Realism In Our Time:

Realism in Our Time György Lukács, 1971 A Theory of Security Strategy for Our Time Shiping Tang, 2010-03-15

Because the world has firmly evolved from an offensive realism world in the past to a defensive realism world in which we live today defensive realism is an appropriate guide for security strategy in our time This book advances a coherent statement of defensive realism as a theory of strategy for our time It adds to our understanding of defensive realism as a grand theory of IR in particular and our understanding of IR in general and contributes to the ongoing debates among major paradigms of international relations

Realism and the Birth of the Modern United States Stanley Corkin, 1996 This book offers an interdisciplinary view of American culture in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Using the conventions of historical study Stanley Corkin draws out the ways in which the works of writers and filmmakers from 1885 to 1925 shaped and were shaped by the business politics and social life of the period Corkin traces the entrance of the United States into the modern age by considering the historical dimension of cinema and literary aesthetics first of realism then naturalism and finally modernism He begins with the work of writer William Dean Howells and the advent of American cinema under the stewardship of Thomas Edison arguing that realism was complexly involved in Progressive political and economic reform Next analyses of Theodore Dreiser's novel Sister Carrie and the films of the Edison Company's star director Edwin S Porter detail the relationships of naturalism to the increasingly abstract presentation of the material commodity through mass marketing The study culminates with an examination of the parallels between Ernest Hemingway's In Our Time and the D W Griffith film The Birth of a Nation These two modernist works Corkin contends illustrate strategies of expression that attempt to move the material commodity away from its economic base and into a pristine apolitical realm These literary and cinematic works both reflect and participate in the economic political and social reorganization of American life from the top down The result Corkin concludes is a world in which a conception of a human being is asserted as differing little from that of a machine a tree or an animal

Relativity In Our Time Mendel Sachs, 2018-10-08 Relativity In our Time is a book concerning the relevance of Einstein's theory to human relations in contemporary times It is physics and it is philosophy It is a discussion about one of the greatest of all pillars of 20th century thought and science Based on a seminar course for a mixture of science and humanities students the approach and narrative style leads the reader towards the frontier of thinking in this farreaching subject Sachs deals with the whole spread of relativity starting from the early history of Galileo and Faraday he arrives at the foundation of the special theory There is a logical transition to the general theory while the last part of the book covers the mind testing realms of unified field theory Mach's principle and cosmology The book begins with atomistic deterministic classical physics and goes on towards a view of continuous fields of matter and a clearer view of spacetime The reader is led into Einstein's extension of this theory towards a unified force field consequently the authors address the issue of the validity of linear mathematics compared with the realism of a non linear universe Such arguments today are leading towards a new paradigm in science a study and description of nonlinear natural systems especially far from equilibrium systems their energetics and dynamics This book should be of value to postgraduates undergraduates secondary students and professionals in physics and philosophy and anyone with an interest in science subjects

Adventures in Realism Matthew Beaumont, 2008-04-15 Adventures in Realism offers an accessible introduction to realism as it has evolved since the 19th century Though focused on literature and literary theory the significance of technology and the visual arts is also addressed Comprises 16 newly commissioned essays written by a distinguished group of contributors including Slavoj Zizek and Frederic Jameson Provides the historical cultural intellectual and literary contexts necessary to understand developments in realism Addresses the artistic mediums and technologies such as painting and film that have helped shape the way we perceive reality Explores literary and pictorial sub genres such as naturalism and socialist realism Includes a brief bibliography and suggestions for further reading at the end of each section

Time and Realism Yuval Dolev, 2007 A new view of the metaphysics of time arguing that the traditional tensed tenseless debate within analytic philosophy should be seen as the first stage in a philosophical investigation of time and that the next stage belongs to phenomenology How does time pass Does time itself move or is time s passage merely an illusion Analytic philosophers belong for the most part to one of two camps on this question the tensed camp which defends the reality of time s passage conceiving the present as ontologically privileged over the past and future and the tenseless camp which denies time s passage and holds that all events whatever their temporal location are ontologically equal In Time and Realism Yuval Dolev goes beyond the tensed tenseless debate to argue that neither position is conclusive but that the debate over them should be seen as only the first stage in the philosophical investigation of time The next stage he claims belongs to phenomenology and he argues further the phenomenological analysis of time grows naturally out of the analytic enterprise Dolev shows that the two rival theories share a metaphysical presupposition that tense concerns the ontological status of things He argues that this ontological assumption is natural but untenable and that leaving it behind creates a new viewpoint from which to study central topics in the metaphysics of time Dolev shows that such a study depends on the kind of meticulous attention to our firsthand experiences that drives phenomenological investigations Thus he argues phenomenology is the venue for advancing the investigation of time Time and Realism not only analyzes the tensed tenseless debate resolving some of its central difficulties along the way it transcends it It serves as a bridge between the analytic and the continental traditions in the philosophy of mind both of which are shown to be vital to the philosophical examination of time Yuval Dolev is Professor of Philosophy at Bar Ilan University Israel

