The Detail and Conduct of the American War, Under Generals Gage, Howe, Burgoyne, and Vice Admiral Lord Howe: ,1780 Restructuring the African State and Quest for Regional Integration Godfrey Mwakikagile,2014-07-21 The author looks at different approaches towards regional and continental unity and the need to restructure the African state He contends that reconfiguration of the African state is necessary after the institutions inherited at independence especially centralisation of power have failed to serve the people He calls for decentralisation of power in order to enable the people different groups to set their own agenda for sustainable development Power should be in the hands of the people at the grassroots level using local institutions to formulate development plans control and allocate resources in their own areas Reconfiguration of the African state will also help to accommodate different ethnic groups on equal basis and enable marginalised groups especially smaller and weaker groups to fully participate in the political process and get a fair share of the nation s resources without being dominated and exploited by others especially dominant groups Restructuring the state will also enable all groups to play an equal role in achieving unity stability and development The work is also an examination of the transition African countries have gone through since independence and the problems they have faced and continue to face in terms of nation building and trying to achieve and maintain peace and stability without which prosperity is impossible It is a call for rebuilding Africa through a combination of innovative approaches Rebels at Work

The Purposes of Paradise Christine Skwiot,2011-06-06

For half a century the United States has treated Cuba and Hawai i as polar opposites despised nation and beloved state But for more than a century before the Cuban revolution and Hawaiian statehood of 1959 Cuba and Hawai i figured as twin objects of U S imperial desire and as possessions whose tropical island locales might support all manner of fantasy fulfillment cultural financial and geopolitical Using travel and tourism as sites where the pleasures of imperialism met the politics of empire Christine Skwiot untangles the histories of Cuba and Hawai i as integral parts of the Union and keys to U S global power as occupied territories with violent pasts and as fantasy islands ripe with seduction and reward Grounded in a wide array of primary materials that range from government sources and tourist industry records to promotional items and travel narratives The Purposes of Paradise explores the ways travel and tourism shaped U S imperialism in Cuba and Hawai i More broadly Skwiot s comparative approach underscores continuity as well as change in U S imperial thought and practice across the nineteenth and twentieth centuries and across the Atlantic and Pacific oceans Comparing the relationships of Cuba and Hawai i with the United States Skwiot argues offers a way to revisit assumptions about formal versus informal empire territorial versus commercial imperialism and direct versus indirect rule

Transforming the Rebel Self: Quest Patterns in Fiction by William Styron, Flannery O'Connor and Bobbie Ann Mason Sharon Therese Nemeth,2010

Originally written as the author s dissertation

The Quest for Socialist Utopia Bahru Zewde,2014

In the second half of the 1960s and the early 1970s the Ethiopian student movement emerged from rather innocuous beginnings to become the major opposition force against the imperial regime in Ethiopia contributing perhaps more than any other factor to the eruption of the 1974 revolution a revolution that brought about not only the end of the long reign of Emperor Haile Sellassie but also a dynasty of exceptional longevity The student movement would be of fundamental importance in the shaping of the future Ethiopia instrumental in both its political and social development Bahru Zewde himself one of the students involved in the uprising draws on interviews with former student leaders and activists as well as documentary sources to describe the steady radicalisation of the movement characterised particularly after 1965 by annual demonstrations against the regime and culminating in the ascendancy of Marxism Leninism by the early 1970s Almost in tandem with the global student movement the year 1969 marked the climax of student opposition to the imperial regime both at home and abroad It was also in that year that students broached what came to be famously known as the national question ultimately resulting in the adoption in 1971 of the Leninist Stalinist principle of self determination up to and including secession On the eve of the revolution the student movement abroad split into two rival factions a split that was ultimately to lead to the liquidation of both and the consolidation of military dictatorship as well as the emergence of the ethno nationalist agenda as the only viable alternative to the military regime Bahru Zewde is Emeritus Professor of History at Addis Ababa University and Vice President of the Ethiopian Academy of Sciences He has authored many books and articles notably A History of Modern Ethiopia 1855-1974 and Pioneers of Change in Ethiopia The Reformist Intellectuals of the Early Twentieth Century Finalist for the Bethwell A Ogot Book Prize to the author of the best book on East African Studies 2015 Ethiopia Addis Ababa University Press paperback

