The Combover Adrián N. Bravi, 2016-06-13 A fierce formidable writer The Combover is a small masterpiece Alberto Manguel Arduino Gherarducci is the latest in the family line of bald men with ornate combovers Some combed their hair from one side of the head to the other some weaved the remnants of their hair together in the middle but Arduino favors the imperial style of Julius Caesar forwards with a fringe Although fiercely proud of his combover it has some serious drawbacks A sudden gust of wind or a malevolent prankster could ruin it at any moment When the worst happens Arduino decides to abandon his comfortable university life as a professor of bibliographic data exchange formats and he heads toward freedom Lapland But he only makes it as far as a mountaintop in Le Marche where he sets himself up as a hermit and his life takes an unexpected turn A hilariously dark tale The Combover confirms Bravi s unique and privileged status among Italian contemporary writers Adri n N Bravi was born in San Fernando Buenos Aires and lives in Italy He works as both a librarian and writer and he has published a number of successful novels in both Spanish and Italian He also contributes to various literary magazines and has co hosted Fahrenheit a popular Italian radio show With the skill of a spider Bravi weaves stories that appear translucent readers fall into them like flies finding that there is a fierce formidable writer at their center The Combover is a small masterpiece Alberto Manguel Bravi s book is quizzical in the best sense of the word its intrigue as a novel lies in its un decidability it is both light and grim Its sheer neuroticism and darkness are sometimes masked by its humour but if they are behind trees on your first read they will surely trail you out of it loop back snarl and stalk you brazenly in the second Num ro Cinq
