Donaldson,2011-04-14 From the first episode to the latest feature film two main symbols provide the driving force for the iconic television series The X Files Fox Mulder s I Want to Believe poster and Dana Scully s cross necklace Mulder s poster may feature a flying saucer but the phrase I want to believe refers to more than simply the quest for the truth about aliens The search for extraterrestrial life the truth that is out there is a metaphor for the search for God The desire to believe in something greater than ourselves is part of human nature we want to believe Scully s cross represents this desire to believe as well as the internal struggle between faith and what we can see and prove The X Files depicts this struggle by posing questions and exploring possible answers both natural and supernatural Why would God let the innocent suffer Can God forgive even the most heinous criminal What if God is giving us signs to point the way to the truth but we re not paying attention These are some of the questions raised by The X Files In the spirit of the show this book uses the symbols and images presented throughout the series to pose such questions and explore some of the answers particularly in the Christian tradition With a focus on key themes of the series faith hope love and truth along the way this book journeys from the desire to believe to the message of the cross

On Learning Science and Pseudoscience from Prime-Time Television Programming Christopher Henry Whittle,2003 The X-Files and Philosophy Robert Arp,2017-04-07 In The X Files and Philosophy thirty six fearless philosophers seek for the truth which is out there in here at least somewhere or as the postmodernists claim nowhere One big issue is whether the weird and unexplained happenings including the existence of entities unknown to traditional science might really exist And if they did what would be the proper way to behave towards them Some of these entities seem to flout conventional laws of nature but perhaps we need to allow for different as yet undiscovered laws If such fabulous entities really exist what do we owe them And if they don t exist why do we imagine they do In The X Files regular science is represented by Scully and usually turns out to be wrong while open minded credulity or pseudoscience is represented by Mulder and usually turns out to be right or at least somehow on the right track Scully demands objective repeatable evidence and she usually gets it with Mulder s help in astounding and unwelcome ways What lessons should we take from the finding of The X Files that respectable science is nearly always wrong and outrageous speculative imagination nearly always right
