Chiasson,1995-09-30 Throughout American history the press has been incredibly adept at making the public aware The history of the press in crisis situations is in many ways the story of public attitudes and the story of America This book looks at the press over time and the way it has functioned in times of crisis It considers press coverage of 13 events spanning a time frame that includes the birth of the nation its political economic and social struggles as a young country and its civil war It tells how a young agrarian society grew into an industrial giant and how it changed from isolationist to a world power It relates how this country coped with the growth of socialism two world wars civil unrest and with the problem of world overpopulation The American press has performed various functions throughout the years The Colonial Press served as a vehicle of discussion debate and finally agitation and in the process may have defined itself and laid a groundwork for the press s future roles The press has agitated advocated and persuaded It has been duped it has been unfair and it has misled This volume considers such concepts as advocacy journalism a central theme of the chapters on abolitionists and David Duke and social responsibility a primary part of the chapter on Japanese American internment The press s attempt to lead public opinion is the focus of the chapters on the partisan press the antebellum period and the first Red Scare in 1919 The chapter on Joseph McCarthy looks at the concepts of objectivity and the use and misuse of pseudo news The final chapter on overpopulation deals extensively with agenda setting Agricultural Innovation in Rural India: The Paradox of Farmer Nonadoption in Bajwada, Madhya Pradesh Natasha Malpani,2011-08-19 Farmer adoption of sustainable agricultural practices is key to sustainable development as changes at the farm level are essential to ensuring food security and environmental protection Reasons for converting to sustainable farming have been studied in a number of instances However the underlying rationale that motivates this behaviour is not always made clear The village of Bajwada in Madhya Pradesh is used as a case to investigate farmer perceptions and attitudes regarding sustainable farming An innovator has been promoting what seems to be a highly productive and lauded method of sustainable farming called Natu eco farming for the past five years Strikingly this technique has had practically zero adoption in the village This study aims to examine this paradox by exploring farmer narratives about sustainability futures and development Semi structured interviews were conducted using 18 farmers in Bajwada Participatory observation was also undertaken for ten days The development discourse the drive for modernity and urbanization were found to be important in shaping farmer s perspectives on Natu eco farming and sustainable agriculture An understanding of the dominance of certain discourses and narratives offers a new approach to understanding farmer adoption and non adoption The results of this study are meant to attract the attention of policymakers and practitioners who are involved in the planning and implementation of schemes and projects promoting sustainable agricultural innovation
