El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005,2005 Strategic Employee Communication Gail S. Thornton,Viviane Regina Mansi,Bruno Carramenha,Thatiana Cappellano,2018-10-06 Employee engagement or a lack thereof can often be linked to poor communication and a detachment from company goals Companies of all sizes are looking for ways to boost communication recognizing its impact on key business outcomes such as productivity and profitability This book offers fresh insights about opportunities to improve the quality of employee communications based on employees needs It highlights the importance of simple jargon free communication that focuses on dialogue and content High performing organizations are more likely to think about communication from the audience perspective rather than purely from the management perspective The case studies offer readers a firm understanding of ways to implement and measure communication in daily practice Effective communication requires planning and this book with its focus on the US Latin America and emerging markets will guide readers in using communication in the alignment of corporate and employee needs

Anthropology and Development Jean-Pierre Oliver De-Sardan,2013-07-18 This book re establishes the relevance of mainstream anthropological and sociological approaches to development processes and simultaneously recognizes that contemporary development ought to be anthropology s principal area of study Professor de Sardan argues for a socio anthropology of change and development that is a deeply empirical multidimensional diachronic study of social groups and their interactions The Introduction provides a thought provoking examination of the principal new approaches that have emerged in the discipline during the 1990s Part I then makes clear the complexity of social change and development and the ways in which socio anthropology can measure up to the challenge of this complexity Part II looks more closely at some of the leading variables involved in the development process including relations of production the logics of social action the nature of knowledge forms of mediation and political strategies Regulating Gun Sales Daniel W Webster, Jon S Vernick, Emma E McGinty, Ted Alcorn, 2013-03-26 This excerpt from the masterful timely data driven study of the gun control debate examines the potential of stronger purchasing laws Choice As the debate on gun control continues evidence based research is needed to answer a crucial question How do we reduce gun violence One of the biggest gun policy reforms under consideration is the regulation of firearm sales and stopping the diversion of guns to criminals This selection from the major anthology of studies Reducing Gun Violence in America presents compelling evidence that stronger purchasing laws and better enforcement of these laws result in lower gun violence Additional material for this edition includes an introduction by Michael R Bloomberg and Consensus Recommendations for Reforms to Federal Gun Policies from the Johns Hopkins University Realidades 2, 2008 International Community Psychology Stephanie Reich, Manuel Riemer, Isaac Prilleltensky, Maritza Montero, 2007-07-03 This is the first in depth guide to global community psychology research and practice history and development theories and innovations presented in one field defining volume This book will serve to promote international collaboration enhance theory utilization and development identify biases and barriers in the field accrue critical mass for a discipline that is often marginalized and to minimize the pervasive US centric view of the field
