

The book cover features a photograph of three teenagers at a prom. A young man in a white tuxedo jacket and black bow tie is the central figure, looking directly at the camera with a slightly concerned expression. He is holding a small bouquet of flowers. To his right, another young man in a black tuxedo jacket and white bow tie stands with his arms crossed, looking off to the side. In the bottom left corner, a young woman with long brown hair is sitting at a table with a white tablecloth, resting her chin on her hand and looking towards the camera. A blue plastic cup is on the table in front of her. In the top left corner, a portion of a disco ball is visible. The background is dark and out of focus.

Criminal adventures. An unlikely romance.
A prom night you'll never forget.

 demands to distance queer youth culture from narratives of violence sadness and hurt that have haunted the queer imagination this volume considers how post 2000s YA literature and media negotiate their hopeful purview with a broader and ongoing history of queer oppression and violence It not only considers the tactics that authors use in bridging a supposedly bad queer past with a better queer present but also offers strategies on how readers can approach YA reparatively given the field's attachments to normative capitalist and neoliberal frameworks Central to Matos' argument are the use of historical hurt to spark healing and transformation the implementation of disruptive imagery and narrative structures to challenge normative understandings of time and feeling and the impact of intersectional thinking in reparative readings of queer youth texts The Reparative Impulse of Queer Young Adult Literature shows how YA cultural productions are akin to the broader queer imagination in their ability to move and affect audiences and how these texts encapsulate a
