Labaree,2012-04-02 What do we really want from schools Only everything in all its contradictions Most of all we want access and opportunity for all children but all possible advantages for our own So argues historian David Labaree in this provocative look at the way this archetype of dysfunction works so well at what we want it to do even as it evades what we explicitly ask it to do Ever since the common school movement of the nineteenth century mass schooling has been seen as an essential solution to great social problems Yet as wave after wave of reform movements have shown schools are extremely difficult to change Labaree shows how the very organization of the locally controlled administratively limited school system makes reform difficult At the same time he argues the choices of educational consumers have always overwhelmed top down efforts at school reform Individual families seek to use schools for their own purposes to pursue social opportunity if they need it and to preserve social advantage if they have it In principle we want the best for all children In practice we want the best for our own Provocative unflinching wry Someone Has to Fail looks at the way that unintended consequences of consumer choices have created an extraordinarily resilient educational system perpetually expanding perpetually unequal constantly being reformed and never changing much      Skin Theory Cristina Mejia Visperas,2022-07-26 During the postwar period experiments on prison populations were standard practice among many universities public health agencies and major pharmaceutical manufacturers across the United States Thus the operative question in Skin Theory is What was it about the US prison that made it so amenable to medical science research A visual study for critically understanding entwined sites of imprisonment and scientific knowledge production Skin Theory speaks directly to the crucial moments immediately before two large American industries one carceral and the other pharmaceutical saw their fantastic rise and dominance honing in on when their interests and operations came together in explicit ways It revisits the notorious dermatological experiments conducted between 1952 and 1974 at Holmesburg Prison Philadelphia analyzing skin in its technological spatial and discursive dimensions to illustrate a profound antagonism between knowledge and freedom made visible through the body of the captive test subject a racialized subject whose boundless availability to scientific and cultural representation complicates the very notion of skin This study offers an important reframing of critical approaches to race in histories of science medicine and technology redefining science as already a fundamentally racial project A visual analysis of how medical science and incarceration together formed a race making technology and geography reconfiguring the nation s long history of captivity from slavery to mass incarceration Skin Theory shifts from issues of scientific racism to the scientific rationality of racism itself      Neurath Reconsidered Jordi Cat,Adam Tamas Tuboly,2019-02-12 This highly readable book is a collection of critical papers on Otto Neurath 1882 1945 It comprehensively re examines Neurath s scientific philosophical and educational

Entrepreneur Extraordinary Anthony Cekota, 1968-01-01 This book is a story of a great adventure arising from a business where adventures could be least expected Although it's hero the late Tomas Bata kept his eyes focused sharply on the ground in the shoe business he has to his mind was soaring high in dreams of a mission to make all mankind well shod How he did it and what his motives and accomplishments were is presented in this biography of the man and his time with considerable detail and first hand knowledge We see a man who having run away from home at the age of fourteen to start his own business was continuously impatient with both time and environment visualizing the opportunities which although at hand were never noticed by his competitors during his life He was man who could visualize such opportunities even in the most difficult situations as indicated from his attitude toward the Great Depression of 1929 Half of mankind is barefoot and only a fraction of the world s population is well shod he said at the time of world wide unemployment Look how little we ve done so far and how much work is waiting for all shoemakers every where in the world And when the difficulties continued he growled into their faces in 1930 I would rather work for nothing than do nothing Only when you work can you keep hoping to find a way Shoemaker salesman and organizer of many industries Tomas Bata was a man among men changing the simple folk in and around his birthplace into modern industrial workers and managers of business and salesmen resembling a now almost extinct type of man who in their pursuance of their business have discovered in former centuries new territories and lifted up the standard of life and living everywhere Necessity made him a politician to obtain the right to rebuild a whole city a teacher pioneering new methods of education a builder who combined building of factories and houses with a businessman type of social service However he was first and always an entrepreneur extraordinary As such he attacked every problem with gusto of a prize fighter and the zeal of a missionary transferring an ideal into ideas and these again into plans and actions Ideal What ideal and ideas Some of them can be discerned from the pages of this book others in the fierce loyalty and performance o f the men whom he brought up to spread his message of entrepreneurship to the four corners of the world In some ways and perhaps indirectly a reader could take this book as a challenge If its hero succeeded in turning a simple business into a real adventure of service and a powerful way of life why not you Today s world needs men of Tomas Bata s caliber as much as his world needed them several decades ago and perhaps nowadays even more It is this type of man who provides the answers to the crucial questions of our time i e whether our society enjoying the good things of life will survive as a home of free men This in the author s concept is a final message arising from the biography of this extraordinary man Tomas Bata He only earns his freedom and existence who daily conquers them anew
