Connors, 2001 Principles of Catholic morality are presented with questions concerning everyday life A Pastoral Series that offers an in depth yet accessible understanding of the fundamentals of the Catholic faith for adults both those active in pastoral ministry and those preparing for ministry The series helps readers explore the Catholic tradition and apply what they have learned to their lives and ministry situations Includes study questions and suggestions for further reading Kingdom Ethics, 2nd ed. David P. Gushee, Glen H. Stassen, 2016 Comprehensive update of the leading Christian ethics textbook of the 21st century Ever since its original publication in 2003 Glen Stassen and David Gushee's Kingdom Ethics has offered students pastors and other readers an outstanding framework for Christian ethical thought one that is solidly rooted in Scripture especially Jesus's teachings in the Sermon on the Mount This substantially revised edition of Kingdom Ethics features enhanced and updated treatments of all major contemporary ethical issues David Gushee's revisions include updated data and examples a more global perspective more gender inclusive language a clearer focus on methodology discussion questions added The Foundations of Bioethics H. Gula, 1996 A review of the literature on ministerial ethics reveals scant reflection on it among Catholics So this book is a modest attempt to make a Catholic contribution to stimulate a conversation within the Catholic Church on professional ethics in pastoral ministry Just Ministry Richard M. Gula, 2010 At a time when concerns for misconduct abuse scandals and liability have brought pastoral ministers under greater scrutiny than ever before and have threatened to undermine their morale Just Ministry offers a positive perspective on the vocation of pastoral ministry and wise ethical guidance to foster integrity in ministry Christian Ethics Robin W. Lovin, 2010-03-01 In this excellent outline of Christian ethics Robin W. Lovin achieves a balance between the questions and issues which form the core of the study of ethics and the life situations from which those questions arise Eschewing a sectarian approach which dismisses other understandings of the moral life Lovin nonetheless lays claim to a specifically Christian understanding of ethics He begins with basic Christian convictions about the reality of God and human redemption and weaves these convictions into the fabric of moral concerns that are widely shared in contemporary society He takes note of the problems that arise when Christians try to act on or enforce their convictions in a pluralistic society and recognizes the variety of theological and moral beliefs that are held within the Christian community as well as in the wider society Christian Ethics and Moral Philosophy Craig A. Boyd, Don Thorsen, 2018-11-06 This introductory textbook presents Christian philosophical and theological approaches to ethics Combining their expertise in philosophy and theology the authors explain the beliefs values and practices of various Christian ethical viewpoints addressing biblical teachings as well as traditional ethical theories that contribute to informed moral decision making Each chapter begins with Words to Watch and includes a relevant case study on a vexing ethical issue such as caring for the environment human sexuality abortion capital punishment war and euthanasia End of chapter reflection questions illustrations and additional information tables are also included The Bible and Morality Catholic Church. Pontificia Commissio Biblica, 2008-01-01 For Christians Holy Scripture is not only a source of revelation on which to ground one's faith it is also an indispensable reference point for morality They are convinced that in the Bible they can find indications and norms of right behaviour to attain fullness of life This use of Scripture is not of course without its problems caused by the different times and circumstances in which people find themselves today compared with biblical times In 2002 the Pontifical Biblical Commission at the behest of the then President Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger set about to examine the problem of the relationship between the Bible and morality by posing itself the question what is the value and the significance of the inspired text for today's morality This document seeks then to explain the context for norms of morality encountered in Scripture and shows also that while there remain moral questions which cannot be fully answered from Scripture nevertheless Scripture does offer criteria which are helpful in finding solutions Primary Source Readings in Christian Morality Thaddeus Ostrowski, Robert J. Smith, 2008 Primary Source Readings in Christian Morality presents the living words of the Catholic Church and the wisdom of everyday people addressing the moral issues that impact our lives One goal of Primary Source Readings in Christian Morality is to help students realize the connection between behavior and character Additionally the hope is that students will uncover that the road to authentic happiness and joy involves working on their relationship with God Within this book you will find writings from Pope Benedict XVI The Second Vatican Council Richard Gula SS Pope Paul VI Ronald Rohlheiser Erich Maria Remarque Pope John Paul II The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops An Introduction to Moral Theology William E. May, 2003 Offers a clear complete and convincing examination and explanation of Catholic doctrine It presents not only what the Church teaches but also why it is obligated to do so and why its members are obligated to examine and to apply that teaching It offers the latest Catholic teaching on moral theology Reason Within the Bounds of Religion Nicholas Wolterstorff, 1984 Expanding on his 1976 study of the bearing of Christian faith on the practice of scholarship Wolterstorff has added a substantial new section on the role of faith in the decisions scholars make about their choice of subject matter Moral Discernment Richard M. Gula, 1997 What should I do How do I know that I am doing right In the midst of so many changes in church society and culture many of us are bewildered about what's right and about how to discover what we ought to do This useful and timely book will help adults who are trying to be critical about their faith and moral living to interpret how conscience works in making moral decisions First off Gula shows that conscience is not a law unto itself but must be formed in community by appealing to sources of moral wisdom Then he gives a fuller treatment of moral discernment pointing up three spheres of influence on the process of discernment social situational and personal The final section moves from the theoretical model of discernment to the practical application of providing moral guidance in the pastoral domain Each chapter begins and ends with some guide questions to focus reflection and to stimulate discussion

