Corporate Imaginations Mari Dumett, 2017-08-22 The first extended study of the renowned artists collective Fluxus Corporate Imaginations examines the group as it emerged on three continents from 1962 to 1978 in its complexities contradictions and historical specificity The collective s founder George Maciunas organized Fluxus like a multinational corporation simulating corporate organization and commodity flows yet it is equally significant that he imagined critical art practice in this way at that time For all its avant garde criticality Fluxus also ambivalently shared aspects of the rising corporate culture of the day In this book Mari Dumett addresses the business of Fluxus and explores the larger discursive issues of organization mediatization routinization automation commoditization and systematization that Fluxus artists both manipulated and exposed A study of six central figures in the group George Brecht Alison Knowles George Maciunas Nam June Paik Mieko Shiomi and Robert Watts reveals how they developed historically specific strategies of mimicking the capitalist system These artists appropriated tools occupied spaces revealed operations and ultimately performed the system itself via aesthetics of organization communication events branding routine and global mapping Through corporate imaginations Fluxus artists proposed strategies for living as conscious creative subjects within a totalizing and increasingly global system demonstrating how these strategies must be repeated in an ongoing negotiation of new relations of power and control between subject and system 2015 Günter Berghaus, 2015-07-01 The special issue of International Yearbook of Futurism Studies for 2015 will investigate the role of Futurism in the uvre of a number of Women artists and writers These include a number of women actively supporting Futurism e g R ena Z tkov Edyth von Haynau Olga Rozanova Eva K hn others periodically involved with the movement e g Valentine de Saint Point Aleksandra Ekster Mary Swanzy others again inspired only by certain aspects of the movement e g Natalia Goncharova Alice Bailly Giovanna Klien Several artists operated on the margins of a Futurist inspired aesthetics but they felt attracted to Futurism because of its support for women artists or because of its innovatory roles in the social and intellectual spheres Most of the artists covered in Volume 5 2015 are far from straightforward cases but exactly because of this they can offer genuinely new insights into a still largely under researched domain of twentieth century art and literature Guiding questions for these investigations are How did these women come into contact with Futurist ideas Was it first hand knowledge poems paintings manifestos etc or second hand knowledge usually newspaper reports or personal conversions with artists who had been in contact with Futurism How did the women respond to the positive or negative reports How did this show up in their uvre How did it influence their subsequent often non Futurist career Drapery Gen Doy, 2001-12-21 Gen Doy investigates the hitherto neglected meanings of drapery and the draped body in visual culture The baroque and the classical are her subjects as are Freud s Gravida Clerambault's writings and photographs of draped figures the fetishistic play between veiling and revealing and the meanings of drapery in recent art from Christo's wrapped Reichstag to the impact of the modern women's movement on fine art practice Yet she also finds and focuses on the draped body now in places like Algeria and Kosovo where drapery s connotations are no longer those of purity and civilized elegance but of barbarism poverty and savage death Mythologies in Design and Culture Rebecca Houze, 2016-05-19 Taking as its point of departure Roland Barthes classic series of essays Mythologies Rebecca Houze presents an exploration of signs and symbols in the visual landscape of postmodernity In nine chapters Houze considers a range of contemporary phenomena from the history of sustainability to the meaning of sports and children's building toys Among the ubiquitous global trademarks she examines are BP McDonald's and Nike What do these icons say to us today What political and ideological messages are hidden beneath their surfaces Taking the idea of myth in its broadest sense the individual case studies employ a variety of analytic methods derived from linguistics psychoanalysis anthropology sociology and art history In their eclecticism of approach they demonstrate the interdisciplinarity of design history and design studies Just as Barthes meditations on culture concentrated on his native France New Mythologies is rooted in the author's experience of living and teaching in the United States Houze's reflections encompass both contemporary American popular culture and the history of American industry with reference to such foundational figures as Thomas Jefferson and Walt Disney The collection provides a point of entry into today s complex postmodern or post postmodern world and suggests some ways of thinking about its meanings and the lessons we might learn from it Art in Consumer Culture Grace McQuilten, 2017-07-05 Written with beautiful clarity Art in Consumer Culture Mis Design asks the contemporary art world to be honest about the pervasive effects of commodification and the difficulty of staging critique The book examines the collusion of art and design in contemporary artistic practices in order to find avenues of critique in a commercially driven cultural landscape Grace McQuilten focuses on the work of Takashi Murakami Andrea Zittel Adam Kalkin and Vito Acconci four contemporary artists who claim to be working in the field of design rather than the traditional art world McQuilten argues that Zittel Acconci and Kalkin engage with design only to reactivate the critical practice of art in a more direct engagement with capital and conceives of and affirms a future for art outside of the art world as a parasite in the complex beast of late capitalism. This book is an important and timely provocation to a cynical and apathetic consumer culture and a call to arms for creative freedom and critical thought The Memory Factory Julie M. Johnson, 2012-05-15 The Memory Factory introduces an English speaking public to the significant women artists of Vienna at the turn of the twentieth century each chosen for her aesthetic innovations and participation in public exhibitions. These women played important public roles as exhibiting artists both individually and in collectives but this history has been silenced over time. Their stories show that the city of Vienna was contradictory and cosmopolitan despite men only policies in its main art institutions it offered a myriad of unexpected ways for women artists to forge successful public careers. Women artists came from the provinces Russia and Germany to participate in its vibrant art scene. However and especially because so many of the artists were Jewish their contributions were actively obscured beginning in the late 1930s. Many had to flee Austria losing their studios and lifework in the process. Some were killed in concentration camps. Along with the stories of individual women artists the author reconstructs the history of separate women artists associations and their exhibitions. Chapters covering the careers of Tina Blau Elena Luksch Makowsky Bronica Koller Helene Funke and Teresa Ries among others point to a more integrated and cosmopolitan art world than previously thought one where women became part of the avant garde accepted and even highlighted in major exhibitions at the Secession and with the Klimt group the CORD Outstanding Publication Award 2012 In postwar America any assertion of difference from the mainstream anticommunist culture carried professional and personal risks For this reason modern dance artists left much of what they thought unsaid Instead they expressed themselves in movement How To Do Things with Dance positions modern dance as a vital critical discourse and suggests that dances of the late 1940s and the 1950s can be seen as compelling agents of social change Concentrating on choreographers whose artistic work conceived dance in terms of action Rebekah I Kowal shows how specific choreographic projects demonstrated increasing awareness of the stage as a penetrable space one on which socially suspect or marginalized modes of being could be performed with relative impunity and exerted in the real world Artists covered include Martha Graham Jos Lim n Anna Sokolow Katherine Dunham Pearl Primus Merce Cunningham Paul Taylor Donald McKayle Talley Beatty and Anna Halprin Ebook Edition Note All images have been redacted The Modernity of English Art, 1914-30 David Peters Corbett, 1997 The modernity of English art reconceptualises the history of English painting from 1914 to the end of the 1920s Whereas most accounts have tended to see the period as marked by a tension between the native tradition and Modernism this ground breaking book rethinks the 1920s by situating both Modernist and non Modernist painters within a wider cultural history Established figures such as Paul Nash Edward Wadsworth and Wyndham Lewis as well as lesser known artists like Charles Sims John Armstrong and Ethelbert White are discussed and illustrated in a series of innovative readings within this context The modernity of English art offers a new account of painting in England after 1914 and argues for a strongly revisionist view of the significance of the modern during this important but neglected period in English art Primitivism, Cubism, Abstraction Charles Harrison, Francis Frascina, Professor Francis Frascina, Gillian Perry, 1993-01-01 On art in the early 20th century
