The Real West Marginal Way: A Poet's Autobiography Richard Hugo, 1992-06-17 Of Richard Hugo's Making Certain It Goes On David Wagoner has written Richard Hugo spared himself and us no pains or joys in making the wonderful vigorous original poems brought together in this single collection His was and is a very important voice in modern American poetry Hugo was also an editor of the Yale Younger Poets series and a distinguished teacher and master of the personal essay Now many of his essays have been assembled and arranged by Ripley Hugo the poet's widow and a writer and teacher and Lois and James Welch writers and close friends of the poet Together the essays constitute a compelling autobiographical narrative that takes Hugo from his lonely childhood

through the war years and his working and creative life to an interview just before his death in 1982 William Matthews also a friend of Hugo's has written an introduction

The West in Early Cinema Nanna Verhoeff, 2006-01-01 Verhoeff investigates the emergence of the western genre made in the first two decades of cinema 1895 1915 By analyzing many unknown and forgotten films from international archives she traces the relationships between films about the American West their surrounding films and other popular media such as photography painting pulp literature Wild West Shows and popular ethnography Through this exploration of archival material she raises new questions of historiography and provides a model for historical analysis These first traces of the Western film reveal a preoccupation with presence and actuality that informs us about the way in which film as new medium took shape within the context of its contemporary visual culture

In The West in Early Cinema gaat Nanna Verhoeff op zoek naar de nog onbekende beginjaren van het westerngenre tijdens de eerste twee decennia van het medium film 1895 1915 Aan de hand van onbekende en vergeten films uit internationale filmarchieven traceert zij de relaties tussen films over het Westen omringende filmgenres uit deze periode en andere populaire media als fotografie schilderkunst pulp literatuur Wild West Shows en populaire etnografie Deze sporen van het genre tonen een grote actualiteit en variatie die laat zien op welke manier de film als nieuw medium een vorm vond binnen de toenmalige visuele cultuur

Historical Atlas of the Outlaw West Richard M. Patterson, 1985 A state by state review of the history of outlaws and outlaw activity in the Old West

Unsettling the Literary West Nathaniel Lewis, 2003-01-01 The test of western literature has invariably been Is it real Is it accurate Authentic The result is a standard anything but literary as Nathaniel Lewis observes in this ambitious work a wholesale rethinking of the critical terms and contexts and thus of the very nature of western writing Why is western writing virtually missing from the American literary canon but a frequent success in the marketplace The skewed status of western literature Lewis contends can be directly attributed to the strategies of the region's writers and these strategies depend consistently on the claim of authenticity A perusal of western American authorship reveals how these writers effectively present themselves as accurate and reliable recorders of real places histories and cultures but not as stylists or inventors The imaginative qualities of this literature are thus obscured in the name of authentic reproduction Through a study of a set of western authors and their relationships to literary and cultural history Lewis offers a reconsideration of the deceptive and often undervalued history of western American literature With unequivocal admiration for the literature under scrutiny Lewis exposes the potential for startling new readings once western writing is freed from its insistence on a questionable authenticity His book sets out a broader system of inquiry that points writers and critics of western literature in the direction of a new and truly sustaining literary tradition

