Rebuilding Communities In A Refugee Settlement Oxfam Development Casebook Series:

Rebuilding Communities in a Refugee Settlement Lina Payne, 1998 Includes statistics Rights in Exile Guglielmo Verdirame, Barbara E. Harrell-Bond, 2005 Of the estimated 12 million refugees in the world more than 7 million have been confined to camps effectively warehoused in some cases for 10 years or more Holding refugees in camps was anathema to the founders of the refugee protection regime Today with most refugees encamped in the less developed parts of the world the humanitarian apparatus has been transformed into a custodial regime for innocent people Based on rich ethnographic data Rights in Exile exposes the gap between human rights norms and the mandates of international organisations on the one hand and the reality on the ground on the other It will be of wide interest to social scientists and to human rights and international law scholars Policy makers donor governments and humanitarian organizations especially those adopting a rights based approach will also find it an invaluable resource But it is the refugees themselves who could benefit the most if these actors absorb its lessons and apply them Guglielmo Verdirame is a Lecturer in Law at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Corpus Christi College He is also the author of a forthcoming book on the accountability of the United Nations Barbara Harrell Bond Founding director of the Refugee Studies Centre University of Oxford has after retirement been Visiting Professor at Makerere University and at the American University in Cairo In 1996 she received the Distinguished Service Award of the American Anthropological Association She is the author of Imposing Aid Oxford 1986 Transitional Settlement Tom Corsellis, Antonella Vitale, 2005 Included on CD ROM Shelter training a training tool complementing the Transitional settlement displaced populations guidelines Shelter library key documents for the transitional settlement and shelter sector Habitat Debate , 1999 Post-Conflict Security in South Sudan Nyambura Wambugu, 2019-07-25 Just eight years after the signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA and two years after gaining independence the world's newest nation state descended once more into violence and civil war Why have policies of liberal peacebuilding failed to bring lasting stability to the region And what now for South Sudan Nyambura Wambugu an academic with more than ten years practical advisory and policymaking experience adopts a holistic and multi thematic approach to answer these crucial questions Rooting her analysis as deeply as the initial militarisation of Sudan in the 1950s Wambugu considers the complex and overlapping issues that have afflicted the region since 2005 In the process Wambugu demonstrates the failure of the billions of dollars spent on liberal peacebuilding and elucidates the possibility of demilitarisation as a lasting and sustainable alternative Such issues are common in post conflict states and the book therefore acts as a case study for better understanding the deeply entrenched causes of instability and identifying the most sustainable paths to peace This meticulously researched account is essential reading for all students researchers and policymakers working on post conflict societies International African Bibliography , 2003 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1998-06 Refugee Survey Quarterly , 2002 Between Knowledge and Commitment Masako Ishii, Jacqueline Aquino Siapno, 2004 Logic of

Refugee Participation in Camp Public Health Decision-making Margaret Susan Wright, 2006 Education and Conflict Lynn Davies, 2003-12-16 First place winner of the Society for Education Studies 2005 book prize Education and Conflict is a critical review of education in an international context Based on the author's extensive research and experience of education in several areas afflicted by conflict the book explores the relationship between schooling and social conflict and looks at conflict internal to schools It posits a direct link between the ethos of a school and the attitudes of future citizens towards others It also looks at the nature and purpose of peace education and war education and addresses the role of gender and masculinity In five lucid vigorously argued sections the author brings this thought provoking and original piece of work to life by Setting out the terms of the debate defining conflict and peace and outlining the relevant aspects of complexity theory for education Exploring the sources of conflict and their relations to schooling in terms of gender masculinity pluralism nationalism and identity Focusing on the direct education war interface Examining educational responses to conflict Highlighting conflict resolution within the school itself This is the first time that so many aspects of conflict and education have been brought together in one sustained argument With its crucial exposure of the currently culpable role of formal schooling in maintaining conflict this book will be a powerful and essential read for educational policy makers managers teachers and researchers dealing with conflict in their own contexts Refugee Aid and Development Robert F. Gorman, 1993-05-30 This expert study shows how refugee aid and development enterprises should be linked in order to truly help the 16 million refugees today the tens of millions of displaced persons and the hundreds of millions affected by the presence of uprooted people Practitioners and scholars evaluate contemporary programs in Africa Central America and Asia They analyze current theories and policies governing refugee aid and development operations Students teachers and professionals concerned about growing welfare problems in the world will benefit from this overview and from the empirical and theoretical perspectives that are provided The Cambridge Handbook of Environmental Justice and Sustainable Development Sumudu A. Atapattu, Carmen G. Gonzalez, Sara L. Seck, 2021-04-01 Despite the global endorsement of the Sustainable Development Goals environmental justice struggles are growing all over the world These struggles are not isolated injustices but symptoms of interlocking forms of oppression that privilege the few while inflicting misery on the many and threatening ecological collapse This handbook offers critical perspectives on the multi dimensional intersectional nature of environmental injustice and the cross cutting forms of oppression that unite and divide these struggles including gender race poverty and indigeneity The work sheds new light on the often neglected social dimension of sustainability and its relationship to human rights and environmental justice Using a variety of legal frameworks and case studies from around the world this volume illustrates the importance of overcoming the fragmentation of these legal frameworks and social movements in order to develop holistic solutions that promote justice and protect the planet's ecosystems at a time of intensifying economic and ecological crisis Ecosystem Services and Poverty Alleviation (OPEN ACCESS) Kate

