Recent Perspectives On European Romanticism:

Recent Perspectives on European Romanticism Larry H. Peer, 2002 Realpoetik Paul Hamilton, 2013-11 Realpoetik considers the relationship between literary and political ideas in the thought of key European writers of the Romantic period examining how the main historical events of the period encouraged a re imagining of the political shape of Europe which also changed the way we think about imagination itself

Romanticism and Time Sophie Laniel-Musitelli, Céline Sabiron, Gregory Dart, Lily Dessau, David Duff, Laurent Folliot, Evan Gottlieb, Ralf Haekel, Nicholas Halmi, Paul Hamilton, Oriane Montheard (enseignante-chercheuse en études anglophones)., Martin Procházka, Laura Quinney, Matthew Redmond, Anne Rouhette, Mark Sandy, Fiona J.. Stafford, 2021 This brilliantly conceived exhilarating and wide ranging collection of essays is essential reading for all those interested in taking the long view of the historical literary and philosophical times of British Romanticism Pamela Clemit Queen Mary University of London Romanticism and Time is a remarkable affirmation of border crossings and international exchanges in many ways This major collection of essays represents the work of eminent scholars from France Germany Switzerland Czechoslovakia the United Kingdom and the United States as they in turn represent the Romanticisms that emerged not only from the four nations of England Scotland Wales and Ireland but also from Continental Europe and America With their commitment to diversity to change and to exchange and because of their awareness of the romanticism of periodization itself the authors in this volume produce as Wordsworth might say a timely utterance Kevis Goodman University of California Berkeley This volume considers Romantic poetry as embedded in and reflecting on the march of time regarding it not merely as a reaction to the course of events between the late eighteenth and mid nineteenth centuries but also as a form of creative engagement with history in the making Revising current thinking about periodisation these essays survey the Romantic canon s evolution over time and approach Romanticism as a phenomenon unfolding across national borders

Romantic Geography M. Wiley, 1998-09-28 Grounded in historical sources and informed by recent work in cultural sociological geographical and spatial studies Romantic Geography illuminates the nexus between imaginative literature and geography in William Wordsworth s poetry and prose It shows that eighteenth century social and political interest groups contested spaces through maps geographical commentaries and travel literature and that by configuring utopian landscapes Wordsworth himself participated in major social and political controversies in post French Revolutionary England

Stages of European Romanticism Theodore Ziolkowski, 2018 Employs an innovative approach by stages to offer a unified vision of European Romanticism over the half century of its growth and decline Romanticism was a truly European phenomenon extending roughly from the French Revolution to the 1848 revolutions and embracing not only literature and drama but also music and visual arts Because of Romanticism s vast scope most treatments have restricted themselves to single countries or to specific forms notably literature art or music This book takes a wider view by considering in each of six chapters representative examples of works from across Europe and across a range of the arts that were created in a single year For instance in the first chapter focusing on the year 1798 Beethoven's Pathétique sonata Wordsworth and Coleridge's Lyrical Ballads Tieck's novel Franz Sternbald's Wanderungen and Goya's painting El sueño de la razón The following chapters treat works from the years 1808 1818 1828 1838 and 1848 This approach by stages makes it possible to determine characteristics of six stages of Romanticism in its historical and intellectual context and to note the conspicuous differences between these stages as European Romanticism developed for example the waxing and waning of religious themes the shifting visions of landscape the gradual ironic detachment from early Romanticism In sum the volume offers a unified vision of European Romanticism in all its aesthetic forms over the half century of its growth and decline Theodore Ziolkowski is Professor Emeritus of German and Comparative Literature Princeton University

New Perspectives on Contemporary German Science Fiction Lars Schmeink, Ingo Cornils, 2022-04-22 New Perspectives on Contemporary German Science Fiction demonstrates the variety and scope of German science fiction SF production in literature television and cinema The volume argues that speculative fictions and explorations of the fantastic provide a critical lens for studying the possibilities and limitations of paradigm shifts in society Lars Schmeink and Ingo Cornils bring together essays that study the renaissance of German SF in the twenty first century The volume makes clear that German SF is both global and local the genre is in balance between internationally dominant forms and adapting them to Germany's reality as it relates to migration the environment and human rights The essays explore a range of media literature cinema television and relevant political philosophical and cultural discourses

The Taming of Romanticism Virgil Nemoianu, 1984 Looking at a broad spectrum of writers English French German Italian Russian and other East Europeans Virgil Nemoianu offers here a coherent characterization of the period 1815 1848 This he calls the era of the domestication of romanticism The explosive visionary core of romanticism is seen to give way after the defeat of Napoleon to an expanded and softer version reflecting middle class values This later form of romanticism is characterized by moralizing efforts to reform society a sentimental yearning for the tranquility of home and hearth and persistent faith in the individual alongside a new skepticism shattered ideals and consequent irony Expanding the application of the term Biedermeier which has been useful in describing this period in German literature Nemoianu provides a new framework for understanding these years in a wider European context