Blood and Silk Michael Vatikiotis, 2017-06-08 Why are Southeast Asia's richest countries such as Malaysia riddled with corruption Why do Myanmar Thailand and the Philippines harbour unresolved violent insurgencies How do deepening religious divisions in Indonesia and Malaysia and China's growing influence affect the region and the rest of the world Thought provoking and eye opening Blood and Silk is an accessible personal look at modern Southeast Asia written by one of the region's most experienced outside observers This is a first hand account of what it's like to sit at the table with deadly Thai Muslim insurgents mediate between warring clans in the Southern Philippines and console the victims of political violence in Indonesia all in an effort to negotiate peace and understand the reasons behind endemic violence

Revival and Reconciliation Phillip A. Cantrell, 2022-01-18 Phillip A Cantrell II takes a critical look at the Anglican Church's crucial role in many aspects of Rwanda's history particularly its complicity with the current Rwandan regime He boldly illuminates the Anglican Church's culpability in the events leading to the genocide calling attention to the consequences of the church's unwavering support for the Rwandan regime

Representing the Troubles in Irish Short Fiction Michael L. Storey, 2004-05 Representing the Troubles in Irish Short Fiction offers a comprehensive examination of Irish short stories written over the last eighty years that have treated the Troubles Ireland's intractable conflict that arose out of its relationship to England

Troublesome Young Men Lynne Olson, 2008-04-29 A riveting history of the daring politicians who challenged the disastrous policies of the British government on the eve of World War II On May 7 1940 the House of Commons began perhaps the most crucial debate in British parliamentary history On its outcome hung the future of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's government and also of Britain indeed perhaps the world Troublesome Young Men is Lynne Olson's fascinating account of how a small group of rebellious Tory MPs defied the Chamberlain government's defeatist policies that aimed to appease Europe's tyrants and eventually forced the prime minister's resignation Some historians dismiss the phony war that preceded this turning point from September 1939 when Britain and France declared war on Germany to May 1940 when Winston Churchill became prime minister as a time of waiting and inaction but Olson makes no such mistake and describes in dramatic detail the public unrest that spread through Britain then as people realized how poorly prepared the nation was to confront Hitler how their basic civil liberties were being jeopardized and also that there were intrepid politicians willing to risk political suicide to spearhead the opposition to Chamberlain Harold Macmillan Robert Boothby Leo Amery Ronald Cartland and Lord Robert Cranborne among them The political and personal dramas that played out in Parliament and in the nation as Britain faced the threat of fascism virtually on its own are extraordinary and in Olson's hands downright inspiring

Abandoned Derbyshire Nathan Fearn, 2024-04-15 A fascinating exploration of the abandoned places and buildings within Derbyshire which have been left behind by history

American Science Fiction Television and Space Joel Hawkes, Alexander Christie, Tom Nienhuis, 2023-03-05 This collection reads the science fiction genre and television medium as examples of heterotopia and television as science fiction technology in which forms processes and productions of space and time collide a multiplicity of spaces produced and reconfigured The book looks to be a heterotopic production with different chapters and spaces of genre production mediums technologies homes bodies etc reflecting refracting and colliding to offer insight into spatial relationships and the implications of these spaces for a society that increasingly inhabits the world through the space of the screen A focus on American science fiction offers further spatial focus for this study a question of geographical and cultural borders and influence not only in terms of American science fiction but American television and streaming services The contested hegemonic nature of American science fiction television will be discussed alongside a nation that has significantly been understood even produced through the television screen Essays will examine the various reconfigurations or productions of space as they collapse into the science fiction heterotopia of television since 1987 the year Star Trek Next Generation began airing
