McGuire, 2011-10-04 Here is the courageous groundbreaking story of Rosa Parks and Recy Taylor a story that reinterprets the history of America's civil rights movement in terms of the sexual violence committed against Black women by white men An important step to finally facing the terrible legacies of race and gender in this country The Washington Post Rosa Parks was often described as a sweet and reticent elderly woman whose tired feet caused her to defy segregation on Montgomery's city buses and whose supposedly solitary spontaneous act sparked the 1955 bus boycott that gave birth to the civil rights movement The truth of who Rosa Parks was and what really lay beneath the 1955 boycott is far different from anything previously written In this groundbreaking and important book Danielle McGuire writes about the rape in 1944 of a twenty four year old mother and sharecropper Recy Taylor who strolled toward home after an evening of singing and praying at the Rock Hill Holiness Church in Abbeville Alabama Seven white men armed with knives and shotguns ordered the young woman into their green Chevrolet raped her and left her for dead The president of the local NAACP branch office sent his best investigator and organizer Rosa Parks to Abbeville In taking on this case Parks launched a movement that exposed a ritualized history of sexual assault against Black women and added fire to the growing call for change Writing Emotions Ingeborg Jandl, Susanne Knaller, Sabine Schönfellner, Gudrun

Tockner, 2018-07-15 After a long period of neglect emotions have become an important topic within literary studies This collection of essays stresses the complex link between aesthetic and non aesthetic emotional components and discusses emotional patterns by focusing on the practice of writing as well as on the impact of such patterns on receptive processes Readers interested in the topic will be presented with a concept of aesthetic emotions as formative both within the writing and the reading process Essays ranging in focus from the beginning of modern drama to digital formats and theoretical questions examine examples from English German French Russian and American literature Contributors include Angela Locatelli Vera N nning and Gesine Lenore Schiewer The Diaries of Paul Klee, 1898-1918 Paul Klee, 1968-06 Paul Klee was endowed with a rich and many sided personality that was continually spilling over into forms of expression other than his painting and that made him one of the most extraordinary phenomena of modern European art These abilities have left their record in the four intimate Diaries in which he faithfully recorded the events of his inner and outer life from his nineteenth to his fortieth year Here together with recollections of his childhood in Bern his relations with his family and such friends as Kandinsky Marc Macke and many others his observations on nature and people his trips to Italy and Tunisia and his military service the reader will find Klee s crucial experience with literature and music as well as many of his essential ideas about his own artistic technique and the creative process The Heroes of Olympus, Book Three: The Mark of Athena Rick

Riordan, 2012-10-02 In The Son of Neptune Percy Hazel and Frank met in Camp Jupiter the Roman equivalent of Camp Halfblood and traveled to the land beyond the gods to complete a dangerous quest The third book in the Heroes of Olympus series will unite them with Jason Piper and Leo But they number only six who will complete the Prophecy of Seven The Greek and Roman demigods will have to cooperate in order to defeat the giants released by the Earth Mother Gaea Then they will have to sail together to the ancient land to find the Doors of Death What exactly are the Doors of Death Much of the prophecy remains a mystery With old friends and new friends joining forces a marvelous ship fearsome foes and an exotic setting The Mark of Athena promises to be another unforgettable adventure by master storyteller Rick Riordan Theater as

Metaphor Elena Penskaya, Joachim Küpper, 2019-05-20 The papers of the present volume investigate the potential of the metaphor of life as theater for literary philosophical juridical and epistemological discourses from the Middle Ages through modernity and focusing on traditions as manifold as French Spanish Italian German Russian and Latin American Minor Histories Mike Kelley, 2004-02-06 The second volume of writings by Los Angeles artist Mike Kelley focusing on his own work What John C Welchman calls the blazing network of focused confluences from which Mike Kelley's styles are generated is on display in all its diversity in this second volume of the artist's writings The first volume Foul Perfection contained thematic essays and writings about other artists this collection concentrates on Kelley's own work ranging from texts in voices that grew out of scripts for performance pieces to expository critical and autobiographical writings Minor Histories organizes Kelley's writings into five sections Statements consists of twenty pieces produced between 1984 and 2002 most of which were written to accompany exhibitions including Ajax which draws on Homer Colgate Palmolive and Longinus to present its eponymous hero Some Aesthetic High Points an exercise in autobiography that counters the standard artist bio included in catalogs and press releases and a sequence of creative writings that use mass cultural tropes in concert with high art mannerisms approximating in prose the visual styles that characterize Kelley's artwork Video Statements and Proposals are introductions to videos made by Kelley and other artists including Paul McCarthy and Bob Flanagan and Sheree Rose Image Texts offers writings that accompany or are part of artworks and installations This section includes A Stopgap Measure Kelley's zestful millennial essay in social satire and Meet John Doe a collage of appropriated texts Architecture features an discussion of Kelley's Educational Complex 1995 and an interview in which he reflects on the role of architecture in his work Finally Ufology considers the aesthetics and sexuality of space as manifested by UFO sightings and abduction scenarios