New Perspectives on the Greek War of Independence Yianni Cartledge, Andrekos Varnava, 2022-11-23 This book marks the 200 year anniversary of uprisings in the Ottoman Balkans between February and March 1821 which became known in the West as the beginnings of the Greek War of Independence 1821 1832 and led to the formation of the modern Greek state It explores the war and its impact on societies involved by delving into the myths that surround it the realities that have often been ignored or suppressed and its lasting legacies on national identities and histories It also explores memory and commemoration in Greece in other countries impacted and the Greek diaspora This book offers a fresh perspective on this pivotal event in Greek Ottoman Balkan Mediterranean European and world histories It presents new research and reflections to connect the war to wider history and to understand its importance across the last 200 years European Encounters with the New World Anthony Pagden,1993 The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies Bernadette Flanagan,Kerri Clough,2024-09-03 The Routledge Handbook of Research Methods in Spirituality and Contemplative Studies provides the first authoritative overview of methodology in this growing field Against the background of the pandemic and other global challenges spirituality is expanding as an agreed term with which to discuss the efforts people make to be fully present to deeper invisible dimensions of their personal identity and external reality but until now there have been few resources exploring the different methodological approaches researchers take This book explores the primary methodologies emerging First Person Second Person and Third Person and provides a systematisation of spirituality research in applied contexts for the first time Comprising 33 chapters by a team of international contributors the book is divided into seven parts Foundations Approaches to Contemplative Research Contemplative Research in Education Contemplative Research in Work and Leadership Contemplative Research in Science Health and Healing Contemplative Research in Social Sciences Contemplative Research and the Way Forward The Handbook provides readers practitioners and policymakers with methods and approaches which can facilitate a spiritual and contemplative stance in research activities It is an essential resource for researchers and students of Religion Spirituality and Research Methods Children Born of War Sabine Lee,Heide Glaesmer,Barbara Stelzl-Marx,2021-07-28 This volume presents research from an international interdisciplinary and intersectoral research project in which 15 doctoral researchers explored a range of issues related to the life course experiences of children born of war in 20th century conflicts Children Born of War CBOW children fathered by foreign soldiers and born to local mothers during and after armed conflicts have long been neglected in the research of the social consequences of war Based on research projects completed under the auspices of the Horizon2020 funded international and interdisciplinary research and training network CHIBOW www.chibow.org this book examines the psychological and social impact of war on these children It focusses on three separate but interrelated themes firstly it explores methodological and ethical issues related to research with war affected populations in general and children born of war in particular Secondly it presents innovative historical research focussing specifically on geopolitical areas that have hitherto been unexplored and thirdly it addresses from a psychological and psychiatric perspective the challenges faced by children born of war in post conflict communities including stigmatisation discrimination within the significant context of identity formation when faced with contested memories of volatile post war experiences The book offers an insight into the social consequences of war for those children associated with the enemy by virtue of their direct biological link Authoring the Self Scott Hess,2005-01-01 Drawing upon historicist and cultural studies approaches to literature this book argues that the Romantic construction of the self emerged out of the growth of commercial print culture and the expansion and fragmentation of the reading public beginning in eighteenth century Britain Arguing for continuity between eighteenth century literature and the rise of Romanticism this groundbreaking book traces the influence of new print market conditions on the development of the Romantic poetic self An Introduction to Modern European Literature Martin Travers,1998 Each chapter concludes with a detailed chronology of the major literary texts of each movement covering fiction drama and poetry Cover Personality and Psychotherapy Jefferson A. Singer,2005-08-25 Showing how and why contemporary personality science matters in the clinical context this book offers eminently practical tools for psychotherapists from any disciplinary background and will also be of interest to personality and social psychologists It is an ideal text for advanced undergraduate courses and for graduate seminars taught within clinical training programs BOOK JACKET New Perspectives in Transatlantic Studies Heidi Slettedahl Macpherson,Will Kaufman,2002 Macpherson and Kaufman both of the U of Central Lancashire UK present 18 papers drawn from those presented at the eponymously named conference held at The Maastricht Center for Transatlantic Studies The Netherlands in October 2000 Chapters look at issues of race artistic exchanges economies and politics and philosophy Although transatlantic studies is frequently conflated with Anglo American relations these essays on historical and contemporary events focus more broadly on European American relations Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Inventions of the Imagination Richard T. Gray,Nicholas Halmi,Gary J. Handwerk,Michael A. Rosenthal,Klaus Vieweg,2011-10-17 The dialectic between reason and imagination forms a key element in Romantic and post Romantic philosophy science literature and art Inventions of the Imagination explores the diverse theories and assessments of this dialectic in essays by philosophers and literary and cultural critics By the end of the eighteenth century reason as the predominant human faculty had run its course and imagination emerged as another force whose contributions to human intellectual existence and productivity had to be newly calculated and constantly recalibrated The attempt to establish a universal form of reason alongside a plurality of imaginative capacities describes the ideological program of modernism from the end of the eighteenth century to the present day This collection chronicles some of the vicissitudes in the conceptualization and evaluation of the imagination across time and in various disciplines Romantic Prose Fiction Gerald Gillespie,Manfred Engel,Bernard Dieterle,2008-02-14 In this volume a team of three dozen international experts presents a fresh picture of literary prose fiction in the Romantic age seen from cross cultural and interdisciplinary perspectives The work treats the appearance of major themes in characteristically Romantic versions the power of Romantic discourse to reshape imaginative writing and a series of crucial reactions to the impact of Romanticism on cultural life down to the present both in Europe and in the New World Through its combination of chapters on thematic generic and discursive features Romantic Prose Fiction achieves a unique theoretical stance by considering the opinions of primary Romantics and their successors not as guiding truths by which to define the permanent meaning of Romanticism but as data of cultural history that shed important light on an evolving civilization SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less widely diffused language streams Romantic Drama traces creative innovations that deeply altered the understanding of genre at large fed popular imagination through vehicles like the opera and laid the foundations for a modernist theater of the absurd Romantic Poetry demonstrates deep patterns and a sharing of crucial themes of the revolutionary age which underlie the lyrical expression that flourished in so many languages and environments Nonfictional Romantic Prose assists us in coping with the vast array of writings from the personal and intimate sphere to modes of public discourse including Romanticism s own self commentary in theoretical statements on the arts society life the sciences and more Nor are the discursive dimensions of imaginative literature neglected in the closing volume Romantic Prose Fiction where the basic Romantic themes and story types the romance novel novella short story and other narrative forms are considered throughout Europe and the New World This enormous realm is seen not just in terms of Romantic theorizing but in the light of the impact of Romantic ideas and narration on later generations As an aid to readers the introduction to Romantic Prose Fiction explains the relationships among the volumes in the series and carries a listing of their tables of contents in an appendix No other series exists comparable to these volumes which treat the entirety of Romanticism as a cultural happening across the whole breadth of the Old and New Worlds and thus render a complex picture of European spiritual strivings in the late eighteenth and the nineteenth centuries a heritage still very close to our age

