Reason For Everything:

Everything Happens for a Reason? Paul P. Enns, 2012-05-25 Everyone struggles to find explanations for their suffering Dr Paul Enns answers several tough critical questions that all revolve around this central quandary of why Why does God allow suffering Is suffering the result of judgment for sin Are there even explanations for the terrors and trials we face Dr Enns brings answers from Scripture and from his experience as a professor and pastor and a wounded one at that More than anything he brings comfort and clarity to people who are desperate for it Everything Happens for a Reason and Other Lies I've Loved Kate Bowler, 2018-02-06 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A meditation on sense making when there s no sense to be made on letting go when we can t hold on and on being unafraid even when we re terrified LUCY KALANITHI Belongs on the shelf alongside other terrific books about this difficult subject like Paul Kalanithi s When Breath Becomes Air and Atul Gawande s Being Mortal BILL GATES NAMED ONE OF THE BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR BY REAL SIMPLE London born Kate Bowler a thirty five year old professor at the school of divinity at Duke had finally had a baby with her childhood sweetheart when she began to feel jabbing pains in her stomach She lost thirty pounds guzzled antacid and visited doctors for three months before she was finally diagnosed with Stage IV colon cancer As Kate navigates the aftermath of her diagnosis she pulls the reader into her life and her history affectionately filled with a colourful retinue of friends mega church preachers parents and doctors and shares her irreverent laser sharp reflections on faith friendship love and death She wonders why suffering makes her feel like a loser and explores the burden of positivity Trying to relish the time she still has with her son and husband she realizes she must cure her habit of skipping to the end and planning the next move An historian of the American Prosperity Gospel the creed of the megachurches that promises believers a cure for tragedy if they just want it badly enough Kate finds that she craves these same outrageous certainties Why is it so hard to surrender when she knows there are no spiritual guarantees In Everything Happens for Reason we encounter one of the talented courageous few who like Paul Kalanithi can articulate the grief we feel as we contemplate our own mortality A Three Dog Life Abigail Thomas, 2007-02-01 When Abigail Thomas s husband Rich was hit by a car his brain shattered Subject to rages terrors and hallucinations he must live the rest of his life in an institu tion He has no memory of what he did the hour the day the year before This tragedy is the ground on which Abigail had to build a new life How she built that life is a story of great courage and great change of moving to a small country town of a new family composed of three dogs knitting and friendship of facing down guilt and discovering gratitude It is also about her relationship with Rich a man who lives in the eternal present and the eerie poetry of his often uncanny perceptions This wise plainspoken beautiful book enacts the truth Abigail discovered in the five years since the acci dent You might not find meaning in disaster but you might with effort make something useful of it I Thought There Would Be Cake Katharine Welby-Roberts, 2017-08-17 EVER THOUGHT LIFE ISN T TURNING OUT QUITE AS YOU EXPECTED Growing up Katharine Welby Roberts imagined that being an adult was one big party But depression anxiety and crippling self doubt led her to alienate herself from others To replay events and encounters as nightmares Occasionally to be unable to leave the house Aware of the cacophony of voices in her head Katharine invites us to join her as she journeys to the depths of her soul Here with instinctive honesty and humour she confronts the parts of her story that hinder her most As she charts a course that offers ways of coping with everyday issues we are encouraged to embrace our own self worth To recognize the value of our existence To let ourselves be loved Exactly as we are With each chapter drawing on personal experience and featuring an original illustration the topics include taking responsibility the need to accept failure your crap my crap the boundaries between caring and taking on others worries and stresses what sort of special what it means to be unique in a sea of unique people comparisons the destructiveness of comparing ourselves to other people affirmation the healthy and unhealthy need inner conflict believing we can do anything nothing at all numbers the power of social media never chosen finding our value in who we are in each situation not in the people around us major crisis in a minor moment keeping things in proportion regret spending less time evaluating ourselves and more time just being ourselves Candid but powerfully reassuring the book reminds us that we are each made fearfully and wonderfully in the image of God our true source of confidence comfort and joy Brilliantly honest often funny and wonderfully readable Martin Saunders Youthscape Wholly authentic in the face of suffering and struggle Will van der Hart The Mind and Soul Foundation
