Realism, Rationalism, Surrealism - Art Between the Wars Briony Fer, David Batchelor, Paul Wood, 1993 The Social and the Real: Political Art of the 1930s in the Western Hemisphere, 2006 Universal Prostitution and Modernist Abstraction Jaleh Mansoor, 2025-04-18 In Universal Prostitution and Modernist Abstraction Jaleh Mansoor provides a counternarrative of modernism and abstraction and a reexamination of Marxist aesthetics Mansoor draws on Marx s concept of prostitution a conceptual device through which Marx allegorized modern labor to think about the confluences of generalized and gendered labor in modern art Analyzing works ranging from douard Manet's Olympia and Georges Seurat's The Models to contemporary work by Hito Steverl and Hannah Black she shows how avant garde artists can detect changing modes of production and capitalist and biopolitical processes of abstraction that assign identities to subjects in the interest of value s impersonal circulation She demonstrates that art and abstraction resist modes of production and subjugation at the level of process and form rather than through referential representation By studying gendered and generalized labor abstraction automation and the worker Mansoor shifts focus away from ideology superstructure and culture toward the ways art indexes crisis and transformation in the political economic base Ultimately she traces the outlines of a counterpraxis to capital while demonstrating how artworks give us a way to see through the abstractions of everyday life Photography and Surrealism David Bate, 2020-08-12 David Bate examines automatism and the photographic image the Surrealist passion for insanity ambivalent use of Orientalism use of Sadean philosophy and the effect of fascism of the Surrealists The book is illustrated with a wide range of surrealist photographs Realisms of the Avant-Garde Moritz Baßler, Benedikt Hjartarson, Ursula Frohne, David Ayers, Sascha Bru, 2020-09-21 The historical avant gardes defined themselves largely in terms of their relationship to various versions of realism At first glance modernism primarily seems to take a counter position against realism vet a closer investigation reveals that these relations are more complex This book is dedicated to the links between realism modernism and the avant garde in their international context from the late 19th century up to the present The New Art History Jonathan Harris, 2002-09-11 The New Art History provides a comprehensive introduction to the dav fundamental changes which have occurred in both the institutions and practice of art history over the last thirty years Jonathan Harris examines and accounts for the new approaches to the study of art which have been grouped loosely under the term the new art history He distinguishes between these and earlier forms of radical or critical analysis explores the influence of other disciplines and traditions on art history and relates art historical ideas and values to social change Structured around an examination of key texts by major contemporary critics including Tim Clarke Griselda Pollock Fred Orton Albert Boime Alan Wallach and Laura Mulvey each chapter discusses a key moment in the discipline of art history tracing the development and interaction of Marxist feminist and psychoanalytic critical theories Individual chapters include Capitalist Modernity the Nation State and Visual Representation Feminism Art and Art History Subjects Identities and Visual

Ideology Structures and Meanings in Art and Society The Representation of Sexuality The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunalı,Brian Winkenweder,2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure concept or historical epoch Increasingly scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony ideology and identity Ideological issues of connoisseurship patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin Guy Debord and T J Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio historical conditions that impact how art is produced circulated and received This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history visual studies visual sociology communication studies and the sociology of art

Christina Stead and the Matter of America Fiona Morrison, 2019-10-01 Although Christina Stead is best known for the mid century masterpiece set in Washington D C and Baltimore The Man Who Loved Children it was not her only work about the America Five of Christina Stead s mid career novels deal with the United States capturing and critiquing American life with characteristic sharpness and originality In this examination of Stead s American work Fiona Morrison explores Stead s profound engagement with American politics and culture and their influence on her restlessly experimental style Through the turbulent political and artistic debates of the 1930s the Second World War and the emergence of McCarthyism the matter of America provoked Stead to continue to create new ways of writing about politics gender and modernity This is the first critical study to focus on Stead s time in America and its influence on her writing Morrison argues