Really Existing Nationalisms A Post Communist View From Marx And Engels:

Really Existing Nationalisms Erica Benner, 2018-04-17 An impressive re examination of the theories of Marx and Engels on nationalism Really Existing Nationalisms challenges the conventional view that Marx and Engels lacked the theoretical resources needed to understand nationalism It argues that the two thinkers had a sophisticated insight into the subject and that the reasoning behind their policy towards specific national movements was often subtle and sensitive to the ethical issues at stake Erica Benner identifies arguments in Marx and Engels writings that can help us to think more clearly about national identity and conflict today Really Existing Nationalisms Erica Benner, 1995 It is often alleged that Marx and Engels had no coherent understanding of nationalism and that contemporary events demonstrate the bankruptcy of their approach But this book shows that this is quite wrong and explains why Marxist perspectives ought to be included in the current debate about the origin and role of nationalism Engels After Marx Manfred B. Steger, Terrell Carver, 2010-11-01

Nations and Nationalism Philip Spencer, Howard Wollman, 2005 Nationalism is a key area of political theory with a huge amount of literature available This text includes both the core texts in this area and a selection of less mainstream pieces with the aim of engaging readers with contemporary debates which have reconfigured understanding of nationalism

Nationalism and the International Labor Movement Michael Forman, 2007-06-05 The resurgence of nationalism accompanying the decline of Communism has been taken to indicate the failure of socialist theory to grasp the nature of this phenomenon Against both those who argue that the radical tradition has ignored and underestimated nationalism and those who accuse it of economic reductionism this careful analysis of the idea of the nation as it was developed in the work of the major thinkers of the international labor movement reveals evidence of how seriously they grappled with nationalism Each of the main sections of the book focuses on the most influential theorists of the international labor movement as it became organized and grew Bakunin Marx and Engels and the concern of the First International 1864 Lenin Luxemburg and Bauer and the preoccupation of the Second International 1889 1914 with socialism in ethnically plural societies Stalin and Gramsci in relation to the substitution by the Third International 1919 1943 of nation building and national liberation for the old class project In the conclusion the author examines the relationships among ethnic and civic nationality national self determination republican institutions and the process of globalization from the perspective of the post Soviet era and in the light of social theory and Kant's ideas about cosmopolitan right

Nationalism from the Left Yannis Sygkelos, 2011-01-19 Nationalism from the Left examines the nationalist discourse of the BCP in many domains of political life and explains the reasons why the communists resorted to nationalism in the 1940s Understanding Contemporary Society Gary Browning, Abigail Halcli, Frank Webster, 2000-02-11 Understanding Contemporary Society Theories of the Present is a comprehensive textbook to guide students through the complexities of social theory today Over 30 chapters written by an international team of contributors demonstrate clearly the practical applications of social theory in making sense of the modern world Students are both introduced to the most significant theories and guided through the major social developments which shape our lives Key features of the book are clearly structured and readable prose bullet pointed summaries and annotated further reading for each topic makes complex issues accessible to undergraduates focuses on relevance and practicality chapter layout which is ideal for t

The Communist Party of Great Britain and the National Question in Wales, 1920-1991 Douglas Jones, 2017-10-15 While electorally weak the Communist Party of Great Britain and its Welsh Committee was a constant feature of twentieth century Welsh politics in particular through its influence in the trade union movement Based on original archival research the present volume offers the first in depth study of the Communist Party's attitude to devolution in Wales to Welsh nationhood and Welsh identity as well as examining the party's relationship with the Labour Party Plaid Cymru and the labour and nationalist movements in relation to these issues Placing the party's engagement of these issues within the context of the rapid changes in twentieth century Welsh society debates on devolution and identity on the British left the role of nationalism within the communist movement and the interplay of international and domestic factors the volume provides new insight into the development of ideas by the political left on devolution and identity in Wales during the twentieth century It also offers a broad outline of the party's policy in relation to Wales during the twentieth century and an assessment of the role played by leading figures in the Welsh party in developing its policy on Wales and devolution

Minority Nationalism and the Changing International Order Michael Keating, John McGarry, 2001 Globalisation and regional integration are sometimes seen as the enemies of nationalism imposing a single economic cultural and political order This book argues that the process may open the way for the claims of stateless nations

