Understanding Transatlantic Relations Serena Simoni, 2013-05-29 In light of the Arab Spring and after days of public quarreling that highlighted the divisions among NATO s members on an agreement to give command of the no fly zone in Libya to the Alliance it is evident that the U S is having problems engaging with its European allies and partners Why is this happening Breaking away from the conventional way to study transatlantic relations Serena Simoni uses a Constructivist theoretical lens to argue that the transatlantic partners changing identities since the early 1990s have influenced their political interests and as a consequence their national security policies Contemporary divergences are a notable byproduct of these transformations By focusing on cases of disagreement i e NATO s enlargement the International Criminal Court and Debt Relief for Africa this book shows how since the 1990s the US has started to see itself as the actor carrying the international defense burden while the European Union has developed an image of itself as the actor in charge of humanitarian efforts which generally entails diplomacy rather than military efforts Contemporary cases of disagreement as the Arab Spring Libya and Foreign Assistance in Africa illustrate how redefined national identities continue to alter the course of transatlantic relations Understanding Transatlantic Relations provides a more accurate examination of the future of transatlantic relations and offers an understanding of those issues that the United States and Europe would consider important enough to justify their cooperation Neo-Victorianism on Screen Antonija Primorac, 2017-11-17 This book broadens the scope of inquiry of neo Victorian studies by focusing primarily on screen adaptations and appropriations of Victorian literature and culture More specifically this monograph spotlights the overlapping yet often conflicting drives at work in representations of Victorian heroines in contemporary film and TV Primorac s close analyses of screen representations of Victorian women pay special attention to the use of costume and clothes revealing the tensions between diverse theoretical interventions and generic often market oriented demands The author elucidates the push and pull between postcolonial critique and nostalgic often Orientalist spectacle between feminist textual interventions and postfeminist media images Furthermore this book examines neo Victorianism s relationship with postfeminist media culture and offers an analysis of the politics behind onscreen treatment of Victorian gender roles family structures sexuality and colonial space