compellingly that Stead s American novels reveal the work of the greatest political woman writer of the mid twentieth century and that Stead s account of American ideology and national identity remains extraordinarily prescient even today Modernism and the Spiritual in Russian Art Louise Hardiman, Nicola Kozicharow, 2017-11-13 In 1911 Vasily Kandinsky published the first edition of On the Spiritual in Art a landmark modernist treatise in which he sought to reframe the meaning of art and the true role of the artist For many artists of late Imperial Russia a culture deeply influenced by the regime s adoption of Byzantine Orthodoxy centuries before questions of religion and spirituality were of paramount importance As artists and the wider art community experimented with new ideas and interpretations at the dawn of the twentieth century their relationship with the spiritual broadly defined was inextricably linked to their roles as pioneers of modernism This diverse collection of essays introduces new and stimulating approaches to the ongoing debate as to how Russian artistic modernism engaged with questions of spirituality in the late nineteenth to mid twentieth centuries Ten chapters from emerging and established voices offer new perspectives on Kandinsky and other familiar names such as Kazimir Malevich Mikhail Larionov and Natalia Goncharova and introduce less well known figures such as the Georgian artists Ucha Japaridze and Lado Gudiashvili and the craftswoman and art promoter Aleksandra Pogosskaia Prefaced by a lively and informative introduction by Louise Hardiman and Nicola Kozicharow that sets these perspectives in their historical and critical context Modernism and the Spiritual in Russian Art New Perspectives enriches our understanding of the modernist period and breaks new ground in its re examination of the role of religion and spirituality in the visual arts in late Imperial Russia Of interest to historians and enthusiasts of Russian art culture and religion and those of international modernism and the avant garde it offers innovative readings of a history only partially explored revealing uncharted corners and challenging long held assumptions Art History: The Key Concepts Jonathan Harris, 2006-10-16 A comprehensive critical guide Art History The Key Concepts considers the full range of issues facing the field today drawing on related areas such as cultural theory and media studies Primitivism, Cubism, Abstraction Charles Harrison, Francis Frascina, Professor Francis Frascina, Gillian Perry, 1993-01-01 On art in the early 20th century Manifesto of Surrealism André Breton, 2016-12-30 Two Surrealist Manifestos were issued by the Surrealist movement in 1924 and 1929 They were both written by Andr Breton Andr Breton was explicit in his assertion that Surrealism was above all a revolutionary movement The first Surrealist manifesto was written by Breton and published in 1924 as a booklet Editions du Sagittaire The document defines Surrealism as Psychic automatism in its pure state by which one proposes to express verbally by means of the written word or in any other manner the actual functioning of thought Dictated by thought in the absence of any control exercised by reason exempt from any aesthetic or moral concern Surrealism is a cultural movement that began in the early 1920s and is best known for its visual artworks and writings The aim was to resolve the previously contradictory conditions of dream and reality Artists painted unnerving illogical scenes with photographic precision created strange creatures from everyday objects and developed painting techniques that allowed the unconscious to express itself Michael Lucero Mark Richard Leach, Barbara J. Bloemink, Lucy R. Lippard, 1996 Lucero s colorful imaginative sculptures and ceramics synthesize diverse forms and influences bottle trees and face jugs inspired by African art a hanging ram and blood red sacred hearts with roots in Mexico looming stick figures suggestive of Native American rock art delicate totem poles that evoke Pacific Northwest Indian cultures Hybrid animals found objects jug headed infants in baby carriages and dreamers who externalize the contents of their dreams in multilayered glazes animate the work of this California born artist now living in New York Cataloging a traveling exhibition that opened at the Mint Museum of Art Charlotte N C this volume reproduces 47 of Lucero s glazed ceramic bronze and mixed media creations in full page color plates Co curator Bloemink finds pervasive echoes of surrealism and Dada in Lucero s improvisations Art historian Lippard relates his themes of intercultural exchange to his family history his ancestors practicing Sephardic Jews escaped persecution in Spain by migrating to New Mexico Also included is an interview with Lucero by Leach the exhibit s curator 74 colour 58 b w illustrations Marcel Duchamp and the Architecture of Desire Penelope Haralambidou, 2017-03-02