Nationalism Craig J. Calhoun, 1997 Nationalism is one of the most pressing of global problems Drawing on examples from around the world Craig Calhoun considers nationalism's diverse manifestations its history and its relationship to imperialism and colonialism He also challenges attempts to debunk nationalism that fail to grasp why it still has such power and centrality in modern life

Nationalism Philip Spencer, Howard Wollman, 2002-04-25 Spencer and Wollman remain succinct and clear in their critical introduction to the most influential nationalism theories The book is well structured the arguments clearly presented Its format makes it a great textbook for all seeking a deeper understanding of nationalism and national identity while those already familiar with the subject will no doubt enjoy this erudite volume as well

Sociology This book is a valuable source for the interested reader who needs a concise and critical introduction into theories and theorists of nationalism The extensive bibliography and a good index make it a work which should be on the bookshelf of anyone teaching nationalism

Journal of Contemporary European Studies Nationalism provides an indispensable review of the study of nationalism that both introduces and critically positions all the main issues theories and contemporary debates Drawing upon and introducing a wide range of literatures from across politics sociology history social anthropology and cultural studies the authors seek to further challenge fixed notions of national identity ethnicity and culture to more fully explore and understand the contemporary complexities of citizenship and the genuine potential for a cosmopolitan democracy The text surveys both classical and contemporary approaches including those from within feminism postmodernism postcolonialism and globalisation studies It will be essential reading for all students and academics seeking a deeper understanding of nationalism and national identity today

Old Gods, New Enigmas Mike Davis, 2018-06-26 Old Gods New Enigmas is the highly anticipated book by the best selling author of City of Quartz and Planet of Slums Mike Davis spent years working factory jobs and sitting behind the wheel of an eighteen wheeler before his profile as one of the world's leading urbanists emerged with the publication of his sober if dystopian survey of Los Angeles Since then he's developed a reputation not only for his caustic analysis of ecological catastrophe and colonial history but as a stylist without peer Old Gods New Enigmas is Davis's book length engagement with Karl Marx marking the 200th anniversary of Marx's birth and exploring Davis's thinking on history labor capitalism and revolution themes ever present the early work from this leading radical thinker This will be his first book on Marxism itself In a time of ubiquitous disgust with political and economic elites explores the question of revolutionary agency what social forces and conditions do we need to transform the current order and the situation of the world's working classes from the US to Europe to China. Even the most preliminary tasks are daunting. A new theory of revolution needs to return to the big issues in classical socialist thought such as clarifying proletarian agency before turning to the urgent questions of our time: global warming, the social and economic gutting of the rustbelt and the city's demographic eclipse of the countryside. What does revolution look like after the end of history? The Wretched of the Global South Tamil Venthana Ananthavinayagan, Amritha Viswanath Shenoy, 2024-03-07. The book aims to discuss and present an alternative epistemology of human rights against the background of the globalization from below. The interdependent network of transnational networks ranging from social movements, NGOs and other groupings questions the neoliberal paradigm and a particular set of human rights. This book wishes to transform this discourse on human rights and amplify the subaltern voices. The book also aims to highlight alternative practices of freedom that decenter human rights as a liberation discourse. Following Julia Suarez Krabbe in Race Rights and Rebels, the authors aim to amend to practices of freedom that center different orders of knowledge on subjectivity and agency. The proposed book first situates the problem of representation of the marginalized voices in contemporary legal and political discourse. Second, it offers critiques in theory and third, followed by alternative practices that emanate from marginalized localities. In particular, this book wishes to reflect upon alternatives rooted in legal and non-legal responses to address human rights grievances. In the end, this book envisages along the lines of Frantz Fanon to vision the possibility of the human by a new concept addressing the concerns in various ways. As Fanon argued for a new start, a new way of thinking and for the creation of a new man, it is pertinent to trigger a human rights project from the below.

