Love Lyrics Of Ancient Egypt:

Love Lyrics of Ancient Egypt, 1994 Ancient Egypt is often thought of as a gloomy society obsessed with death But a collection of papyri dating to the latter half of the New Kingdom ca 1305 1080 B C presents us with delicate love lyrics that dispel any such illusion These vibrant love poems purported to be by boys and girls perhaps as young as thirteen or fourteen years of age are remarkable for their innocent sensuousness Combining her notable skills as a translator and a poet Barbara Fowler provides the first accurate translation of these love lyrics into modern English language poetry Her renderings are both elegant and correct They preserve the charm of a long lost civilization while making it possible for readers to appreciate one aspect of that culture in our time and through our language Originally published in 1994 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value Hymns, Prayers, and Songs John

Lawrence Foster,1995-01-01 Ancient Egyptian Literature Antonio Loprieno,2023-12-28 This volume deals with the development and the characteristics of the literature of Ancient Egypt over a period of more than two millennia from the monumental origins of autobiography at the end of the Old Kingdom ca 2150 BCE down to the latest literary compositions in Demotic during the Graeco Roman period 300 BCE 200 CE This book the result of an international co operation among more than twenty scholars is divided into sections devoted to the definition of literary discourse in Ancient Egypt the history and genres of these texts their linguistic and stylistic features and the image of Ancient Egypt as displayed in later literary traditions of the Mediterranean world Greek Coptic Arabic With over thirty chapters this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of current research in one of the methodologically most advanced fields of Egyptology The Literature of

Ancient Egypt Raymond Oliver Faulkner,2003-01-01 Presents annotated translations of papyrus writings and tomb inscriptions from the middle and late periods of ancient Egypt Love Songs Ted Gioia,2015 Uncovers the unexplored history of the love song from the fertility rites of ancient cultures to the sexualized YouTube videos of the present day and discusses such topics as censorship the legacy of love songs and why it is a dominant form of modern musical expression

Come Swiftly to Your Love Ezra Pound,1971 Leviticus Johnson M. Kimuhu,2008 Whereas many books in this field deal with individual aspects or texts of the study of family laws Leviticus The Priestly Laws and Prohibitions from the Perspective of Ancient Near East and Africa examines extensively biblical texts ancient Near Eastern text and oral traditions from Africa Thus three different cultures converge the world of the Hebrew Bible the world of the ancient Near East and the world of Africa This volume examines in detail the history of the development of ancient laws in general and family laws in particular especially the laws relating to marriages between close relatives Furthermore Johnson M Kimuhu looks at prohibitions and taboos in Africa and the problems they pose with regard to the interpretation and translation of difficult biblical concepts into African languages In that sense Kimuhu provides an example of how to contextualize or integrate African traditions into the study of biblical Hebrew and he also offers insights into the current debate on the study of kinship from the point of view of social cultural anthropology and the Hebrew Bible legal system Teachers students and researchers in biblical studies ancient Near Eastern studies African traditions and social cultural anthropology will find this book helpful in their quest to understand family laws prohibitions and taboos

Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts Victor Karandashev, 2016-12-24 This volume presents a conceptual historical anthropological and sociological review of how culture affects our experience and expression of romantic love What is romantic love and how is it different from and similar to other kinds of love How is romantic love related to sex and marriage in human history and across contemporary cultures What cultural factors mediate attraction in love These are some of the questions the volume explores through its interdisciplinary yet focused lens Much of the current research evidence suggests that love is a universal emotion experienced by a majority of people in various historical eras and in all the world's cultures Yet love displays in different ways because culture has an impact on people's conceptions of love and the ways they feel think and behave in romantic relationships This volume summarizes classical knowledge on love and culture while at the same time focusing sharply on recent studies and cutting edge research that has advanced the field Divided into three parts the volume begins by defining and analyzing the concept of romantic love and interdisciplinary approach to its study in cultural context Part II traces the origin and evolution of romantic love both in various places throughout the world and various time periods throughout history Part III presents the revolutionary expansion of romantic love ideas and practices in the late 20th and early 21st centuries in various parts of the world focusing particularly on the development of romantic love as a cultural ideal of the modern cultures Finally the book concludes by summarizing the major achievements in this field of study and predicts future development A timely and thoughtful addition to the literature Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts delivers thought provoking insights to researchers in relationship scholarship sociology anthropology and cultural studies and all those interested in the universal human concept of love Overall I find Dr Victor Karandashev is an excellent and fine scholar who has a firm grasp of both the fundamental principles of cross cultural research and of anthropology In our increasingly connected world Romantic Love in Cultural Contexts updates and adds to the descriptions and explanations of similarities and differences in romantic love across generations and cultures Romantic love encompasses the life span rather than being a phenomenon largely confined to youthful years The topic of this project concerns the deepest of our sentiments and pervades life from birth to death This book contributes to better knowledge of this phenomenon across generations Flix Neto Professor of Psychology Faculdade de Psicologia e de Ciências da Educação Universidade do Porto Portugal

Ancient Egyptian Literature, Volume I Miriam Lichtheim,2006-04-03 First published in 1973 and followed by Volume II in 1976 and Volume III in 1980 this anthology has assumed classic status in the field of Egyptology and portrays the remarkable evolution of the literary forms of one of the world s earliest civilizations Volume I outlines the early and gradual evolution of Egyptian literary genres including biographical and historical inscriptions carved on stone the various classes of literary works written with pen on papyrus and the mortuary literature that focuses on life after death Introduced with a new foreword by Antonio Loprieno Volume II shows the culmination of these literary genres within the single period known as the New Kingdom 1550 1080 B C With a new foreword by Hans W Fischer Elfert Volume III spans the last millennium of Pharaonic civilization from the tenth century B C to the beginning of the Christian era With a new foreword by Joseph G Manning Ancient Egyptian Love Lyrics Raymond Aloysius McCoy,Phyllis McCoy,1975 The Song of Songs and the Ancient Egyptian Love Songs Michael V. Fox,1985 Available once more this is a comprehensive comparative literary philological examination of two enduring bodies of love poetry from the ancient Near East Frederick II David Abulafia,1992 Frederick II of Hohenstaufen Holy Roman Emperor King of Sicily King of Jerusalem has since his death in 1250 enjoyed a reputation as one of the most remarkable monarchs in the history of Europe His wide cultural tastes his apparent tolerance of Jews and Muslims his defiance of the papacy and his supposed aim of creating a new secular world order make him a figure especially attractive to contemporary historians But as David Abulafia shows in this powerfully written biography Frederick was much less tolerant and far sighted in his cultural religious and political ambitions than is generally thought Here Frederick is revealed as the thorough traditionalist he really was a man who espoused the same principles of government as his twelfth century predecessors an ardent leader of the Crusades and a king as willing to make a deal with Rome as any other ruler in medieval Europe Frederick s realm was vast Besides ruling the region of Europe that encompasses modern Germany Czechoslovakia Poland eastern France and northern Italy he also inherited the Kingdom of Sicily and parts of the Mediterranean that include what are now Israel Lebanon Malta and Cyprus In addition his Teutonic knights conquered the present day Baltic States and he even won influence along the coasts of Tunisia Abulafia is the first to place Frederick in the wider historical context his enormous empire demands Frederick s reign Abulafia clearly shows marked the climax of the power struggle between the medieval popes and the Holy Roman Emperors and the book stresses Frederick s steadfast dedication to the task of preserving both dynasty and empire Through the course of this rich groundbreaking narrative Frederick emerges as less of the innovator than he is usually portrayed Rather than instituting a centralized autocracy he was content to guarantee the continued existence of the customary style of government in each area

he ruled in Sicily he appeared a mighty despot but in Germany he placed his trust in regional princes and never dreamed of usurping their power Abulafia shows that this pragmatism helped bring about the eventual transformation of medieval Europe into modern nation states The book also sheds new light on the aims of Frederick in Italy and the Near East and concentrates as well on the last fifteen years of the Emperor's life a period until now little understood In addition Abulafia has mined the papal registers in the Secret Archive of the Vatican to provide a new interpretation of Frederick's relations with the papacy And his attention to Frederick's register of documents from 1239-40 a collection hitherto neglected has yielded new insights into the cultural life of the German court In the end a fresh and fascinating picture develops of the most enigmatic of German rulers a man whose accomplishments have been grossly distorted over the centuries

