Recasting The Ruhr 1945 1959 Manpower Economic Recovery And Labour Relations:

Recasting the Ruhr 1945-1959 Mark Roseman, 1992-02-18 An analysis of the measures undertaken to win new labour for the Ruhr coal production industry and train the recruits into productive and settled miners Boom - Crisis - Heritage
Lars Bluma, Michael Farrenkopf, Torsten Meyer, 2021-10-11 Boom Crisis Heritage these terms aptly outline the history of global coal mining after 1945 The essays collected in this volume explore this history with different emphases and questions The range of topics also reflects this broad approach The first section contains contributions on political social and economic history They address the European energy system in the globalised world of the 20th and 21st centuries as well as specific social policies in mining regions The second section then focuses on the medialisation of mining and its legacies also paying attention to the environmental history of mining The anthology which goes back to a conference of the same name at the Deutsches Bergbau Museum Bochum thus offers a multi faceted insight into the research field of modern mining history

An Economic and Social History of Western Europe since 1945 Anthony Sutcliffe, 2014-09-19 This is the ideal companion text to A Political History of Western Europe Since 1945 It is an introductory survey which explains how western Europe built up its postwar prosperity and is moving towards continental integration Themes treated include the origins of the EC consumerism youth culture and protest immigration the oil crisis and its aftermath and the contrasting experience and expectations of the Nordic world and the Mediterranean south The book ends with the consequences of Soviet collapse Designed for general history students it assumes no formal knowledge of economics and is notably accessible and user friendly in its approach Reconstruction and Cold War in Germany Armin Grünbacher, 2017-11-28 At the end of the Second World War Germany was devastated her cities lay in ruins industrial output was minimal the economy was in tatters and her territories divided into four zones each governed by one of the main Allied powers Yet the rapid onset of the Cold War ensured that the western powers needed to re establish a strong West German state to act as a bulwark against Soviet influence In this study the critical role of the Kreditanstalt f r Wiederaufbau KfW in this process is closely examined Established by the Anglo American occupying powers in 1948 the main remit of the KfW was to provide investment for German industry to help kick start the economy Its particular function was to provide loans to key industries that the commercial banks considered too risky or which offered unacceptably low returns Yet as this study makes clear its work was from the outset highly politicized and its role in German reconstruction went much further than simply providing funds for capital investment Bankrolled mainly by American Marshall Plan counterpart funds the KfW was viewed in Washington as an essential tool in the wider Western response to the challenges of Soviet communism As is shown throughout the book this dual role inevitably caused some difficulties as national interests could be overridden in favour of Cold War considerations As Germany's post war economy revived this led to further tensions between an increasingly prosperous and self confident West Germany and the continued interference of the Allied powers particularly the USA who had their own Cold War agenda

Utilizing archives in Germany Britain and the United States Dr Grünbacher has provided a clear synthesis of this multifaceted and complex subject By approaching the economic development of Federal Germany through the locus of the KfW he offers a fascinating insight into the interactions of economics politics and ideology that will be welcomed by all scholars with an interest in the history of Germany

West German Industrialists and the Making of the Economic Miracle Armin Grünbacher, 2017-07-13

West German Industrialists and the Making of the Economic Miracle investigates the mentality of post war German heavy industrialists through an analysis of their attitudes thinking and views on social political and of course economic matters at the time including the social market economy and how they saw their own role in society with this investigation taking place against the backdrop of the economic miracle and the Cold War of the 1950s and 60s The book also includes an assessment of whether the self declared new aristocracy of merit justified its place in society and carried out its actions in a new spirit of political responsibility This is an important text for all students interested in the history of Germany and the modern economic history of Europe

The Wayward Flock Mark Edward Ruff, 2005-01-31

In the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries the western and southern regions of Germany were home to intensely devout Roman Catholic communities By the late 1950s however this Catholic subculture could not withstand the onslaught of a culture of consumption motorcycles Hollywood films and vacations abroad In The Wayward Flock Mark Edward Ruff analyzes why the strategy of using modern means to fight modern society which had worked so successfully from the 1870s to the 1920s did not succeed in the postwar era Ruff examines the vast network of Catholic youth organizations in West Germany that had traditionally served as a source for future youth leaders and a means by which the church could resist the changes of modern society But organization membership dwindled from nearly 1.5 million in the 1920s to 600,000 by the early 1960s due in large part Ruff argues to generational differences an emerging ethic of consumption and changes in West Germany's political makeup Ultimately Ruff demonstrates church leaders were unable to provide viable alternatives to the antimodern and antiliberal ideologies of the past

