Recent Industrialization Experience Of Turkey In A Global Context:

Democracy and Capitalism in Turkey Devrim Adam Yavuz, 2023-02-23 While a positive correlation between capitalism and democracy has existed in Western Europe and North America the example of late industrializing nations such as Turkey has demonstrated that the two need not always go hand in hand and sometimes the interests of business coincide more firmly with anti democratic forces This book explores the factors that compelled capitalists in Turkey to adopt a more pro democratic ideology by examining a leading Turkish business lobby T SIAD which has been pushing for democratic reform since the 1990s despite representing some of the largest corporation owners in Turkey and having supported the state s authoritarian tendencies in the past such as the military coup of 1980 Drawing on roughly 70 interviews with influential members of T SIAD and individuals close to them the book reveals that business leaders were willing to break away from the state due to the conflict between their evolving economic needs and power with a political elite and state that were unwilling to cater to their demands In so doing the book provides a rich account of business state relations in Turkey as well as providing a case study for the wider study of democracy and capitalism in developing nations The Economic Transformation of Turkey Nilgün Önder, 2016-10-27 The coup d tat which took place in Turkey on 12 September 1980 was the third in the history of the Republic and ushered in a three year period of military rule Nilgün Önder investigates the economic transformation of Turkey after this coup examining both the policies enacted under the military regime and those during the subsequent period of civilian government Önder argues the key aspect of economic policy was that of neoliberal restructuring and integral to this was the exclusion of organised labour from the political process In doing so she highlights the irony of the era that at an official level there was an emphasis upon neoliberal economic values such as limited state involvement And yet at the same time policies were enacted which were aimed at a more interventionist position when it came to industrial relations It was through new legislation and bureaucratisation of the industrial relations system that the state transformed the Turkish economy attempting to open it up to foreign investment and trade in effect creating the foundations of Turkey s current economic success The Economic Transformation of Turkey examines the relations between state and labour during this period by concentrating on the form of state and political regime As a result Önder highlights the continuation of neoliberal restructuring and the accompanying anti labour policy in Turkey throughout the 1980s and 1990s despite the transition to democratic rule Shaped by the theory that the form of rule and the actions of organized interests in a particular society are conditioned by the constraints of the world political economic order this book explores the networks of interactions between global capital and international institutions on the one hand and the state and domestic social forces in Turkey on the other The Economy of Turkey since Liberalization V. Balasubramanyam, S. Togan, 2016-07-27 Many developing countries have embarked on liberalisation programmes in recent years One such programme which has attracted wide attention and posed a number of analytical issues is that undertaken by Turkey during the 1980s The nine essays in this volume provide an analytical review of recent developments in relation to Turkey's economic transactions. The primary focus of most of the essays is on the impact of trade and investment liberalization policies of Turkey on Turkey's foreign trade and growth. A feature of the book is the in-depth empirical analysis of the issues grounded in recent trade and investment theories.

Turkey, a Century of Change in State and Society Bayram Balci, Nicolas Monceau, 2023-06-01. The Republic of Turkey celebrates the centenary of its proclamation in 2023. Founded on the ruins of the Ottoman Empire, one of the world's greatest empires both in terms of its geographical extent and its longevity, Republican Turkey has gone through a century of profound and constant changes and transformations from politics to society, economy to religion or culture to history. These changes have been produced by inner and foreign policies carried out and implemented by the country's leaders from Atatürk, the founder of modern Turkey, to Recep Tayyip Erdoğan, the current Turkish President in 2023, but also under the influence of the regional and international context. This collective work aims to take stock of the great achievements of the Turkish republican project. It attempts to draw a general presentation of the evolution of contemporary Turkey in six main areas which constitute six major issues for the country: the general political evolution of Turkey focusing on the issue of citizenship; the transformations in the Turkish economy through a political economy analysis; the evolution of the relationship between religion, state and society; Turkey's nation building and the Kurdish question which still seeks a solution; the changes in Turkish foreign policy focusing on the relationship between Turkey and the West; the relationship between Turkey and Europe caught between the model of civilization for the republican regime and the prospects of accession to the European Union. Several focus points also concentrate on specific subjects such as the Alevi issue, the Cyprus issue or the Turkish soft power with an accent on Africa.