Degenerative Realism Christy Wampole, 2020 A new strain of realism has emerged in France The novels that embody it represent diverse fears immigration and demographic change radical Islam feminism new technologies globalization American capitalism and the European Union but these books often best sellers share crucial affinities In their dystopian visions the collapse of France Europe and Western civilization is portrayed as all but certain and the literary mode of realism begins to break down Above all they depict a degenerative force whose effects on the nation and on reality itself can be felt Examining key novels by Michel Houellebecq Fr d ric Beigbeder Aur lien Bellanger Yann Moix and other French writers Christy Wampole identifies and critiques this emergent tendency toward degenerative realism She considers the ways these writers draw on social science the New Journalism of the 1960s political pamphlets reportage and social media to construct an atmosphere of disintegration and decline Wampole maps how degenerative realist novels explore a world contaminated by conspiracy theories mysticism and misinformation responding to the internet age s confusion between fact and fiction with a lament for the loss of the real and an unrelenting emphasis on the role of the media in crafting reality In a time of widespread populist anxieties over the perceived decline of the French nation this book diagnoses the literary symptoms of today s reactionary revival Reading for Our Time J. Hillis

Miller,2012-03-05 A masterclass in attentive reading offering brilliant insights into two of George Eliot s novels The Restructuring of Capitalism in Our Time William K. Tabb,2012 Actions taken by the United States and other countries during the Great Recession focused on restoring the viability of major financial institutions while guaranteeing debt and stimulating growth Once the markets stabilized the United States enacted regulatory reforms that ultimately left basic economic structures unchanged At the same time the political class pursued austerity measures to curb the growing national debt Drawing on the economic theories of Keynes and Minsky and applying them to the modern evolution of American banking and finance William K Tabb offers a chilling prediction about future crises and the structural factors inhibiting true reform Tabb follows the rise of banking practices and financial motives in America over the past thirty years and the simultaneous growth of a shadow industry of hedge funds private equity firms and financial innovations such as derivatives He marks the shift from an American economy based primarily on the production of goods and nonfinancial services to one characterized by financialization then shows how these developments perspectives and approaches not only contributed to the recent financial crisis but also prevented the enactment of effective regulatory reform He incisively analyzes the damage that increasing unsustainable debt and excessive risk taking has done to our financial system and expands his critique to a discussion of world systems and globalization Revealing the willful blind spots of mainstream finance theory Tabb moves beyond an economic model reliant on debt expansion and dangerous levels of leverage proposing instead a social structure of accumulation that places economic justice over profit and more practically institutes an inclusive sustainable model for growth Realism and Consensus in the English Novel Elizabeth Deeds Ermarth,1998 This acclaimed study explores how the common denominators of modernity neutral time and neutral space were constructed from the Renaissance to the late nineteenth century Central to this development was the normalizing of a certain grammar of perspective evident across a range of practices from art to politics from science to philosophy from mathematics to cartography In particular it deals with the construction of historical time in narrative from the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries with particular case studies of Defoe Richardson Austen Dickens George Eliot and Henry James The Logic of Being Paul M. Livingston, 2017 In the Logic of Being Realism Truth and Time the influential philosopher Paul M Livingston explores and illuminates truth time and their relationship by employing methods from both Continental and analytic philosophy Lermontov's "A Hero of Our Time" Lewis Bagby, 2002-06-05 Mikhail Lermontov's book A Hero of Our Time was written in 1840 and is an important work of psychological realism This volume includes articles by theorists from various perspectives The Antinomies of Realism Fredric Jameson, 2015-03-10 The Antinomies of Realism is a history of the nineteenth century realist novel and its legacy told without a glimmer of nostalgia for artistic achievements that the movement of history makes it impossible to recreate The works of Zola Tolstoy P rez Gald s and George Eliot are in the most profound sense inimitable yet continue to dominate the novel form to this day Novels to emerge since struggle to reconcile the social conditions of their own creation with the history of this mode of writing the so called modernist novel is one attempted solution to this conflict as is the ever more impoverished variety of commercial narratives what today's book reviewers dub serious novels which are an attempt at the impossible endeavor to roll back the past Fredric Jameson examines the most influential theories of artistic and literary realism approaching the subject himself in terms of the social and historical preconditions for realism's emergence The realist novel combined an attention to the body and its states of feeling with a focus on the quest for individual realization within the confines of history In contemporary writing other forms of representation for which the term postmodern is too glib have become visible for example in the historical fiction of Hilary Mantel or the stylistic plurality of David Mitchell's novels Contemporary fiction is shown to be conducting startling experiments in the representation of new realities of a global social totality modern technological warfare and historical developments that although they saturate every corner of our lives only become apparent on rare occasions and by way of the strangest formal and artistic devices In a coda Jameson explains how realistic narratives survived the end of classical realism In effect he provides an argument for the serious study of popular fiction and mass culture that transcends lazy journalism and the easy platitudes of recent cultural studies

