as with many things in our culture this view of submission has found its way into our churches and marriages In reality women desperately want to experience the graceful waltz where both the husband and wife are in harmony each dancing their God given role But all too often there are no realistic Godly models from which to draw Author and speaker Cindy Easley surveyed ordinary women and asked How does this work for you Specifically how do women live out submission in her particular situation These are their stories from caring for a chronically ill husband to living with a nonbeliever Each example will help married or engaged women gain appreciation for God s will for marriage and learn to dance with the one they love

Pastoral Prayers to Share, Year B David Sparks,2011 Just what is pastoral prayer all about When we pray for others and ourselves what are we attempting to do As David Sparks explains as pastoral pray ers we are about bringing ourselves into right relationship with God both as individuals and as a faith community As pastoral pray ers we are about expressing our compassion for suffering humanity and fulfilling God's intention of establishing God's realm on earth. Pastoral prayers are also about being involved in the answers to our prayers. There's no trying to persuade God to do what we ourselves could do with some energy and effort here. Sparks writes his prayers to awaken in us an awareness of where to put our energy and use our faith to bring about God's kingdom on earth. The prayers cover local and worldwide events, individual and congregational concerns. They are lectionary based and responsive and can be easily adapted to particular circumstances and used in a variety of settings.