While much has been written on Marcel Duchamp one of the twentieth century s most beguiling artists the subject of his flirtation with architecture seems to have been largely overlooked Yet in the carefully arranged plans and sections organising the blueprint of desire in the Large Glass his numerous pieces replicating architectural fragments and his involvement in designing exhibitions Duchamp s fascination with architectural design is clearly evident As his unconventional architectural influences Niceron Lequeu and Kiesler and diverse legacy Tschumi OMA Webb Diller Scofidio and Nicholson indicate Duchamp was not as much interested in built architecture as he was in the architecture of desire re constructing the imagination through drawing and testing the boundaries between reality and its aesthetic and philosophical possibilities Marcel Duchamp and the Architecture of Desire examines the link between architectural thinking and Duchamp s work By employing design drawing and making the tools of the architect Haralambidou performs an architectural analysis of Duchamp s final enigmatic work Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas demonstrating an innovative research methodology able to grasp meaning beyond textual analysis This novel reading of his ideas and methods adds to but also challenges other art historical interpretations Through three main themes allegory visuality and desire the book defines and theorises an alternative drawing practice positioned between art and architecture that predates and includes Duchamp

Extravagances Cristina Giorcelli, Paula Rabinowitz, 2015-12-01 This final volume in the four volume series Habits of Being shows how the dialectic between everyday appearance and outrageous acts is mediated through clothing and accessories It considers how clothing and accessories can move quickly from the ordinary to the extravagant Employing many different approaches these essays explore how wearing an object a crown a flower an earring a corsage a veil even a length of material can stray beyond the bounds of the body on which it is placed into the discrepant territory of flagrantly excessive public signs of love status honor prestige power desire and display The varied contributions of scholars historians ethnographers literary and film critics and artists photographers sculptors writers weavers and embroiderers take up the threads of these forays into history psyche and aesthetics in surprising and useful ways With examples from around the world contributors address how the simple action of ornamenting the body even with something as common as a button are open to elaborate interpretations which themselves offer new understandings of human behavior and artistic endeavor When our habits of being receive close scrutiny they seem anything but habitual Contributors Mariapia Bobbiobi Camilla Cattarulla U of Rome Three Paola Colaiacomo Sapienza U of Rome Maria Damon Pratt Institute of Art Joanne B Eicher U of Minnesota Maria Giulia Fabi U of Ferrara Margherita di Fazio Adeena Karasick Fordham U Tarrah Krajnak Pitzer College Charlotte Nekola William Paterson U Victoria R Pass Maryland Institute College of Art Amanda Salvioni U of Macerata Maria Anita Stefanelli U of Rome Three The Cambridge Introduction to Modernism Pericles Lewis, 2007-05-03 Publisher description Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals JenniferL. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun s Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun s most important published work Aveux non avenus Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenus This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenus not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun s work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era's artistic avant garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist s personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I Agnes Varda Between Film, Photography, and Art Rebecca J. DeRoo, 2018 Based on interviews with Agn's Varda and unparalleled access to her archives this extensively researched book demonstrates how Varda draws upon the histories of art photography and film to complicate the overt narratives in her works and to advance contemporary cultural politics Drapery Gen Doy,2001-12-21 Gen Doy investigates the hitherto neglected meanings of drapery and the draped body in visual culture The baroque and the classical are her subjects as are Freud's Gravida Clerambault's writings and photographs of draped figures the fetishistic play between veiling and revealing and the meanings of drapery in recent art from Christo's wrapped Reichstag to the impact of the modern women s movement on fine art practice Yet she also finds and focuses on the draped body now in places like Algeria and Kosovo where drapery s connotations are no longer those of purity and civilized elegance but of barbarism "Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924?939 " Linda poverty and savage death Steer, 2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La R lution surr iste edited by Andr reton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot s clinic at the Salp i hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper's last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s