Introduction to Moral Theology (Catholic Moral Thought, Volume 1) Romanus Cessario, 2001 The present volume the first in the new Catholic Moral Thought series responds to the need for a new introduction to the basic and central elements of Catholic moral theology written in the light of Veritatis splendor

Sharing in Christ's Virtues Livio Melina, 2001 The encyclical Veritatis splendor The Splendor of Truth represents the first document of the magisterium devoted to the foundations of the Catholic moral life Though it was intended to confront a genuine crisis of moral disintegration and to offer positive directions for carrying out the work of renewing moral theology it was fiercely criticized by theologians who regarded it as a simplistic and repressive document Now several years after the publication of the encyclical Livio Melina offers an original contribution not only to the study of Veritatis splendor and the controversy surrounding it but also to the field of moral theology as a whole In Sharing in Christ's Virtues Melina proposes a blueprint for organizing moral theology one that is in harmony with the directions given in Veritatis splendor and one that likewise respects the requirements of both the theological and the scientific character of the discipline He describes it as a Christocentrism of the virtues which understands the moral life of Christians as a participation in the virtues of Christ by means of the grace of one's ecclesial incorporation in Christ Melina argues that the renewal of moral theology should result in first a search for a more integral and dynamic understanding of human action and second a theological re dimensioning of morality to better comprehend the synergy between human action and God's action The contents of the book are Part One Toward a Christocentrism of the Virtues Lines of Renewal 1 Between Crisis and Renewal The Cultural and Theological Context of Morality Today 2 An Ethics of the Good Life and of Virtue 3 An Ethics Founded on the Truth About the Good of the Person 4 A Morality of Faith The Salvific Relevance of Moral Action 5 A Christocentric Ethics of the Virtues Part Two Ecclesial Sense and Moral Life Perspectives and Developments 6 Ecclesial Dimensions of Moral Theology 7 The Call to Holiness in the Catechism of the Catholic Church The Morality and Spirituality of Life in Christ 8 Moral Conscience and Communion Toward a Response to the Challenge of Ethical Pluralism Livio Melina is professor of moral theology at the John Paul II Institute for Studies on Marriage and Family at the Lateran University in

Rome In addition to numerous articles he has written and coauthored several books including La conoscenza morale Linee di riflessione sul Commento di san Tommaso all Etica Nicomachea Morale tra crisi e rinnovamento Corso di bioetica Il Vangelo della vita Amor conjugal y vocacion a la santidad Domanda sul bene e domanda su Dio and Quale dimora per l agire Dimensioni ecclesologiche della morale Melina s thought provoking and powerful presentation of key themes in moral theology will be welcomed by English readers One comes away with an understanding and appreciation of the basis of Christian morality for the twenty first century The excellent bibliography lists authors from Aristotle to John Paul II many not well known in the English literature on moral theology Melina s work is timely Catholic Library World Christian Beliefs thoughtful perspective on humans capacity for moral behavior Kirkus Reviews A comprehensive introduction to religious skepticism Publishers Weekly In What It Means to Be Moral Why Religion Is Not Necessary for Living an Ethical Life Phil Zuckerman argues that morality does not come from God Rather it comes from us our brains our evolutionary past our ongoing cultural development our social experiences and our ability to reason reflect and be sensitive to the suffering of others By deconstructing religious arguments for God based morality and guiding readers through the premises and promises of secular morality Zuckerman argues that the major challenges facing the world today from global warming and growing inequality to religious support for unethical political policies to gun violence and terrorism are best approached from a nonreligious ethical framework In short we need to look to our fellow humans and within ourselves for moral progress and ethical action In this brilliant provocative and timely book Phil Zuckerman breaks down the myth that our morality comes from religion compellingly making the case that when it comes to the biggest challenges we face today a secular approach is the only truly moral one Ali A Rizvi author of The Atheist Muslim
