John Dewey and the Ethics of Historical Belief Curtis Hutt, 2013-04-15 John Dewey and the Ethics of Historical Belief addresses the ethics of the representation of the past with a focus on the justification of historical belief within religious and critical historiographical traditions What makes a belief about the past justified What makes one historical belief preferable to another A great deal rides on how these questions are answered History textbook wars take place across the globe from California to India Cultural heritage protection is politicized and historical research is commonly deployed in support of partisan agendas This book explores not only John Dewey's relatively unknown contribution to this topic but also the leading alternatives to his approach Author Curtis Hutt focuses attention on the debate among those most influenced by Dewey's thought including Richard Rorty Richard Bernstein James Kloppenberg Wayne Proudfoot and Jeffrey Stout He also reviews the seminal work of Van Harvey on the relationship between historians and religious believers Dewey is cast as a vigorous opponent of those who argue that justified historical belief depends upon one's religious tradition Strongly resisted is the idea that historical belief can be justified simply on account of acculturation Instead Dewey's view that beliefs are justified as a result of theorized historical inquiry is emphasized In order to prevent moral blindness the responsible historian and theologian alike are advised to attend to witnesses to the past that arise from outside of their own traditions Why Good

Your Mind Steven H. Propp, 2010-12-21 Its 1971 and Silas Baker is a high school senior in California whose main interests are basketball and weekend parties But his life takes a dramatic turn when he encounters a group of committed Christians who soberly inform him that Jesus is coming soon They enroll at Riverstent Bible College Its an exciting time as leading Bible teachers have predicted that Jesus will return to Rapture his Church within one generation of the 1948 formation of the State of Israel Popular movies further inflame this passion as the eager students study Apologetics and Biblical Archaeology aberrant theologies such as the Death of God movement and even conflicting interpretations of the End Times An activist spirit develops within evangelicalism culminating in the so called Christian Right as the evangelical world is rocked in the aftermath of the televangelist scandals Confronted by world views such as Calvinism and Christian Reconstruction the characters passionately debate controversies such as Biblical Inerrancy and the age of the cosmos in addition to challenging evangelicals who deny traditional doctrines such as that of endless punishment in Hell or who promote an Open yet limited concept of God himself As society evolves so does evangelicalism seeker sensitive megachurches appear while Postmodernism and the Emergent Church become realities Theologians wrestle with the question of divorce and remarriage and the role of women in the church as well as the divisive issue of homosexuality As they struggle with lifes realities they ultimately must also respond to nonchristians who are alienated indifferent or engaged in active opposition to Christianity while searching for the meaning of Christian faith in the modern world Forensic Faith J. in a long time to a one volume user's manual for operating Western Civilization The Stream Reason Faith and the Struggle for Western Civilization offers a concise intellectual history of the West through the prism of the relationship between faith and reason Free Beacon The genius of Western civilization is its unique synthesis of reason and faith But today that synthesis is under attack from the East by radical Islam faith without reason and from within the West itself by aggressive secularism reason without faith The stakes are incalculably high The naive and increasingly common assumption that reason and faith are incompatible is simply at odds with the facts of history The revelation in the Hebrew Scriptures of a reasonable Creator imbued Judaism and Christianity with a conviction that the world is intelligible leading to the flowering of reason and the invention of science in the West It was no accident that the Enlightenment took place in the culture formed by the Jewish and Christian faiths We can all see that faith without reason is benighted at best fanatical and violent at worst But too many forget that reason stripped of faith is subject to its own pathologies A supposedly autonomous reason easily sinks into fanaticism stifling dissent as bigoted and irrational and devouring the humane civilization fostered by the integration of reason and faith The blood soaked history of the twentieth century attests to the totalitarian forces unleashed by corrupted reason But Samuel Gregg does more than lament the intellectual and spiritual ruin caused by the divorce of reason and faith He shows that each of these foundational principles corrects the other's excesses and enhances our comprehension of the truth in a continuous renewal of civilization By recovering this balance we can avoid a suicidal winner take all conflict between reason and faith and a future that will respect neither

I Don't Have Enough Faith to Be an Atheist Norman L. Geisler, Frank Turek, 2021-05-17 To some the concept of having faith in a higher power or a set of religious beliefs is nonsensical Indeed many view religion in general and Christianity in particular as unfounded and unreasonable Norman Geisler and Frank Turek argue however that Christianity is not only more reasonable than all other belief systems but is indeed more rational than unbelief itself With conviction and clear thinking Geisler and Turek guide readers through some of the traditional tested arguments for the existence of a creator God They move into an examination of the source of morality and the reliability of the New Testament accounts concerning Jesus The final section of the book deals with a detailed investigation of the claims of Christ This volume will be an interesting read for those skeptical about Christianity as well as a helpful resource for Christians seeking to articulate a more sophisticated defense of their faith

Lewis vs the New Atheists Peter S Williams, 2013-02-01 The book will counter the new atheist movement using the arguments of C S Lewis thereby appealing to readers interested in both loci and showing that there is nothing especially new about the new atheism How might C S Lewis the greatest Christian apologist of the twentieth century respond to the twenty first century new atheism of Richard Dawkins Christopher Hitchens and company Might Lewis own journey from atheism to Christian belief illuminate and undercut the objections of the new atheists Christian philosopher Peter S Williams takes us on an intellectual journey through Lewis conversion in conversation with today s anti theists This book shows the breadth depth and durability of Lewis s Christian apologetics Michael Ward chaplain at St Peter s College Oxford Revitalizing Theological Epistemology Steven B Sherman, 2010-03-25 In Revitalizing Theological Epistemology Steven B Sherman addresses questions about what evangelical theology ought to be doing in light of the changing cultural situation He wonders if the Christian faith should continue to be presented and defended mainly according to Enlightenment principles when growing criticism of modern thought is affecting virtually every discipline and if evangelicalism and its intellectual leaders ought to wait it out or whether they should re vision their theology This book is about contemporary evangelical approaches to the knowledge of God considering and suggesting ways Christian philosophers and theologians envision and make use of theological knowledge in the postmodern context
