

The book cover features a surreal illustration. In the foreground, a large, orange, textured object resembling a giant's foot or a giant's head is positioned as if about to step on or crush a car. The car, a dark-colored sedan, is shown from a front-three-quarter view, appearing small and vulnerable. Above the car, a large, bright orange sphere, similar to a basketball, floats in a blue sky filled with soft, white clouds. The overall composition suggests themes of power, vulnerability, and the unexpected.

Royally Rearranged Emma St Clair, 2021-09-25 There WILL be a royal wedding The only question who will be my groom An arranged marriage isn't the worst fate for a princess like me Especially because I've been in love with my intended groom since we were children But when my prince shows up with an American girlfriend instead of an engagement ring all arrangements are off The clock is nearing midnight I won't turn into a pumpkin but if I'm not wed by summer's end I'll forfeit my kingdom Just your typical royal dilemma Out of sheer desperation I make a deal with a devilish duke Rafe de Silva is the prince's rival and has a plan so ridiculous it just might work One moment Rafe seems to relish making the prince jealous And the next he's making me question everything with his words his touch and his ability to melt my Ice Princess persona I'm not always given the luxury of choice but now I have a huge one to make I only hope I don't lose my crown my heart or myself in the process Royally Rearranged is a sizzling swoony closed door romantic comedy

More Than Guided Reading Cathy Mere,2005 Is there too much emphasis on guided reading in primary classrooms It s a question that many educators like kindergarten teacher and literacy coach Cathy Mere are starting to ask Guided reading provides opportunities to teach students the strategies they need to learn how to read increasingly challenging texts but Cathy found that she needed to find other ways to help students gain independence While maintaining guided reading as an important piece of their reading program teachers need to offer students opportunities during the day to develop as readers to learn to choose books to find favorite genres and authors and to talk about their reading In More Than Guided Reading Cathy shares her journey as she moved from focusing on guided reading as the center of her reading program to placing children at the heart of literacy learning not only providing more time for students to discover their reading lives but also shaping instruction to meet the needs of the diverse learners in her classroom By changing the structure of the day Cathy found she was better able to adjust the support she was providing students allowing time for whole class focus lessons conferences and opportunities to share ideas as well as reading from self selected texts using the strategies skills and understandings acquired in reader s workshop The focus lesson is the centerpiece of the workshop It is often tied to a read aloud and connected to learning from the previous day helping to build skills extend thinking and develop independence over time This thoroughly practical text offers numerous sample lessons questions for conferences and ideas for revamping guided reading groups It will help teachers tweak the mix of instructional components in their reading workshops and provoke school wide conversations about the place of guided reading in a complete literacy curriculum

Spouse in the House Cynthia Ruchti, Becky Melby, 2021-09-21. A frank and funny look at what to do when together is too close. Two's company, especially for those who love each other. So what happens when, due to retirement, working from home, or even running a business together, spouses find that being in the same space all the time is awkward, complex, annoying, and just plain challenging? How can partners coexist without co-exhausting each other? Cynthia Ruchti and Becky Melby know all too well how adjusting to a new, all-the-time closeness can cause the bliss of marriage to form blisters. Drawing from their experiences and from men and women across the country in the same situation, the authors take a deep breath and dive into the root causes. They dig into the ways God's Word has to say and they offer practical tips for learning the spiritual, emotional, relational, and even physical steps that can help readers replace irritation with peace. For any Christian who wants their home to be a refuge of peace and serenity for all, not just themselves, and who wants to know they aren't alone in the mental and physical claustrophobia of too much togetherness, Spouse in the House is a vulnerable, charming, and pragmatic breath of hope.

Danse Macabre and Other Stories Halina Brunning, Olya Khaleelee, 2021-03-22. Danse Macabre and Other Stories: A Psychoanalytic Perspective on Global Dynamics examines the world using a systemic and psychoanalytic lens, including concepts of splitting, separation, projection, displacement, and the return of the repressed. They consider what impact the disappearance of some iconic and psychic containers has on individuals functioning and why we choose populist leaders to shore up our own social defences. They question why the world feels so threatening to the twenty-first century, linked in citizens when the objective facts suggest that overall, much is improving for the global citizen. Building on their previous work, Halina Brunning and Olya Khaleelee have created a coherent framework in order to conceptualise global dynamics within a matrix form. The matrix contains dialectic dynamic forces for both good and evil, love and hate, creation and destruction. They take a closer look at the plethora of phenomena which they see arising therein. Whilst the matrix holds steady inside, it is a world in constant flux, reconfiguring and rearranging itself as if in a kaleidoscope with inevitable and unavoidable turbulence, but Brunning and Khaleelee hypothesise with an underlying pattern that is available to be discerned and studied. Aware of this turbulence, Brunning and Khaleelee wish to share their view of the world in the hope of offering a containing reflection capable of calming the nerves of the readers as well as their
