All Our Names Dinaw Mengestu, 2014-03-04 A Kirkus Reviews Best Fiction Book of the Century From acclaimed author Dinaw Mengestu a recipient of the National Book Foundation s 5 Under 35 award The New Yorker s 20 Under 40 award and a 2012 MacArthur Foundation genius grant comes an unforgettable love story about a searing affair between an American woman and an African man in 1970s America and an unflinching novel about the fragmentation of lives that straddle countries and histories All Our Names is the story of two young men who come of age during an African revolution drawn from the safe confines of the university campus into the intensifying clamor of the streets outside But as the line between idealism and violence becomes increasingly blurred the friends are driven apart one into the deepest peril as the movement gathers inexorable force and the other into the safety of exile in the American Midwest There pretending to be an exchange student he falls in love with a social worker and settles into small town life Yet this idyll is inescapably darkened by the secrets of his past the acts he committed and the work he left unfinished Most of all he is haunted by the beloved friend he left behind the charismatic leader who first guided him to revolution and then sacrificed everything to ensure his freedom Elegiac blazing with insights about the physical and emotional geographies that circumscribe our lives All Our Names is a marvel of vision and tonal command Writing within the grand tradition of Naipul Greene and Achebe Mengestu gives us a political novel that is also a transfixing portrait of love and grace of self determination and the names we are given and the names we earn This eBook edition includes a Reading Group Guide