A Past in Hiding Mark Roseman, 2014-04-15

A heart stopping survivor story and brilliant historical investigation that offers unprecedented insight into daily life in the Third Reich and the Holocaust and the powers and pitfalls of memory At the outbreak of World War II Marianne Strauss the sheltered daughter of well to do German Jews was an ordinary girl concerned with studies friends and romance Almost overnight she was transformed into a woman of spirit and defiance a fighter who when the Gestapo came for her family seized the moment and went underground On the run for two years Marianne traveled across Nazi Germany without papers aided by a remarkable resistance organization previously unknown and unsung Drawing on an astonishing cache of documents as well as interviews on three continents historian Mark Roseman reconstructs Marianne's odyssey and reveals aspects of life in the Third Reich long hidden from view As Roseman excavates the past he also puts forward a new and sympathetic interpretation of the troubling discrepancies between fact and recollection that so often cloud survivors accounts A detective story a love story a story of great courage and survival under the harshest conditions A Past in Hiding is also a poignant investigation into the nature of memory authenticity and truth Les sociétés de musique en Europe 1700-1920 Hans Erich Bödeker, Patrice Veit, 2007

Arbeit, Kultur, Identität Dagmar Kift, Hanneliese Palm, 2007 Selling the Economic Miracle Mark E. Spicka, 2007

Through an examination of election campaign propaganda and various public relations campaigns reflecting new electioneering techniques borrowed from the United States this work explores how conservative political and economic groups sought to construct and sell a political meaning of the Social Market Economy and the Economic Miracle in West Germany during the 1950s The political meaning of economics contributed to conservative electoral success constructed a new belief in the free market economy within West German society and provided legitimacy and political stability for the new Federal Republic of Germany Getting MAD Henry D. Sokolski, 2004 Getting MAD Nuclear Mutual Assured Destruction Its Origins and Practice is the first critical history of the intellectual roots and actual application of the strategic doctrine of nuclear mutual assured destruction or MAD Written by the world's leading French British and American military policy planners and analysts this volume examines how MAD and its emphasis on the military targeting of population centers influenced the operational plans of the major nuclear powers and states such as Pakistan India and Israel Given America's efforts to move away from MAD and the continued reliance on MAD thinking by smaller nations to help justify further nuclear proliferation Getting MAD is a timely must read for anyone eager to understand our nuclear past and future

Globalisierung und europäische Integration Uwe Röndigs, 2000 Migration und Politik Johannes-Dieter Steinert, 1995

Green skills and innovation for inclusive growth OECD, European Centre for the Development of Vocational Training, 2015-07-23 The second green skills forum organised by Cedefop and the OECD LEED in February 2014 provided an open space for discussion between researchers policy makers social partners and international organisations on skills development and training needs for a greener economy The focus of this Transnational Classes and International Relations Kees van der Pijl, 1998 Presenting an analysis of class formation in the global political economy this text studies the growth of an integrated transnational capitalist class from Freemasonry in the late 1800s to contemporary planning groups with a class orientation Dark Continent Mark Mazower, 2009-05-20 An unflinching and intelligent alternative history of the twentieth century that provides a provocative vision of Europe's past present and future A splendid book The New York Times Book Review Dark Continent provides an alternative history of the twentieth century one in which the triumph of democracy was anything but a forgone conclusion and fascism and communism provided rival political solutions that battled and sometimes triumphed in an effort to determine the course the continent would take Mark Mazower strips away myths that have comforted us since World War II revealing Europe as an entity constantly engaged in a bloody project of self invention Here is a history not of inevitable victories and forward marches but of narrow squeaks and unexpected twists where townships boast a bronze of Mussolini on horseback one moment only to melt it down and recast it as a pair of noble

partisans the next The Villa, the Lake, the Meeting Mark Roseman, 2002 In February 1947 US officials in Germany stumbled across a document Headed Secret Reich matter it summarized the results of a meeting of top civil servants and SS and party officials that took place on 20 January 1942 in a grand villa on the shore of Berlin's Lake Wannsee The document came to be known as the Wannsee Protocol or the most shameful document of modern history Jugend, Wohlfahrtsstaat und Gesellschaft im Wandel Markus Köster, 1999 Dokumente zur Deutschlandpolitik, 2000 The Human in Command Carol McCann, Ross Pigeau, 2012-12-06 MAJOR GENERAL M K JEFFERY Command and indeed the human in command has always been key to military operations The complexity and tempo of modern operations make this statement even more true today than in the past However both the military and the research communities have tended to treat command and control C from a limited perspective For too long command and control have been considered as if they were a single concept with control often dominating our study Indeed in many cases we have divorced operational C from the military institution itself resulting in disconnects and inefficiencies Then in an attempt to overcome these self-inflicted deficiencies we have pursued the Holy Grail of technology hoping that it would solve our C problems Only now as we start to realize technology's costs and limitations are we looking critically at C This book attempts to take such a look The contributions that make up this book are the product of a June 1998 NATO North Atlantic Treaty Organization workshop called The Human in Command Far from being purely an academic exercise this gathering brought together military leaders and civilian scientists to discuss C's central pragmatic and conceptual issues its assumptions its practices and its organization Indeed in recent years there has been mounting evidence that both our society and its military institutions are facing organizational crises
