Recasting Historical Women Female Identity In German Biographical Fiction:

Recasting Historical Women Stephanie Bird, 1998-01 This text presents critical readings of eight contemporary German novels which feature historically documented women as their main protagonists and which reconstruct women's lives by combining source material with invention The protagonists include Cornelia Goethe Caroline Schlegel Schelling Karoline von Guenderröde and Charlotte Corday Imagining Gender in Biographical Fiction Julia Novak, Caitríona Ní Dhúill, 2022-12-15 This volume addresses the current boom in biographical fictions across the globe examining the ways in which gendered lives of the past become reimagined as gendered narratives in fiction Building on this research this book is the first to address questions of gender in a sustained and systematic manner that is also sensitive to cultural and historical differences in both raw material and fictional reworking It develops a critical lens through which to approach biofictions as fictions of gender drawing on theories of biofiction and historical fiction life writing studies feminist criticism queer feminist readings postcolonial studies feminist art history and trans studies Attentive to various approaches to fictionalisation that reclaim appropriate or reinvent their raw material the volume assesses the critical revisionist and deconstructive potential of biographical fictions while acknowledging the effects of cliché gender norms and established narratives in many of the texts under investigation The introduction of this book is available open access under a CC BY 4.0 license at link.springer.com Chapter 1 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via link.springer.com

Stories and Portraits of the Self Helena Carvalhão Buescu, João Ferreira Duarte, 2007 In contemporary societies privatization has long ceased to be just an economic concept rather it must increasingly be made to refer to the ongoing shrinking of the public space under the impact of the representation of individual lives and images which cuts across all discourses genres and media to become one of the primary means of production of culture This volume is intended to cover such an historical social and intellectual ground where self representation comes to the fore Targeting mostly an academic readership but certainly also of interest to the general educated public it collects a wide range of essays dealing with diverse modes of life writing and portraying from a variety of perspectives and focusing on different historical periods and media It thus offers itself as a major contribution to a better understanding of the world we live in its past legacy and present configuration Contents Introduction Signposts of the Self in Modernity Part I The Representational Dilemma Christopher PRENDERGAST The Self as a Work of Art Proust's Scepticism Paulo DE MEDEIROS Re Constructing Re Membering Postcolonial Selves Aleksandra PODSIADLIK Doing Identity in Fiction Identity Construction as a Dialogue between Individuals and Cultural Narratives Clara ROWLAND Self Representation and Temporality Parabasis in Guimarães Rosa's Grande Sertão Veredas Daniel ROVERS New Man Marie Kessels Inner Portrait of a Writing Self Gaston FRANSSEN Good Intentions Ethical Commitment and Impersonal Poetry The Work of Gerrit Kouwenaar Jan RUPP For Getting Plural Selves Narrative and Identity in Caryl Phillips's A Distant Shore Lars BERNAERTS The Straitjacket of Normality The Interaction publication of spectacular biographical novels about figures as varied as Abraham Lincoln Ludwig Wittgenstein Friedrich Nietzsche Emily Dickinson Virginia Woolf Henry James and Marilyn Monroe just to mention a notable few This publication frenzy culminated in 1999 when two biographical novels Michael Cunningham's The Hours and Russell Banks' Cloudsplitter were nominated for the Pulitzer Prize and Cunningham's novel won the award In The American Biographical Novel Michael Lackey charts the shifts in intellectual history that made the biographical novel acceptable to the literary establishment and popular with the general reading public More specifically Lackey clarifies the origin and evolution of this genre of fiction specifies the kind of truth it communicates provides a framework for identifying how this genre uniquely engages the political and demonstrates how it gives readers new access to history

A History of Women's Writing in Germany, Austria and Switzerland Jo Catling, 2000-03-23 This volume makes the wide ranging work of German women writers visible to a wider audience It is the first work in English to provide a chronological introduction to and overview of women's writing in German speaking countries from the Middle Ages to the present day Extensive guides to further reading and a bibliographical guide to the work of more than 400 women writers form an integral part of the volume which will be indispensable for students and scholars of German literature and all those interested in women's and gender studies

Biofictional Histories, Mutations and Forms Michael Lackey, 2018-10-03 Biofiction defined as literature that names its protagonist after an actual historical figure first became popular in the 1930s but over the last forty years it has become a dominant literary form Prominent writers such as J M Coetzee Joyce Carol Oates Russell Banks Julia Alvarez Peter Carey Hilary Mantel Colm Tóibín Anne Enright Colum McCann and Michael Cunningham have authored spectacular biographical novels which have won some of the world's most prestigious awards for fiction However in spite of the prominence of these authors' works and awards there has been considerable confusion about the nature of biofiction This collection of process pieces and academic essays from authors and scholars of biofiction defines the nature of the aesthetic form clarifies why it has come into being specifies what it is uniquely capable of signifying illustrates how it pictures the historical and critiques the political and suggests potential directions for future studies This book was originally published as a special issue of Auto Biography Studies

