 Christine Lucia, 2009-03-26 The present Reader is a selection of texts on South African music which are chosen not only for their importance or the frequency of citations but with the express purpose of providing the reader with a deep understanding of the music itself Consequently there are readings that are chosen because they have been influential but there are also many which though published have not enjoyed very wide circulation There are those which are of obvious historic interest and others which speak to contemporary issues Among other things the volume provides an excellent sense of the varying ideologies and approaches that determine the relationship between author and subject The reader is indispensable to scholars and enthusiasts of South African music and it is of great interest to ethnomusicologists more generally It is also an excellent resource for those who do not have immediate access to harder to find articles and is perhaps most vital to those who are looking to find a way into the world of South African music Publishers' Circular and

British Books ,1904 The Publisher ,1902 The Hymnographic Book of Tropologion Svetlana Kujumdzieva, 2017-11-08 The Tropologion is considered the earliest known extant chant book from the early Christian world which was in use until the twelfth century The study of this book is still in its infancy It has generally been believed that the book has survived in Georgian translation under the name ladgari but similar books have been discovered in Greek Syriac and Armenian All the copies clearly show that the spread and the use of the book were much greater than we had previously assumed and the Georgian ladgari is only one of its many versions The study of these issues unquestionably confirms the earliest stage of the compilation of the book in Jerusalem or its environs and shows its uninterrupted development from Jerusalem to the Stoudios monastery the most important monastery of Constantinople Over time many new pieces and new authors were added to the Tropologion It is almost certain that it was the Stoudios school of poet composers that divided the content of the Tropologion and compiled separate collections of books each one containing a major liturgical cycle In the beginning all of the volumes kept the old title but in the tenth century the copies of the book were renamed probably according to the liturgical repertory included and by the thirteenth century the title Tropologion is no longer found in the Greek sources as it became superfluous and fell out of use *Edinburgh Critical Edition of the Selected Writings of Andrew