Mountain Masculinity Tex Wood, 2008 In 1906 Nello Vernon Wood 1882 1978 reinvented himself as Tex Wood Banff hunting guide and writer of yarns of the wilderness by a competent outdoorsman His homespun stories of a vanishing world in such periodicals as The Sportsman Hunting and Fishing and the Canadian Alpine Journal have much to tell us about the west as envisioned by those who wanted to leave the early 20th century behind or at least read about others who had done so In the writings of his persona Tex Vernon Wood created an image of the frontier that blended the West of his guiding experiences with the West as a literary object Editors Gow and Rak guide the reader with a framing introduction to the work as well as to each article Spurred West Ian Neligh,2019-10-15 I can't imagine a better guide to the Old West and the contemporary Wild West than Ian Neligh This book is a hoot C J Box 1 New York Times Best Selling Author of LONG RANGE A collection of true stories revealing the spellbinding world of the Old West's greatest and most infamous characters past and present including bullfighters treasure seekers bounty hunters detectives gunslingers rustlers even the legendary showman Buffalo Bill Cody and many more Just how wild was the Wild West and what's left of it A time of legend adventure and unspeakable tragedy America's Western frontier in the latter half of the nineteenth century helped forge the United States into the country it would become and left an enduring legacy for its people By the author of Gold Madness Murder and Mayhem in the Colorado Rockies Spurred West reveals the unusual history behind Colorado's birth and the cultural formation of the Wild West of the Rocky Mountains Written with historical accuracy and research in a compelling gripping voice this book examines Colorado's state heritage while telling colorful stories of historic and modern day figures from the bondsmen and gunslingers of old to the buffalo wranglers today Discover the incredible stories of America's Wild West and the lasting spirit it has emboldened to carry in Colorado still to this day Includes stories based in Arizona Colorado Kansas Montana New Mexico Oklahoma and Wyoming and of interest to anyone who loves the West The Best of American Heritage: The Old West Edwin S. Grosvenor,2018-11-26 Here in this remarkable collection from American Heritage such noted authors as Tom Brokaw Wallace Stegner John Lukacs and others bring to life many of the most famous men and women of the Old West from Lewis and Clark to Charles Fr. mont Billy the Kid Wyatt Earp Chief Joseph Frederick Remington the defenders of the Alamo the Texas Rangers and the riders of the Pony Express It also shines a light on topics such as the origins of scalping the famous Lincoln County War the grim medical reality of Western gunfights cowboy jargon and the first rodeo True West William R. Handley,Nathaniel Lewis,2007-05-01 In no other region of the United States has the notion of authenticity played such an important yet elusive role as it has in the West Though pervasive in literature popular culture and history assumptions about western authenticity have not received adequate critical attention Given the ongoing economic and social transformations in this vast region the persistent nostalgia and desire for the real authentic West suggest regional and national identities at odds with themselves True West explores the concept of authenticity as it is used to invent test advertise and read the West The fifteen essays collected here apply contemporary critical and cultural theory to western literary history Native American literature and identities the visual West and the imagining of place Ranging geographically from the Canadian Prairies to Buena Park's Entertainment Corridor in Southern California and chronologically from early tourist narratives to contemporary environmental writing True West challenges many assumptions we make about western writing and opens the door to an important new chapter in western literary history and cultural criticism      The Broadview Reader - Third Edition Jane Flick, Herbert Rosengarten, 1998-02-16 This new edition includes most of the essays that have made The Broadview Reader one of the most popular first year textbooks in Canada and adds 18 fresh selections As before essays are gathered into groups by topic but the editors also provide alternative tables of contents by rhetorical patterns and devices and by chronology Each selection is followed by a wide range of questions and suggestions for discussions and the reader also includes a glossary and biographical notes Most of the new selections are of recent vintage but in recognition of the degree to which modern issues often have a long and honourable history the editors have also added several selections by nineteenth century writers Also the reader now includes a full section on Women in Society The book's balance of Canadian and non Canadian writers has been maintained as has the range of different styles and different essay lengths that are included In all the new edition includes 80 selections      Landscapes of the New West Krista Comer, 1999 In the early 1970s empowered by the civil rights and women's movements a new group of women writers began speaking to the American public Their topic broadly defined was the postmodern American West By the mid 1980s their combined works made for a bona fide literary groundswell in both critical and commercial terms However as Krista Comer notes despite the attentions of publishers the media and millions of readers literary scholars have rarely addressed this movement or its writers Too many critics Comer argues still enamored of western images that are both masculine and antimodern have been slow to reckon with the emergence of a new far more feminine postmodern multiracial and urban west Here she calls for a redesign of the field of western cultural studies one that engages issues of gender and race and is more self conscious about space itself_ especially that cherished symbol of western authenticity open landscape Surveying works by Joan Didion Wanda Coleman Maxine Hong Kingston Leslie Marmon Silko Barbara Kingsolver Pam Houston Louise Erdrich Sandra Cisneros and Mary Clearman Blew Comer shows how these and other contemporary women writers have mapped new geographical imaginations upon the cultural and social spaces of today's American West
