Moonlit Path Jane Converse,1982 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1968 Dream Master Laura Hardy,1982 Dream Once More Edith St. George,1982 Tarnished Vows Sondra Stanford,1982 Game of Hearts Sara Logan,1982 Work in the Spirit Miroslav Volf,2001-04-27 Since the rise of modern industrial society work has come to pervade and rule the lives of men and women Although there have been many popular books and church documents on the Christian understanding of work this is the first scholarly effort to articulate a developed Protestant theology of work In Work in the Spirit Miroslav Volf interprets work from a new perspective in terms of the doctrine of the Holy Spirit He exhaustively explores the nature of work in both capitalist and socialist societies and considers a variety of work including industrial agricultural medical political and artistic work Examining the importance of alienation in work in industrial and information societies particularly in the relation of workers to management and technology he analyzes various forms of such alienation and elucidates the character of humane work On the basis of the pneumatological theology of work that he develops Volf rejects the traditional Protestant understanding of work as vocation and takes the concept of charisma as the cornerstone for his theological reflection on work He denies that one is called to do a particular work irrespective of one's inclinations and asserts instead that it is our privilege to do the kind of work for which God's spirit has gifted us All human work done in accordance with the will of God Volf argues is cooperation with God in the preservation and transformation of the world Magic Crescendo Maggi Charles,1982 The Spell of the Sensuous David Abram,1997-02-25 Winner of the International Lannan Literary Award for Nonfiction Animal tracks word magic the speech of stones the power of letters and the taste of the wind all figure prominently in this intellectual tour de force that returns us to our senses and to the sensuous terrain that sustains us This major work of ecological philosophy startles the senses out of habitual ways of perception For a thousand generations human beings viewed themselves as part of the wider community of nature and they carried on active relationships not only with other people with other animals plants and natural objects including mountains rivers winds and weather patterns that we have only lately come to think of as inanimate How then did humans come to sever their ancient reciprocity with the natural world What will it take for us to recover a sustaining relation with the breathing earth In The Spell of the Sensuous David Abram draws on sources as diverse as the philosophy of Merleau Ponty Balinese shamanism Apache storytelling and his own experience as an accomplished sleight of hand of magician to reveal the subtle dependence of human cognition on the natural environment He explores the character of perception and excavates the sensual foundations of language which even at its most abstract echoes the calls and cries of the earth On every page of this lyrical work Abram weaves his arguments with a passion a precision and an intellectual daring that recall such writers as Loren Eiseley Annie Dillard and Barry Lopez Whitaker's Cumulative Book List ,1985 The Posthuman Rosi Braidotti,2013-07-11 The Posthuman offers both an introduction and major contribution to contemporary debates on the

posthuman Digital second life genetically modified food advanced prosthetics robotics and reproductive technologies are familiar facets of our globally linked and technologically mediated societies This has blurred the traditional distinction between the human and its others exposing the non naturalistic structure of the human The Posthuman starts by exploring the extent to which a post humanist move displaces the traditional humanistic unity of the subject Rather than perceiving this situation as a loss of cognitive and moral self mastery Braidotti argues that the posthuman helps us make sense of our flexible and multiple identities Braidotti then analyzes the escalating effects of post anthropocentric thought which encompass not only other species but also the sustainability of our planet as a whole Because contemporary market economies profit from the control and commodification of all that lives they result in hybridization erasing categorical distinctions between the human and other species seeds plants animals and bacteria These dislocations induced by globalized cultures and economies enable a critique of anthropocentrism but how reliable are they as indicators of a sustainable future The Posthuman concludes by considering the implications of these shifts for the institutional practice of the humanities Braidotti outlines new forms of cosmopolitan neo humanism that emerge from the spectrum of post colonial and race studies as well as gender analysis and environmentalism The challenge of the posthuman condition consists in seizing the opportunities for new social bonding and community building while pursuing sustainability and empowerment
