International Trade and Finance Peter B. Kenen,2008-07-10 The nine papers in this volume were written for a conference on research in international trade and finance held at Princeton University in March 1973 Each author was asked to survey research on one major topic with a view to answering three questions What have we learned from recent empirical research What are the major gaps in present knowledge How should we go about filling those gaps When answering the second question authors were urged to look at the practical requirements of those who must make policy concerning the international economy and at the opportunities and insights offered by recent developments in pure theory When answering the third they were urged to look at developments in econometric technique newly available data and work in progress in related fields

Evaluation in the Post-Truth World Mita Marra,Karol Olejniczak,Arne Paulson,2024-04-16 Evaluation in the Post Truth World explores the relationship between the nature of evaluative knowledge the increasing demand in decision making for evaluation and other forms of research evidence and the post truth phenomena of antiscience sentiments combined with illiberal tendencies of the present day Rather than offer a checklist on how to deal with post truth the experts found herein wish to raise awareness and reflection throughout policy circles on the factors that influence our assessment and policy related work in such a challenging environment Journeying alongside the editor and contributors readers benefit from three guiding questions to help identify specific challenges but tools to deal with such challenges How are policy problems conceptualized in the current political climate What is the relationship between expertise and decision making in today s political circumstances How complex has evaluation become as a social practice Evaluation in the Post Truth World will benefit evaluation practitioners at the program and project levels as well as policy analysts and scholars interested in applications of evaluation in the public policy domain Chapters 6 and 11 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Kicking Away the Ladder Ha-Joon Chang,2002 How did the rich countries really become rich In this provocative study Ha Joon Chang examines the great pressure on developing countries from the developed world to adopt certain good policies and good institutions seen today as necessary for economic development His conclusions are compelling and disturbing that developed countries are attempting to kick away the ladder with which they have climbed to the top thereby preventing developing countries from adopting policies and institutions that they themselves have used

International Integration, Market Structure and Prices Yves Bourdet,2024-11-01 Originally published in 1988 this study

focusses on international economic integration in relation to the passenger car industry and market in the West European car making countries Germany France Italy Sweden and the UK in the second half of the 20th Century when the revival of protectionism was a key feature of the international trading system The book illustrates the interaction between international integration market structure and firm conduct and the political sphere at the national as well as the supranational level Unlike previous analyses of international integration this book concentrates on a single industry over a significant period