Nationalism on the Internet Christian Fuchs, 2019-09-17. In this timely book, critical theorist Christian Fuchs asks: What is nationalism and what is the role of social media in the communication of nationalist ideology? Advancing an applied Marxist theory of nationalism, Fuchs explores nationalist discourse in the world of contemporary digital capitalism that is shaped by social media, big data, fake news, targeted advertising, bots, algorithmic politics and a high-speed online attention economy. Through two case studies of the German and Austrian 2017 federal elections, the book goes on to develop a critical theory of nationalism that is grounded in the works of Karl Marx, Rosa Luxemburg and Eric J. Hobsbawm. Advanced students and scholars of Marxism, nationalism, media and politics won't want to miss Fuchs' latest in-depth study of social media and politics that uncovers the causes, structures and consequences of nationalism in the age of social media and fake news.

Karl Marx Kevin B. Anderson, 2017-05-15. Marx's approach to analyzing society and especially his critique of capitalist society continues to influence the work of a large number of scholars worldwide. Unfortunately, there are relatively few clear accounts of what this approach is and how to put it to use. And despite the many attempts to use Marx's method to study a variety of subjects, there are relatively few that can serve as useful models. In the present volume, the internationally renowned Marxist scholar Bertell Ollman and the social theorist Kevin B. Anderson have brought together a sampling of the best writings of the past hundred years that illustrate and critique

Marx's method as well as explain what it is and how to put it to work Anyone wishing to understand better Marx's dialectical method along of course with the theories created with its help or to revise this method or to criticize it or to use it in their own work will find this collection invaluable Jewish Materialism Eliyahu Stern, 2018-01-01 Cover Half Title Title Copyright Dedication Contents Preface Acknowledgments Note on Transliteration Introduction Materialisms 1 Tradition 2 Social Materialism 3 Scientific Materialism 4 Practical Materialism 5 The Materialization of Spirit Conclusion Jewish Body Politics Notes Bibliography Index A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Y Z Contemporary Nationalism David Brown, 2003-09-02 This book examines the problematic politics of contemporary nationalism and the worldwide resurgence of ethno nationalist conflict It analyses the core theories of nationalism building upon these theories and offering a clear analytical framework through which to approach the subject This outstanding volume features detailed case studies discussing nationalist contention in areas including Spain Singapore Ghana and Australia as well as looking at Northern Ireland Kosovo and Rwanda disputes Community, Solidarity and Belonging Andrew Mason, 2000-07-27 Despite the frequency with which the term community is used it is hard to find any comprehensive exploration of the nature and value of community This book tries to remedy this omission whilst taking seriously the idea that community can be of different kinds and can exist at different levels and that these levels and kinds may come into conflict with one another It focuses on the question of what kind of community is valuable at the level of the state It then explores the limits that ideals of political community place upon cultural diversity within the state and the limits that in turn ideals of global community place upon the self determination of political communities This book will be of interest to students of political theory philosophy and international relations Encyclopaedia of Nationalism Athena Leoussi, 2018-02-06 Since the end of the internationalist Soviet experiment in 1989 nationalism is now recognized as a positive vital force in modern political cultural and social life if kept in check from excess As a result of the explosion of nationalism there has been a veritable resurgence of nationalism studies This proliferation calls for a survey of instruments which have been developed by scholars for the study of nationalism The Encyclopaedia of Nationalism brings together leading scholars in nationalism studies to survey this complex phenomenon With over one hundred entries the Encyclopaedia of Nationalism offers a complete and concise set of tools for the study of nationalism in a single volume The focus throughout is theoretical and for this reason particular nationalist movements and individual leaders are treated only as illustrative historical and contemporary cases in numerous entries The Encyclopaedia is organized in an alphabetical sequence of entries each of which includes a short bibliography for further reading The reader will find in depth discussions of the work of modern theoreticians of nationalism The defining figures of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries including Herder Rousseau Fichte Marx and Renan Conceptual entries are treated historically and sociologically Crucial influential ideas and phenomena that continually redefine themselves with changing historical circumstances among them anti-Semitism art and nationalism assimilation class and nation decolonization ethnic competition genocide language and nation multiculturalism religion and nation state and nation and xenophobia are treated in depth A special attraction of this volume is its essay long entries many of which have been written by the scholars who developed them The Encyclopaedia of Nationalism discusses in lucid terms from an interdisciplinary perspective the central issues debates concepts and theories available to students and scholars of nationalism As such it is the most comprehensive and authoritative guide to the subject in all its varied manifestations and implications It will be an essential tool for historians political scientists sociologists and scholars of the history of ideas