The Nineteenth Century Revisited Ina Bergmann, 2020-12-29 The Nineteenth Century Revisited The New Historical Fiction explores the renaissance of the American historical novel at the turn of the twenty first century The study examines the revision of nineteenth century historical events in cultural products against the background of recent theoretical trends in American studies It combines insights of literary studies with scholarship on popular culture The focus of representation is the long nineteenth century a period from the early republic to World War I as a key epoch of the nation building project of the United States The study explores the constructedness of historical tradition and the cultural resonance of historical events within the discourse on the contemporary novel and the theory formation surrounding it At the center of the discussion are the unprecedented literary output and critical as well as popular success of historical fiction in the USA

since 1995 An additional postcolonial and transatlantic perspective is provided by the incorporation of texts by British and Australian authors and especially by the inclusion of insights from neo Victorian studies The book provides a critical comment on current and topical developments in American literature culture and historiography Neo-Victorian Biofiction, 2020-09-07 This volume explores the many paradoxes of neo Victorian biofiction a genre that yokes together the real and the imaginary biography and fiction and generates oxymoronic combinations like creative facts fictional truth or poetic truthfulness Contemporary biofictions recreating nineteenth century lives demonstrate the crucial but always ethically ambiguous revision and supplementation of the historical archive Due to the tension between ethical empathy and consumerist voyeurism between traumatic testimony and exploitative expos the epistemological response is per force one of hermeneutic suspicion and iconoclasm In the final account this volume highlights neo Victorianism s deconstruction of master narratives and the consequent democratic rehabilitation of over looked microhistories Narrative is the Essence of History John Cameron, 2012-03-15 The historical novel has had a very interesting history itself During the 19th century the historical novels of Scott Hugo Thackeray Dickens Tolstoy and a host of other writers enjoyed both popular success and critical admiration Success has never really died out but admiration has been another matter During the 20th century historical fiction began to be disparaged by critics who looked down on the genre and its elements of romance adventure and swashbuckling This disparagement reached such a pitch that Robert Graves author of I Claudius and Claudius the God felt compelled to say that he wrote these novels only because of pressing financial needs As the century wore on the genre began to move in a variety of interesting ways and reached even larger audiences Some critics have continued to look down on the genre but a growing number of historical novels have begun to receive wide critical praise The Roman historian Ronald Syme once wrote that narrative is the essence of history What is the essence of historical fiction Why does it continue to be such a popular and resilient genre What is the history of historical fiction What is its future Imagining the Age of Goethe in German Literature, 1970-2010 John David Pizer, 2011 This is the first book length study devoted to modern German author as character fiction set in the Age of Goethe It shows for the first time in a sustained manner the powerful hold the Goethezeit continues to exercise on the imagination of many of Germany s leading writers This inner German dialogue across the ages provides an important corrective to the dominant critical view that contemporary German language literature is composed primarily under the sign of both globalization and the influence of mass American culture Book cover Physiognomy in Profile Melissa Percival, Graeme Tytler, 2005 Physiognomy in Profile affirms and assesses Lavater s contribution to European culture in the two hundred years after his death It examines how Lavater s vision of physiognomy as a viable method of interpreting the modern world has been repeatedly affirmed and challenged Previous monographs on Lavater have tended to focus on one particular theme discipline or historical period but this study deliberately adopts a cross disciplinary approach and covers a broad historical time frame Some widely different material is juxtaposed painting photography fiction journalism medical texts in order to explore recurring issues in physiognomical thought Essays are arranged in chronological order so that the reader can gain a sense of the shared preoccupations of Lavater s contemporaries and successors But the book may also be read thematically BOOK JACKET Anne Duden: a Revolution of Words Heike Bartel,Elizabeth Boa,2003 Anne Duden s reputation as one of the most innovative writers of her generation established in 1982 with the experimental stories in bergang was confirmed in 1985 by Das Judasschaf a novel interweaving an individual s anguish with the cultural trauma of the German past In her acclaimed poem cycles Steinschlag 1993 and Hingegend 1999 Duden pushes the limits of language in densely metaphoric evocations of landscapes and places of political and personal remembrance mixing lament for ruined nature with grotesque comedy mystic vision with horror Duden is a distinguished practitioner of short forms Her essays display the same intense engagement with the visual arts as informs her narrative texts Her deep interest in music is echoed in the musicality of short prose poems This volume presents for the first time a comprehensive collection of approaches to Duden s fiction poetry and essays by international scholars Topics include the ethics and aesthetics of Duden s engagement with German history her constructions of female subjectivity her criticism of western dualistic thinking with its devaluation of the body and exploitation of nature her position within a modernist tradition with roots in the Romantic Age the visual arts and poetic influences such as Holderlin and Celan the dilemmas of translating Duden s highly individual style Three essays on Steinschlag constitute the first systematic reading of this difficult much praised cycle Bibliographic Guide to Womens Studies 1998 New York Public Library Staff,1999-08 New Books on Women and Feminism ,1999 Frauenbiographik Christian von Zimmermann,Nina v Zimmermann,2005 Feminist Studies ,1998 Caroline Schlegel-Schelling Martin Reulecke,2010
