Realms Meaning:

Realms of Meaning Thomas R. Hofmann, 2015-05-12 Realms of Meaning presents an accessible introduction to semantics. It provides an understanding of the way meaning works in natural languages against a background of how we communicate with language. Avoiding theoretical terminology and linguistic theories, it concentrates instead on the analysis of meaning and looks in depth at such subjects as opposites and negatives, modal verbs, prepositions, and word meanings. Examples are chosen mainly from English to provide material for the wider discussion of the principles of the subject, but European, East Asian, and other languages also provide illuminating examples.

Meaning and Power in a Southeast Asian Realm Shelly Errington, 2014-07-14 The ruler in the Indic States of Southeast Asia was seen not as the head of state but as the center or navel of the world. Like polities, persons and houses were and are viewed as centered spaces, locations where spiritual potency can gather. Shelly Errington explores the politics of constituting and maintaining such centered socio-political spaces in a former Indic State called Luwu, which lies in South Sulawesi, Celebes, Indonesia. The meaning of political life and the ways its cultural forms were and are sustained depend on locally construed ideas of power or spiritual potency and the person which the author explores in detail. She views the polity neither as a frame in which political actors pursue advantage nor as a structure for extracting wealth, but as a hierarchical system of signs ultimately backed by force, but force which was not fully centralized and whose import must be understood within ideas about spiritual potency widespread in the region. Although focused on Luwu, the book's theoretical scope is wide and it ranges comparatively over a broad geographical area, making a contribution to ethnographic, historical, and regional studies as well as to the study of politics in nonsecular societies. Part One traces how the person, the house, and the polity are constituted symbolically in everyday practices as centered spaces. Part Two examines how centers can be de-centered, while Part Three explores the structure that tended to hold centers together in Luwu and other Indic States. The introduction and the three conclusions, each of the three being broader than the last in comparative scope, locate the author's views with respect to other current theoretical approaches to power and culture. Through a Lens Darkly Marjorie Hewitt Suchocki, 2015-01-16 What if we ask questions concerning sin and redemption outside of the religious or theological milieu After all sin functions something like religious code language for that which is problematic in human existence But all humans deal with our fragility and our penchant for harming ourselves or others and all humans seek to resolve these issues Might the religious community learn from those outside our gates Accordingly in this book a theologian seeks to gain insight from the way seven outstanding filmmakers of our time set up the problems of human existence and seek to resolve them over a series of their films Explore with her how Clint Eastwood Woody Allen Spike Lee the Coen brothers John Sayles Ang Lee and Terrence Malick define human problems and explore resolutions mark the overlap with Christianity but more importantly ponder the contrasts You ll never watch films the same way again

Stan Brakhage Marco Lori, Esther Leslie, 2018 Essays on the work of this iconic experimental filmmaker from a variety of scholars Stan Brakhage s body of work counts as one of the most important within post war avant garde cinema and yet it has rarely been given the attention it deserves Over the years though diverse and original reflections have developed distancing his figure little by little from critical categories This collection of newly commissioned essays plus some important reprinted work queries some of the consensus on Brakhage s films In particular many of these essays revolve around the controversial issues of representation and perception This project sets out from the assumption that Brakhage s art is articulated primarily through opposing tensions which donate his figure and films an extraordinary depth even as they evince fleetingness elusivity and paradoxicality This collection aims not only to clarify aspects of Brakhage s art but also to show how his work is involved in a constant mediation between antinomies and opposites At the same time his art presents a multifaceted object endlessly posing new questions to the viewer for which no point of entry or perspective is preferred in respect to the others Acknowledging this this volume hopes that the experience of his films will be revitalized Featuring topics as diverse as the technical and semantic ambiguity of blacks the fissures in mimetic representation of the it within the itself of an image the film maker as practical psychologist through cognitive theories the critique of ocular centrism by mingling sight with other senses such as touch films that can actually philosophize in a Wittgensteinian way political guilt and collusion in aesthetic forms a disjunctive reflexive and phenomenological temporality realizing Deleuze s image time and the echoes of Ezra Pound and pneumophantasmology in the quest of art as spiritual revelation this book not only addresses scholars but also is a thorough and thought provoking introduction for the uninitiated Contributors include Nicky Hamlyn Peter Mudie Paul Taberham Gareth Evans Rebecca A Sheehan Christina Chalmers Stephen Mooney and Marco Lori
