Building Bodies Pamela L. Moore, 1997 Building Bodies is an exciting collection of articles that strive toward constructing theoretical models in which power, bodies, discourse, and subjectivity interact in a space we can call the built body, a dynamic, politicized, and biological site Contributors discuss the complex relationship between body building and masculinity, between the built body and the racialized body, representations of women body builders in print and in film, and homoeroticism in body building Linked by their focus on the sport and practice of body building, the authors in this volume challenge both the way their various disciplines—media studies, literary criticism, gender studies, film, and sociology—have gone about studying bodies and existing assumptions about the complex relationship between power, subjectivity, society, and flesh Body building in practice, in representation, and in the cultural imagination serves as a launching point because the sport and practice provide ready challenges to existing assumptions about the built body

Bearing Witness Carla Thompson, 2005 Out in Culture Corey K. Creekmur, Alexander Doty, 1995 Out in Culture charts some of the ways in which lesbians, gays, and queers have understood and negotiated the pleasures and affirmations as well as the disappointments of mass culture The essays collected here, combining critical and theoretical works from a cross section of academics, journalists, and artists, demonstrate a rich variety of gay and lesbian approaches to film, television, popular music, and fashion This wide-ranging anthology is the first to juxtapose pioneering work in gay and lesbian media criticism with recent essays in contemporary queer cultural studies Uniquely accessible, Out in Culture presents such popular writers as B. Ruby Rich, Essex Hemphill, and Michael Musto as well as influential critics such as Richard Dyer, Chris Straayer, and Julia Lesage on topics ranging from the queer careers of Agnes Moorehead and Pee Wee Herman to the cultural politics of gay drag, lesbian style, the visualization of AIDS, and the black snap queen experience Of particular interest are two dossiers: the first, linking essays on the queer content of Alfred Hitchcock's films; the second, on the production and reception of popular music within gay and lesbian communities The volume concludes with an extensive bibliography, the most comprehensive currently available of sources in gay, lesbian, and queer media criticism Out in Culture explores the distinctive and original ways in which gays, lesbians, and queers have experienced, appropriated, and resisted the images and artifacts of popular culture This eclectic anthology will be of interest to a broad audience of general readers and scholars interested in gay and lesbian issues, students of film, media, gender, and cultural studies, and those interested in the emerging field of queer theory Contributors: Sabrina Barton, Edith Becker, Rhona J. Berenstein, Nayland Blake, Michelle Citron, Danae Clark, Corey K. Creekmur, Alexander Doty, Richard Dyer, Heather Findlay, Jan Zita Grover, Essex Hemphill, John Hepworth, Jeffrey Hilbert, Lucretia Knapp, Bruce La Bruce, Al LaValley, Julia Lesage, Michael Moon, Michael Musto, B.
