Love Of The Samurai Thousand Years Of Japanese Homosexuality:

Love of the Samurai Tsuneo Watanabe, Jun'ichi Iwata, 1989 Uncovers the deeply embedded cultural traditions of homosexuality in Japanese society suggesting that they are as fundamental to an understanding of Japan's traditional civilization as a knowledge of pederastia is to an appreciation of Greek art Male Homosexuality in Modern Japan Mark J. McLelland, 2000 Looks at the wide range of contrasting images of the gay male body in Japanese popular culture both mainstream and gay and relates these images to the experience of an interview sample of Japanese gay men Queer Asian Cinema Andrew Grossman, 2018-10-24 Explore queer themes in films from Hong Kong gangster flicks to Bollywood melodramas Although Asian films have reached a new height in popularity worldwide Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade is the first full length book in English solely devoted to examining the aesthetics and politics of homosexuality in Asian films This unique book presents multiple points of view on the portrayal of gay lesbian and transgendered people in film throughout Asia From the subversive sadomasochism of Japan's pink films to the hard boiled world of Hong Kong's gangster movies Queer Asian Cinema analyzes and discusses attitudes toward homosexuality in the full spectrum of Asian film In addition to studies of the representation of identified gay men lesbians and transgendered individuals it reveals the hidden homoerotic subtext of otherwise conventional films Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade examines diverse aspects of Asian films including the political and psychological links between feudal and sadomasochist hierarchies the inevitable punishment of homoerotic bonds in gangster films the integration of the homosexual couple into the Confucian family structure in Korean films the complexities of cross gender casting the differences between transvestism and cross dressing the definition of male genitalia as obscene Queer Asian Cinema Shadows in the Shade brings together experts in both film making and movie criticism providing a balanced viewpoint to unite the worlds of academic and popular perceptions on this subject It opens an exciting discussion of this important and largely neglected area of cinematic discourse The First European Description of Japan, 1585 Luis Frois SJ, 2014-03-14 In 1585 at the height of Jesuit missionary activity in Japan which was begun by Francis Xavier in 1549 Luis Frois a long time missionary in Japan drafted the earliest systematic comparison of Western and Japanese cultures This book constitutes the first critical English language edition of the 1585 work the original of which was discovered in the Royal Academy of History in Madrid after the Second World War The book provides a translation of the text which is not a continuous narrative but rather more than 600 distichs or brief couplets on subjects such as gender child rearing religion medicine eating horses writing ships and seafaring architecture and music and drama In addition the book includes a substantive introduction and other editorial material to explain the background and also to make comparisons with present day Japanese life Overall the book represents an important primary source for understanding a particularly challenging period of history and its connection to contemporary Europe and Japan Rainbow Theology Patrick S. Cheng, 2013-04-01 To date no book has systematically examined the theological writings of LGBT people of color Nor has any book explored how such writings might actually transform contemporary theological reflections on race and sexuality This book remedies these gaps by constructing a rainbow theology around the theme of bridging or mediation Rainbow Theology is the first book to reflect upon the theological significance of the intersections of race and queer sexuality across multiple ethnic and cultural groups This is particularly important in light of the current polarizing debates over issues of race sexuality and religion within churches and communities of faith around the world