Landscapes of the Song of Songs Elaine T. James, 2017 Landscapes of the Song of Songs is an interdisciplinary study that develops a theory of landscape to explore the Song's conceptualization of the natural world New readings of the Song's poetry reveal how it imagines human lovers enfolded in complex relationships of fragility and care

The World Is a Waiting Lover Trebbe Johnson, 2011-02-08 Johnson explores the concept of the Beloved the elusive alluring force that beckons us forth to passionate engagement with the world and shows how our sense of love is often linked to something far greater than ourselves She explains that mistaking a human lover for the inner eternal Beloved is the first step in any romance yet the ability to distinguish between the two ultimately holds the key to our quest for personal freedom and fulfillment Steeped in Western and Eastern myth and romantic imagery The World is a Waiting Lover guides us through story and thought in order to discover passion Eros and our authentic selves It is a personal story and at the same time an invitation to explore our individual yearnings to live with fearless authenticity as we find more passion and meaning in our work relationships and view of the future

Gendering Modern Jewish Thought Andrea Dara Cooper, 2021-11-02 The idea of brotherhood has been an important philosophical concept for understanding community equality and justice In Gendering Modern Jewish Thought Andrea Dara Cooper offers a gendered reading that challenges the key figures of the all male fraternity of twentieth century Jewish philosophy to open up to the feminine Cooper offers a feminist lens which when applied to thinkers such as Franz Rosenzweig and Emmanuel Levinas reveals new ways of illuminating questions of relational ethics embodiment politics and positionality She shows that patriarchal kinship as models of erotic love brotherhood and paternity are not accidental in Jewish philosophy but serve as norms that have excluded women and non normative individuals Gendering Modern Jewish Thought suggests these fraternal models do real damage and must be brought to account in more broadly humanistic frameworks For Cooper a more responsible and ethical reading of Jewish philosophy comes forward when it is opened to the voices of mothers sisters and daughters

Journey from St. Petersburg Vadim Bytensky, 2007-06 A fascinatingly many sided personality Vadim Bytensky retains the broadly arching interests of the traditional Russian intellectual a man with a broad and devoted knowledge of world literature music philosophy and politics that constantly illuminate his traveler's observations

Bytensky emerges as a well rounded and harmonious personality who combines sober reasoning with a romantic enthusiasm a sentimental attachment to an old cultural inheritance and an open if sometimes skeptical and critical curiosity about things new

Sacred Marriages Martti Nissinen, Risto Uro, 2008-06-30 The title of this volume Sacred Marriages consciously plays with the traditional concept of sacred marriage but the plural form sacred marriages gives the reader an idea that something more is at stake here than a monomaniacal idea of manifestations deriving from a single prototype Following the guidelines of one of the contributors Ruben Zimmermann the editors tentatively define sacred marriage as a real or symbolic union of two complementary entities imagined as gendered in a religious context Sacred marriages plural then refers to various expressions of this kind of union in different cultures that seek to overcome to cite Zimmermann again the great dualism of human and cosmic existence The subtitle indicates that the contributors are primarily interested in different aspects of the divine human sexual metaphor that is the imagining and reenactment of a gendered relationship between the human and divine worlds This metaphor which is essentially about relationship rather than sexual acts can find textual ritual mythical and social expressions in different times and places Indeed the sacred marriage ritual itself should be considered not a manifestation of the sacralized power of sexuality experienced in sexual intercourse but one way of objectifying the divine human sexual metaphor
