Rebellion In Laos Geoffrey C Gunn, 2019-06-04 A study in historical anthropology this work focusses on the world historical incorporation of Laos into a colonial capitalist system of surplus accumulation In so doing new light is brought to bear upon the non rebellious and especially rebellious responses of the majority Lao and minority montagnard population of that country at least as determined by a scrutiny of largely archival based sources The approach taken is to combine a general world system analysis with a concern for the non economic moral and ideological form of colonial and feudal domination

Hmong Means Free Sucheng Chan, 2010-08-17 Three generations of Hmong refugees expose the trauma and the joy of their lives

Post-war Laos Vattana Pholsena, 2006 More than a quarter of century after the end of the war in 1975 the Lao leadership is still in search for a compelling nationalist narration Its politics of culture and representation appear to be caught between the rhetoric of preservation and the desire for modernity Meanwhile originating from the periphery where ethnic minorities had hitherto been symbolically politically and administratively confined the participation of some of their members in the Indochina Wars 1945 75 exposed these individuals to socialization and politicization processes This rigorously researched and cogently argued book is a fine grained analysis of substantial ethnographic material showing the politics of identity the geographies of memory and the power of narratives of some members of ethnic minority groups who fought during the Vietnam War in the Lao People s Liberation Army and or were educated within the revolutionary administration No study has ever been conducted on the latter s views on the national ist project of the late socialist era Their own perceptions of their membership of the nation have been overlooked Post War Laos is a set to be a landmark study and an original contribution which refines established theories of nationalism such as Anderson s imagined community by addressing a common weakness namely their tendency to deny agency to individuals who in fact interpret their relationship to and place within the nation in a variety of ways that may change according to time and circumstance

Revolution, Reform and Regionalism in Southeast Asia Ronald Bruce St John, 2006-01-16 Based on research carried out over the three decades this book compares the post war political economies of Cambodia Laos and Vietnam in the context of their individual and collective impact on contemporary efforts at regional integration The author highlights the different paths to reform taken by the three neighbours and the effect this has had on regional plans for economic development through the ASEAN and the Greater Mekong Subregion

Through its comparative analysis of the reforms implemented by Cambodia Laos and Vietnam over the last thirty years the book draws attention to parallel themes of continuity and change The author discusses how the three states have demonstrated related characteristics whilst at the same time making different modifications in order to exploit the unique strengths of their individual cultures Contributing to the contemporary debate over the role of democratic reform in promoting economic development the book provides a detailed account of the political economies of three states at the heart of Southeast Asia

Creating Laos Søren Ivarsson, 2008 This book examines the process through which Laos came into existence under French colonial rule through to the end of World War II Here Laos's position at the intersection of two conflicting spatial layouts of Thailand and Indochina made its national form a particularly contested process Rather than analyze this process in terms of administrative and political structures the book discusses how a specific idea about a separate Lao space and its culture was formed

The Ethnography of Vietnam's Central Highlanders Oscar Salemink, 2019-10-18 This book looks at ethnographic discourses concerning the indigenous population of Vietnam's Central Highlands during periods of christianization colonization war and socialist transformation and analyses these in their relation to tribal ethnic territorial governmental and gendered discourses Salemink's book is a timely contribution to anthropological knowledge as the ethnic minorities in Vietnam have again been the object of fierce academic debate This is a historically grounded post colonial critique relevant to theories of ethnicity and the history of anthropology and will be of interest to graduate students of anthropology and cultural studies as well as Vietnam studies

Society in Contemporary Laos Boike Rehbein, 2017-04-21 This book pursues the theoretical aim of shedding light on the old question raised by Max Weber about the relation between capitalism religious ethos and society The empirical study consists of a description of the social structures their embodiment in the habitus and world views in Laos against the background of a critical revision of Pierre Bourdieu's sociology To achieve these aims the author develops a qualitative methodology as neither Weber nor Bourdieu explained how to empirically study habitus and ethos

