and apartments were like dollhouses with one side totally exposed Sarah says we'd see plenty of people eating alone to the glow of a television That was the fate Sarah feared for herself and her children during Dustin's absence So she opened her home and she and the kids sent invitations And they found that a surprising number of people really are available for dinner You just have to ask In a time when popular culture