The State and Global Change Hassan Hakimian, Ziba Moshaver, 2020-08-11. Economic liberalisation and reform are widely considered as the favourite remedies for the declining economic fortunes of the Middle Eastern and North African states in the past two decades. International economic institutions have been among the main advocates of transition to market-led economies in the region and a force contributing to its realisation. This has placed the state at the centre of the proposed transformations, acting both as an instrument of and an obstacle to change. With attempts at liberalisation worldwide spanning over twenty years, the time is ripe for a re-evaluation of its premises and outcome. The essays in this volume debate the political economy of transition and reforms in the Middle East and North Africa, drawing on interdisciplinary approaches and outlooks involving international, regional and national levels of analysis. The three central themes of the book are the rationale and strategies for reform, the processes and outcomes, and the nature of the state in the changing global setting.

Turkey in World Politics Barry M. Rubin, Kemal Kirişçi, 2001. Tracing the evolution of Turkey's foreign policy from isolationism to regional agreements and organizations, this study explores the country's new international posture. Rubin, strategic studies Bar Ilan University and Kirişçi, political science Bogazici University, assess Turkey's policy toward Europe, Russia, Central Asia and the United States as well as its growing role in the Middle East. They address the issues central to Turkey's economic energy and water policy. They also discuss the interest groups and institutions affecting the policymaking process and the challenges facing the country's rapidly urbanizing and industrializing economy.

Innovation, Industrial Dynamics and Structural Transformation Uwe Cantner, Franco Malerba, 2007-03-08 This book provides an account of work in the Schumpeterian and evolutionary tradition of industrial dynamics and the evolution of industries. It is shown that over time industries evolve and change their structure. In this dynamic process change is affected and sometimes constrained by many factors including knowledge and technologies, the capabilities and incentives of actors, new products and processes, and institutions.

Material Culture and Authenticity Magdalena Craciun, 2020-05-26 The study of material culture demonstrates that objects make people just as much as people make exchange and consume objects. But what if these objects are in the eyes of others only fakes? What kind of material mirror are people looking into? Are their real selves really reflected in this mirror? This book provides an original and revealing study into engagements with objects that are not what they are claimed and presumed to be and subsequently are believed to betray their makers as well as users. Drawing upon an ethnography of fake branded garments in Turkey and Romania, Material Culture and Authenticity shows how people can make authentic positions for themselves in and through fake objects. The book will be of interest to students and scholars working in the fields of anthropology, material culture, and cultural studies, as well as to general readers interested in ethnographic alternatives to biographies of famous fakers and fakes.

The Greater Middle East in Global Politics Mehdi Amineh, 2007-10-30 This anthology unites in one volume two studies of the Greater Middle East in global politics, each conceptual and empirical. First, it is a historical comparative study of politics and societies in selected Greater Middle Eastern countries from Napoleon's invasion of Ottoman Egypt in 1798 up until today. It addresses development and change in these societies as results of the complex interactions between external developments, the rise and expansion of European industrialized powers, and internal developments, the disintegration of Islamic Empires, their transformation into nation states, and their efforts to industrialize and modernize. Second, it is an empirical case study of states and societies of the Greater Middle East in global politics, addressing themes such as nationalism, revolution, political Islam, democracy, globalization, regionalism, revolution, war, energy, and conflict, and cooperation. The book is comprised of three parts and nineteen chapters. Contributors include Mehdi Parvizi, Amineh Simon, Bromley Robert M, Cutler Louisa, Dris A t Hamadouche, S N Eisenstadt, Femke Hoogeveen, Henk Houweling, B M Jain, Mehran Kamrava, Roger Kangas, Fred H Lawson, Prithvi Ram Mudiam, Nilgun Onder, Wilbur Perlot, Richard Pomfret, Kurt W Radtke, Mirzohid Rahimov, Eva Patricia Rakel, and Yahia H Zoubir.

Middle Eastern Societies in the 20th Century Jerzy Zdanowski, 2014-10-16 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the last 100 years in the Middle East from the perspective of social history. It is apt to date the beginning of the modern Middle East to the industrialization era while it extends its reach into the present. Taking its lead from modernization theory, this book illustrates past expectations of the present and helps to understand everyday occurrences rather than sensational events It adopts a multi disciplinary perspective and concentrates on the relationship between history and social theory From a historical perspective the categories of social anthropology and social theory are referred to as social mobility urbanization migration cultural change gender identities and the young generation The book addresses the primary issues of importance for the region namely natural and human resources demography and its dynamics family life patriarchy and the emancipation of women class structure and social mobility ethnic and religious minorities migration and its impact on culture and politics refugees problems in historical and contemporary contexts urbanization in the Middle Eastern context the challenges of development and finally the social and political consequences of the Arab Spring