The Quest of the Absolute Louis Dupré, Louis K Dupr(c)e, 2013 Louis Dupr analyzes Romanticism as a unique cultural phenomenon and a spiritual revolution This study completes his trilogy on European culture during the modern epoch

The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism Paul Hamilton, 2016-01-14 TThe Oxford Handbook to European Romanticism brings together leading scholars in the field to examine the intellectual literary philosophical and political elements of European Romanticism The book focuses on the cultural history of the period extending from the French Revolution to the uprisings of 1848 It begins with a series of chapters examining key texts written by major writers in languages including French German Italian Spanish Russian Hungarian Greek and Polish amongst others A second section then explores the naturally inter disciplinary quality of Romanticism exemplified by the different discourses with which writers of the time set up an internal comparative dynamic These chapters highlight the sense a discourse gives of being written knowledgeably against other pretenders to completeness or comprehensiveness of self understanding of the time Discourses typically advance their own claims to resume European culture collaborating with and at the same time trying to assimilate each other in the process The main examples featured here are history geography drama theology language philosophy political theory the sciences and the media Each chapter offers an original and individual interpretation of an inherently comparative world of individual writers and the discursive idioms to which they are historically subject Together the forty one chapters provide a comprehensive and provocative overview of European Romanticism New Perspectives on Imagology ,2022-11-14 With this volume the editors Katharina Edtstadler Sandra Folie and Gianna Zocco propose an extension of the traditional conception of imagology as a theory and method for studying the cultural construction and literary representation of national usually European characters Consisting of an instructive introduction and 21 articles the book relates this sub field of comparative literature to contemporary political developments and enriches it with new interdisciplinary transnational intersectional and intermedial perspectives The contributions offer 1 a reconsideration and update of the field s methods genres and theoretical frames 2 trans post national migratory and marginalized perspectives beyond the European nation state 3 insights into geopolitical dichotomies such as Orient Occident 4 intersectional approaches considering the entanglements of national images with notions of age class gender sexuality and ethnicity race 5 investigations of the role of national images in visual narratives and music
