Recent Work in Critical Theory, 1989-1995, 1996      Wilkie Collins's Library William Baker, 2002-03-30 Wilkie Collins
1824 1889 is a major British Victorian novelist dramatist short story writer and journalist He is best known today as the author of The Moonstone which T S Eliot called the first and greatest English detective novel He has been the subject of two recent biographies and a revival of interest in his works is now under way In particular there is growing concern with his intellectual development as witnessed by the 1999 publication of his collected letters This reconstruction of his library offers a thorough analysis of the books he owned and his response to them and thus illuminates Collins as a reader and writer The book begins with a narrative discussion of the contents of Collins's library and its auction This introductory essay sheds light on the types of books he owned his use of those texts in his writings and the dispersion of his collection in 1890 The bulk of the volume provides annotated entries for each item from his library Entries include publication and bibliographic information descriptions from sale catalogs information about the author of the item citations of the book or author from Collins's letters and information on the present location or subsequent history of the item An appendix catalogs paintings and artwork in Collins's possession at the time of his death      Literary Research and British Postmodernism Bridgit McCafferty, Arianne Hartsell-Gundy, 2015-09-02 Literary Research and British Postmodernism is a guide for researchers of postwar British literature that defines best practices for scholars conducting research in this period Individual chapters connect the complex relationships between print and multimedia technological advancements and the influence of critical theory that converge in postwar British literature      Anglophone Caribbean Poetry, 1970-2001 Emily A. Williams, 2002-12-30
Caribbean poetry written in English has been attracting growing amounts of scholarly attention The first substantial annotated bibliography of primary and secondary materials related to the topic this reference chronicles the development of Anglophone Caribbean poetry from 1970 through 2001 Included are nearly 900 entries for anthologies reference works conference proceedings critical studies interviews and recorded works The volume also includes a chronology an overview of the development and significance of Caribbean poetry in English and extensive indexes In 1971 the Association for Commonwealth Literature and Language Studies held a conference on West Indian literature at the University of the West Indies This was the first assembly for the discussion of West Indian literature by West Indian people on West Indian soil Since then interest in Caribbean poetry written in English has grown dramatically Caribbean poetry was influenced by the American Black Power movement during the 1970s and women poets began to contribute their voices throughout the 1980s Caribbean poets have in turn gained greater access to publishing outlets resulting in a wider international readership and a corresponding increase in scholarly and critical studies This book is the first substantial annotated bibliography of primary and secondary materials related to Caribbean poetry written in English The volume begins with the rise of interest in Anglophone Caribbean poetry in the 1970s and continues through 2001 Included are entries for nearly 900 anthologies reference works conference proceedings critical studies interviews and recordings The entries are grouped in chapters devoted to particular types of works In addition the volume includes a chronology a discussion of the history of Anglophone Caribbean poetry and extensive indexes

Transfigured Andrew P. Wilson, 2007-09-15 At first glance the Markan transfiguration scene Mk 9 2 8 is all about light sound and spectacle Commentators see revealed in this scene a sparkling vision of God's glory the light that banishes the shadow of incomprehension and by which the hidden truth of the Gospel finally becomes clear But have commentators been blinded by their dazzling evaluations of Mark's theology For despite all the splendor and sparkle the Markan transfiguration remains a difficult scene to interpret Transfigured asks what would be seen if one were to squint past the sun like glory that dominates this vision Wilson focuses on the problematic elements the gaps and inconsistencies of the scene and re-evaluates them in order to re-read the transfiguration from an altered perspective The theoretical work of Jacques Derrida particularly his notion of otherness which draws together and realigns the reader subject the reading method and what is read text will be central to the orientation of this re-reading Ultimately the transfiguration story can be seen able to accommodate readings that challenge traditionally prescribed metaphysical structures and presuppositions In the end the application of Derridean theory issues its own challenges to traditional scholarship in such a way that the approach to the Markan transfiguration and the theology one inevitably brings to it require a certain amount of reformulation

John Irving Harold Bloom, 2001 A collection of eleven chronologically arranged pieces of literary criticism on the works of twentieth century American author John Irving with a chronology and secondary bibliography essays cover the novels The World According to Garp The Hotel New Hampshire The 158 Pound Marriage A Prayer for Owen Meany and The Cider House Rules

The English Novel, 1700-1740 Robert Letellier, 2003-02-28 The English novel written between 1700 and 1740 remains a comparatively neglected area In addition to Daniel Defoe whose Robinson Crusoe and Moll Flanders are landmarks in the history of English fiction many other authors were at work These included such women as Penelope Aubin Jane Barker Mary Davys and Eliza Haywood who made a considerable contribution to widening the range of emotional responses in fiction These authors and many others continued writing in the genres inherited from the previous century such as criminal biographies the Utopian novel the science fictional voyage and the epistolary novel This annotated bibliography includes entries for these works and for critical materials pertinent to them The volume first seeks to establish the existing studies of the era along with anthologies It then provides entries for a wide ranging selection of works which cover fictional theoretical historical political and cultural topics to provide a comprehensive background to the unfolding and understanding of prose fiction in the early 18th century This is followed by an alphabetical listing of novels their editions and any critical material available on each The next section provides a chronological record of significant and enduring works of fiction composed or translated in this period The volume concludes with extensive indexes

A. E. Housman NA NA, 2016-04-30 This collection of essays was conceived as part of the centenary celebrations of the first publication in 1896 of one of the most popular collections of poetry ever written A Shropshire Lad a collection never out of print in a hundred years Yet Housman was a recluse an austere classicist of great renown who devoted his academic life to the correction of ancient texts He filled his poems with the lives loves and deaths of simple country people whose emotions are intense and often violent but lived his own life in stoic acceptance of his loveless arid existence Why his life should have been so intentionally empty of emotion raises questions about Housman s own sexuality and the relationship he had with his friend Moses Jackson and Jackson s brother Afalbert Housman s poetry like his life is deceptively simple this volume shows some of the complex currents below the surface      Literary Research Guide James L. Harner,2008 James L Harner s Literary Research Guide which Choice calls the standard guide in the field evaluates important reference materials in English studies Since the publication of the first edition in 1989 tens of thousands of students and educators have used the Guide as an aid to scholarly research In the new edition Harner has added entries describing resources published since May 2001 and has revised nearly half the entries from the fourth edition The fifth edition contains more than 1 000 entries which discuss an additional 1 555 books articles and electronic resources and cite 723 reviews Readers of earlier editions will notice the inclusion of substantially more electronic resources particularly reliable sites sponsored by academic institutions and learned societies to account for the proliferation of bibliographic databases text archives and other online resources This edition also features a new section on cultural studies      Bulletin of Bibliography ,1997      Flannery O'Connor R. Neil Scott,2002

The Best Books for Academic Libraries: General works, military & naval, library science ,2002      Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock,Terrie M.