Social Justice and Neoliberalism Professor Adrian Smith, Professor Alison Stenning, Katie Willis, 2013-07-04 The continuing expansion of neoliberalism into ever more spaces and spheres of life has profound implications for social justice Despite the number of policies designed to target social exclusion people in many communities continue to be marginalized by economic restructuring Social Justice and Neoliberalism explores the connections between neoliberalism social justice and exclusion The authors raise critical questions about the extent to which neoliberal programmes are able to deliver social justice in different locations around the world The book offers grounded theoretically oriented empirically rich analysis that critiques neoliberalism while understanding its material impacts It also stresses the need to extend analyses beyond the dominant spheres of capitalism to look at the ways in which communities resist and remake the economic and social order through contestation and protest but also in their everyday lives Global in scope this book brings together writers who examine these themes in the global South the former communist East and the West using the experience of marginal peoples places and communities to challenge our conceptions of capitalism and its geographies

The Turkish Economy in Crisis Ziya Onis, Barry Rubin, 2004-08-02 This book provides a set of critical perspectives on the economic crises of 2000 and 2001 focusing on both the origins and consequences of the crises Attention is drawn to the role of domestic actors as well as key external actors such as the International Monetary Fund in precipitating the twin crises

White-Collar Blues Mustafa Yavaş, 2025-06-24 Consider the lucky few They studied hard and aced high stakes tests survived demanding schooling and extracurriculars graduated from top colleges and immediately landed high pay high status corporate positions in tall buildings What happens after this middle class dream of fast track careers comes true White Collar Blues follows the Turkish members of the global elite workforce as they are selected into survive within and opt out of coveted employment at transnational corporations State employed doctors lawyers and engineers were long seen as role models until Turkey followed the global tide of neoliberalism and began to embrace freer circulation of capital As world renowned corporations transformed Istanbul into a global city Turkey's best and brightest have increasingly sought employment at brand name firms Despite achieving upward mobility within and beyond Turkey however many Turkish professionals end up feeling disappointed burned out and trapped in their corporate careers Drawing from more than one hundred interviews in Istanbul and New York City Mustafa Yava develops a theory of middle class alienation explaining how so called good jobs fail elite workers Yava shows how educational investments in an increasingly competitive landscape lead to high hopes which then clash with poor work life balance low intrinsic satisfaction and a felt lack of meaning from labor in corporate workplaces Highlighting the trade off between freedom and financial security White Collar Blues reveals the hidden costs of conflating the quest for socioeconomic status with the pursuit of happiness Books on Turkey ,2005 A Summary of Research 1995 United States. Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey, CA.,1995 State Reform and Development in the Middle East Amr Adly,2013 The economies of Turkey and Egypt remarkably similar until the early 1980s have since taken divergent paths Turkey has successfully implemented a policy of export led industrialisation whilst Egypt s manufacturing industry and exports have stagnated In this book Amr Adly uses extensive primary research to present detailed comparisons of Turkey s and Egypt s state administrative and private sector capacities and links between the two The conclusion the author draws is that the external contexts for both were so alike that this cannot account for their diverging paths Instead the author suggests a counterintuitive yet compelling explanation that a democratic polity is far more likely than an authoritarian one to engender a successful developmental state Emerging in the wake of the January revolution in Egypt when hopes for democratisation were raised this book provides a fresh perspective on the topical subject of state reform and development in the Middle East and will be of interest to students and scholar alike Industrial Dynamics, Innovation Policy, and Economic Growth through Technological Advancements Yetkiner, I. Hakan,Pamukcu, M. Teoman,Erdil, Erkan,2012-08-31 This book examines the nature of the process of technological change in different sectors of various countries analyzing the impact of innovation as well as research and development activities on different outcomes in different fields and assessing the design and impact of policies aimed at enhancing innovation in organizations Provided by publisher The Contribution of Turkey for Reconstruction and Development of Palestine Hasan Köni,1995 Women Workers in Turkey Saniye Dedeoglu,2007-10-24 Globalisation is often considered as not only generating jobs but also having a negative effect on those at the bottom of the labour supply chain Here Saniye Dedeoglu shows us exactly how globalisation has affected women engaged in insecure invisible and low unpaid garment work Through a close ethnographic study of women workers in Istanbul s garment industry she reveals how industries have adapted their labour demands to make use of local female labour supplies and highlights the strategies and responses that have evolved in response to contemporary changes in global industrial production in Turkey Dedeoglu shows how production for global markets has seeped into local labour markets contributing to a culture of work which is informal and whose participants are often invisible Women Workers in Turkey throws up the critical question of what it means to be a woman in today s globalised society and is an important contribution to the various perspectives on the social and economic consequences of globalization to the least privileged in industrial societies
