The Collected Works Kahlil Gibran, 2007 For the first time all the major works of this poet artist and mystic have been gathered together in one hardcover volume Khalil Gibran: Complete Works (Wisehouse Classics) Khalil Gibran, 2018-11-11 This volume contains the complete works poetry and fiction of Khalil Gibran Khalil Gibran was a Lebanese American writer poet and visual artist also considered a philosopher although he himself rejected this title in his lifetime He is best known as the author of The Prophet which was first published in the United States in 1923 and is one of the best selling books of all time having been translated into more than 100 languages As worded by Suheil Bushrui and Joe Jenkins Gibran s life has been described as one often caught between Nietzschean rebellion Blakean pantheism and Sufi mysticism

Gibran discussed such themes as religion justice free will science love happiness the soul the body and death in his writings which were characterized by innovation breaking with forms of the past by symbolism an undying love for his native land and a sentimental melancholic yet often oratorical style He explored literary forms as diverse as poetry parables fragments of conversation short stories fables political essays letters and aphorisms Salma Khadra Jayyusi has called him the single most important influence on Arabic poetry and literature during the first half of the twentieth century and he is still celebrated as a literary hero in Lebanon

Speak to Us of Love Osho,2013-05-14 Introducing us to the most famous poems of the Lebanese poet Kahlil Gibran Osho takes the reader into a mystical world addressing essential issues in everybody's life The famous verse that gives the title to this book is about love but not the ordinary love we know from novels and movies Speak to us of Love gives a taste of a contemporary mystic at work trying to disrupt our dreams illusions and the state of unconsciousness that prevents us from enjoying life to the fullest This is about and for the millions of people in the world who have killed their love with their own hands and who are now miserable They never wanted to kill it there was no intention to kill their love but in their unconsciousness they started possessing Husbands possess their wives wives possess their husbands and parents possess their children Teachers are trying in every possible way to possess their students Politicians are trying to possess countries Religions are trying to possess millions of people and control every aspect their lives This book shows that life can only thrive in freedom Love never allows anyone to possess it because love is our very soul For Osho the basis of all our neuroses or psychoses is simple our souls are not nourished Love the basic nourishment is missing Osho comprehensively trounces the so called religious and philosophical approaches to life All that is of worth is to be found not in the extraordinary but in the ordinary not in fantastical ideas of the other world beyond death but in this very world that we find ourselves in here and now In short this book shows that making a simple yet utterly basic shift in our lives will awaken the silence in our beings and bring joy into our every moment

Singing My Mother's Song Rebecca Tanton,2019-05 This collection started as a whisper a quiet mouth asking questions Over the years it became a coherent voice that kept getting louder Now it is a song sprung from a yearning to fill in the missing parts to understand my mother's story Perhaps it's something that goes beyond what is experiential and real and moves into memory and imagination Perhaps it is a book of magic of synchronicity and colliding moments in time too strange to be logical too concise to be chance Ultimately it's a way of shedding light in order to change the direction of a past Sometimes I think it has been formed by my imagined daughter clearing the way ahead before her own birth Or by whole generations of women celebrating a future formed from the heart of us

The Republic of Motherhood Liz Berry,2020-03-17 The Republic of Motherhood Winner of the Forward Prize for Best Single Poem I crossed the border into the Republic of Motherhood and found it a queendom a wild queendom In this bold and resonant gathering of poems Liz Berry turns her distinctive voice to the transformative experience of new motherhood Her poems sing the body electric from the joy and anguish of becoming a mother through its darkest hours to its brightest days With honesty and unabashed beauty they bear witness to that most tender of times when a new life arrives and everything changes Poems from the Edge of Extinction Chris McCabe, 2021-12-09 Gold winner in Poetry and Special Honors Award winner for Best Anthology Nautilus Book Awards The Beautiful New Treasury of Poetry in Endangered Languages in Association with the National Poetry Library Featuring award winning poets from cultures as diverse as the Ainu people of Japan to the Zoque of Mexico with languages that range from the indigenous Ahtna of Alaska to the Shetlandic dialect of Scots this evocative collection gathers together 50 of the finest poems in endangered or vulnerable languages from across the continents With poems by influential award winning poets such as US poet laureate Joy Harjo Hawad Valzhyna Mort and Jackie Kay this collection offers a unique insight into both languages and poetry taking the reader on an emotional life affirming journey into the cultures of these beautiful languages celebrating our linguistic diversity and highlighting our commonalities and the fundamental role verbal art plays in human life Each poem appears in its original form alongside an English translation and is accompanied by a commentary about the language the poet and the poem in a vibrant celebration of life diversity language and the enduring power of poetry One language is falling silent every two weeks Half of the 7 000 languages spoken in the world today will be lost by the end of this century With the loss of these languages we also lose the unique poetic traditions of their speakers and writers This timely anthology is passionately edited by widely published poet and UK National Poetry Librarian Chris McCabe who is also the founder of the Endangered Poetry Project a major project launched by London's Southbank Centre to collect poetry written in the world's disappearing languages and introduced by Dr Mandana Seyfeddinipur Director of the Endangered Languages Documentation Programme and the Endangered Languages Archive at SOAS University of London and Dr Martin Orwin Senior Lecturer in Somali and Amharic SOAS University of London Languages included in the book Assyrian Belarusian Chimiini Irish Gaelic Maori Navajo Patua Rotuman Saami Scottish Gaelic Welsh Yiddish Zoque Poets included in the book Joy Harjo Hawad Jackie Kay Aur lia Lassaque Nineb Lamassu Gear id Mac Lochlainn Valzhyna Mort Laura Tohe Taniel Varoujan Avrom Sutzkever Symbols of Islam Malek Chebel, 2001-02 The third and most recent of the monotheistic religions Islam shares with Judaism and Christianity the glorification of one God Allah This book provides a visual synthesis of the Islamic world The Peace of Wild Things Wendell Berry, 2018-02-22 If you stop and look around you you'll start to see Tall marigolds darkening A spring wind blowing The woods awake with sound On the wooden porch your love smiling Dew wet red berries in a cup On the hills the beginnings of green clover and grass to be pasture The fowls singing and then settling for the night Bright silent thousands of stars You come into the peace of simple things From the author of the compelling and luminous essays of The World Ending Fire comes a slim volume of poems Tender and intimate these are consoling songs of hope and of healing short simple meditations on love death friendship memory and belonging They celebrate and elevate what is sensuous about life and invite us to pause and appreciate what is good in life to stop and savour our fleeting moments of earthly enjoyment And when fear for the future keeps us awake at night to come into the peace of wild things Stag's Leap Sharon Olds, 2012-10-04 Winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Poetry and the T S Eliot Poetry Prize Stag's Leap Sharon Olds stunningly poignant new sequence of poems tells the story of a divorce embracing strands of love sex sorrow memory and new freedom In this wise and intimate telling which carries us through the seasons when her marriage was ending Sharon Olds opens her heart to the reader sharing the feeling of invisibility that comes when we are no longer standing in love's sight the surprising physical passion that still exists between a couple during parting the loss of everything from her husband's smile to the set of his hip Olds is naked before us curious and brave and even generous toward the man who was her mate for thirty years and now loves another woman As she writes in the remarkable title poem When anyone escapes my heart leaps up Even when it's I who am escaped from I am half on the side of the leaver Olds propulsive poetic line and the magic of her imagery are as lively as ever and there is a new range to the music sometimes headlong sometimes contemplative and deep Her unsparing approach to both pain and love makes this one of the finest most powerful books of poetry Olds has yet given us Spiritual World Kahlil Gibran, 2010-03-01