Politics and Society in Southeast Asia Peter A. Poole,2014-11-18 The Asian financial crisis of 1997 1998 caused severe hardship in Southeast Asia and many countries tightened their regulation of banks and other financial institutions adopted more conservative fiscal policies and made themselves less vulnerable to Western market fluctuations by forming closer trade and investment ties with their neighbors This book analyzes the major political and economic reforms that resulted from the Asian financial crisis looking particularly at how such reforms helped to prepare Asian countries for coping with the 2009 global recession In each of the ten country chapters the historical background social and political system economic development and foreign relations of each country are analyzed and compared with those of neighboring countries The concluding chapter looks ahead at the prospects for Southeast Asia in a more integrated Asian region Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Spirits of the Place John Clifford Holt,2009-07-29 Spirits of the Place is a rare and timely contribution to our understanding of religious culture in Laos and Southeast Asia Most often studied as a part of Thai Vietnamese or Khmer history Laos remains a terra incognita to most Westerners and to many of the people living throughout Asia as well John Holt s new book brings this fascinating nation into focus With its overview of Lao Buddhism and analysis of how shifting political power from royalty to democracy to communism has impacted Lao religious culture the book offers an integrated account of the entwined political and religious history of Laos from the fourteenth century to the contemporary era Holt advances the provocative argument that common Lao knowledge of important aspects of Theravada Buddhist thought and practice has been heavily conditioned by an indigenous religious culture dominated by the veneration of phi spirits whose powers are thought to prevail over and within specific social and geographical domains The enduring influence of traditional spirit cults in Lao culture and society has brought about major changes in how the figure of the Buddha and the powers associated with Buddhist temples and reliquaries indeed how all ritual spaces and times have been understood by the Lao Despite vigorous attempts by Buddhist royalty French rationalists and most recently by communist ideologues to eliminate the worship of phi spirit cults have not been displaced they continue to persist and show no signs of abating Not only have the spirits resisted eradication but they have withstood synthesis subordination and transformation by Buddhist political and ecclesiastical powers Rather than reduce Buddhist religious culture to a set of simple commonalities Holt takes a comparative approach using his nearly thirty years experience with Sri Lanka to elucidate what is unique about Lao Buddhism This stimulating book invites students in the fields of the history of religion and Buddhist and Southeast Asian studies to take a fresh look at prevailing assumptions and perhaps reconsider the place of Buddhism in Laos and Southeast Asia     Sport Across Asia Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, Joseph Maguire, 2013 This volume gathers work from a wide range of disciplines anthropology cultural studies geography history law sociology and post colonial studies to explore the paradoxical processes of emulation resistance and transformation that are at work in the global diffusion and development of sport and body cultures     Globalization and Democracy in Southeast Asia Chantana Banpasirichote Wungao, Boike Rehbein, Surichai Wun'gao, 2016-08-31 This book questions why Southeast Asian nation states are struggling to adopt full fledged liberal democracy and attempts to better understand the relationship between globalization and models of democracy Country studies are covered mostly by native Southeast Asian scholars who analyse recent developments as well as specific concerns that have arisen from political crises citizen uprisings ethnic identity politics political reforms social justice and inequality and the persistence of the political elite The collection highlights factors which have impacted the different regional and national paths taken such as the legacy of the Cold War rapid economic development and liberalization external economic globalization the important role of informal politics powerful elites and weak but emerging middle classes This book will be of interest to scholars and students of regional studies of Southeast Asia Democracy Sociology Politics and Globalization Studies     Contestations of Memory in Southeast Asia Kwok Kian-Woon, Roxana Waterson, 2012-01-01 Contestations of Memory in Southeast Asia applies a new theoretical literature on social memory to remembered events in Burma Laos Vietnam Malaysia Singapore the Philippines and Indonesia Highlighting connections between theorizing based on European examples and unresolved memory issues in East and Southeast Asia the authors show how comparative study of the interpenetration of politics and lived bodily experience of communal and personal memories and of dominant and suppressed narratives can yield insights into the human potential to become either perpetrators victims or bystanders The memories found within different groups in any society are open to negotiation suppression contestation or revision in the ever evolving politics of the present The searching and close grained analyses of contemporary issues found in the volume vividly illustrate the essentially plural and multivocal nature of social memories and demonstrate the intricate connection between transnational national and sub national politics Readers seeking a more nuanced and complex understanding of the past and of its continued relevance to the present and future will find here much food for thought      Food from Northern Laos Dorothy Culloty,2010 The little known cultures and cuisine of northern Laos are reflected in the recipes of its local ethnic groups and Luang Namtha Province s premiere ecotourism lodge Eighty eight dishes from Lao Kmhmu Tai Dam Tai Yuan Tai Lue and Akha are presented in clear simple recipes Back cover