Realism in Our Time György Lukács, 1971 Art and Artists of Our Time Clarence Cook, 1888 And in Our Time Antony Shuttleworth, 2003 This book brings together essays which in diverse ways not only revise existing views on thirties writing but also provide ways of accounting for its critical neglect The essays examine from a variety of theoretical and critical perspectives a body of work that reflects the true diversity of the literary and cultural contexts of the thirties and includes studies on the work of Louis MacNeice Frank Sheed Christopher Dawson Alick West Christopher Caudwell Stevie Smith Storm Jameson Phyllis Bottome Ivy Compton Burnett Graham Greene Eric Ambler George Orwell Christina Stead Randall Swingler and Ralph Fox Socialist Realism Trisha Low, 2019-08-13 When Trisha Low moves west her journey is motivated by the need to arrive somewhere better someplace utopian like revolution or safe like home or even clarifying like identity Instead she faces the end of her relationships a family whose values she has difficulty sharing and America's casual racism sexism and homophobia In this book length essay the problem of how to account for one s life comes to the fore sliding unpredictably between memory speculation self criticism and art criticism Low seeks answers that she knows she won t find Attempting to reconcile her desires with her radical politics she asks do our quests to fulfill our deepest wishes propel us forward or keep us trapped in the rubble of our deteriorating world A Fallen Idol Is Still a God Elizabeth

Allen,2006-10-26 A Fallen Idol Is Still a God elucidates the historical distinctiveness and significance of the seminal nineteenth century Russian poet playwright and novelist Mikhail Iurevich Lermontov 1814 1841 It does so by demonstrating that Lermontov s works illustrate the condition of living in an epoch of transition Lermontov s particular epoch was that of post Romanticism a time when the twilight of Romanticism was dimming but the dawn of Realism had yet to appear Through close and comparative readings the book explores the singular metaphysical psychological ethical and aesthetic ambiguities and ambivalences that mark Lermontov s works and tellingly reflect the transition out of Romanticism and the nature of post Romanticism Overall the book reveals that although confined to his transitional epoch Lermontov did not succumb to it instead he probed its character and evoked its historical import And the book concludes that Lermontov s works have resonance for our transitional era in the early twenty first century as well Optics in Our Time Mohammad D.

Dunne,2011-10-17 Written by two leading scholars this book is an accessible overview of the global political consequences of the 9 11 terror attacks The War on Terror has defined the first decade of this century It has been marked by the deaths of thousands of people political turmoil massive destruction and intense fear Regardless of the name it goes under the long war on terror will continue to affect lives across the world Its catalyst 9 11 did not have to happen nor did the character of the responses This book offers a set of novel interpretations of how we got here where we are and where we should be heading It is organised around twelve penetrating and readable essays full of novel interpretations and succinct summaries of complex ideas and events In their examination of those aspects of global order touched by terror the authors argue that the dangers of international terrorism are not overblown Future 9 11s are possible so is a more just and law governed world Terrorism cannot be disinvented but with more intelligent policies than have been on show these past ten years it can be overcome and made politically anachronistic This book will be essential reading for all students of terrorism studies international security war and conflict studies and IR in general as well as of much interest to well informed lay readers
