All That Is James Salter, 2013-04-02 An extraordinary literary event a major new novel by the PEN Faulkner winner and acclaimed master a sweeping seductive deeply moving story set in the years after World War II From his experiences as a young naval officer in battles off Okinawa Philip Bowman returns to America and finds a position as a book editor It is a time when publishing is still largely a private affair a scattered family of small houses here and in Europe a time of gatherings in fabled apartments and conversations that continue long into the night In this world of dinners deals and literary careers Bowman finds that he fits in perfectly But despite his success what eludes him is love His first marriage goes bad another fails to happen and finally he meets a woman who enthralls him before setting him on a course he could never have imagined for himself Romantic and haunting All That Is explores a life unfolding in a world on the brink of change It is a dazzling sometimes devastating labyrinth of love and ambition a fiercely intimate account of the great shocks and grand pleasures of being alive Craft in the Real World Matthew Salesses, 2021-01-19 This national bestseller is a significant contribution to discussions of the art of fiction and a necessary challenge to received views about whose stories are told how they are told and for whom they are intended Laila Lalami The New York Times Book Review The traditional writing workshop was established with white male writers in mind what we call craft is informed by their cultural values In this bold and original examination of elements of writing including plot character conflict structure and believability and aspects of workshop including the silenced writer and the imagined reader Matthew Salesses asks questions to invigorate these familiar concepts He upends Western notions of how a story must progress How can we rethink craft and the teaching of it to better reach writers with diverse backgrounds How can we invite diverse storytelling traditions into literary spaces Drawing from examples including One Thousand and One Nights Curious George Ursula K Le Guin's A Wizard of Earthsea and the Asian American classic No No Boy Salesses asks us to reimagine craft and the workshop In the pages of exercises included here teachers will find suggestions for building syllabi grading and introducing new methods to the classroom students will find revision and editing guidance as well as a new lens for reading their work Salesses shows that we need to interrogate the lack of diversity at the core of published fiction how we teach and write it After all as he reminds us When we write fiction we write the world