Schreckenberger, Georgina Mace, Mahesh Poudyal, 2018-04-27 Understanding how to sustain the services that ecosystems provide in support of human wellbeing is an active and growing research area This book provides a state of the art review of current thinking on the links between ecosystem services and poverty alleviation In part it showcases the key findings of the Ecosystem Services for Poverty Alleviation ESPA programme which has funded over 120 research projects in more than 50 countries since 2010 ESPA's goal is to ensure that ecosystems are being sustainably managed in a way that contributes to poverty alleviation as well as to inclusive and sustainable growth As governments across the world map how they will achieve the 17 ambitious Sustainable Development Goals most of which have poverty alleviation wellbeing and sustainable environmental management at their heart ESPA's findings have never been more timely and relevant The book synthesises the headline messages and compelling evidence to address the questions at the heart of ecosystems and wellbeing research The authors all leading specialists address the evolving framings and contexts for the work review the impacts of ongoing drivers of change present new ways to achieve sustainable wellbeing equity diversity and resilience and evaluate the potential contributions from conservation projects payment schemes and novel governance approaches across scales from local to national and international The cross cutting thematic chapters challenge conventional wisdom in some areas and validate new methods and approaches for sustainable development in others The book will provide a rich and important reference source for advanced students researchers and policy makers in ecology environmental studies ecological economics and sustainable development The Open Access version of this book available at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429016295> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Disaster Risk Reduction John Twigg, 2004 Protracted Refugee Situations Gil Loescher, James

Milner, 2013-11-05 Protracted refugee populations not only constitute over 70% of the world's refugees but are also a principal source of many of the irregular movements of people around the world today The long term presence of refugee populations in much of the developing world has come to be seen by many host states in these regions as a source of insecurity In response host governments have enacted policies of containing refugees in isolated and insecure camps have prevented the arrival of additional refugees and in extreme cases have engaged in forcible repatriation Not surprisingly these refugee populations are also increasingly perceived as possible sources of insecurity for Western states Refugee camps are sometimes breeding grounds for international terrorism and rebel movements These groups often exploit the presence of refugees to engage in activities that destabilise not only host states but also entire regions

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997 "The" State of the World's Refugees Nada Merheb, 2006 Policing the New World Disorder Robert B. Oakley, Michael J. Dziedzic, Eliot M. Goldberg, 1998 In the post Cold War era anarchic conditions within sovereign states have repeatedly posed serious and intractable challenges to the international order Nations have been called upon to conduct peace operations in response to dysfunctional or disintegrating states such as Somalia Haiti and the former Yugoslavia

Among the more vigorous therapies for this kind of disorder is revitalizing local public security institutions the police judiciary and penal system This volume presents insights into the process of restoring public security gleaned from a wide range of practitioners and academic specialists

Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya, 2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People's revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People's Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi
