Me Rebecca Stead, 2009-07-14 Like A Wrinkle in Time Miranda's favorite book When You Reach Me far surpasses the usual whodunit or sci fi adventure to become an incandescent exploration of life death and the beauty of it all The Washington Post This Newbery Medal winner that has been called smart and mesmerizing The New York Times and superb The Wall Street Journal will appeal to readers of all types especially those who are looking for a thought provoking mystery with a mind blowing twist Shortly after a fall out with her best friend sixth grader Miranda starts receiving mysterious notes and she doesn't know what to do The notes tell her that she must write a letter a true story and that she can't share her mission with anyone It would be easy to ignore the strange messages except that whoever is leaving them has an uncanny ability to predict the future If that is the case then Miranda has a big problem because the notes tell her that someone is going to die and she might be too late to stop it Winner of the Boston Globe Horn Book Award for Fiction A New York Times Bestseller and Notable Book Five Starred Reviews A Junior Library Guild Selection A PARADE Best Kids Book of All Time A Kirkus Reviews Best Middle Grade Book of the Century Absorbing People Readers are likely to find themselves chewing over the details of this superb and intricate tale long afterward The Wall Street Journal Lovely and almost impossibly clever The Philadelphia Inquirer It's easy to imagine readers studying Miranda's story as many times as she's read L Engle's and spending hours pondering the provocative questions it raises Publishers Weekly Starred review Rebecca West Peter Wolfe, Verena Elsbeth Wolfer, 1971 The Dinner List Rebecca Serle, 2018-09-11 A Bustle Book Club Selection This poignant and romantic novel from the New York Times bestselling author of One Italian Summer and In Five Years answers the question If you could have dinner with any five people living or dead who would they be I have five words for Rebecca Serle's
The Dinner List wistful delicious romantic magical love Gabrielle Zevin New York Times Bestselling Author of The Storied Life of A J Fikry and Young Jane Young We've been waiting for an hour That's what Audrey says She states it with a little bit of an edge her words just bordering on cursive That's the thing I think first Not Audrey Hepburn is at my birthday dinner but Audrey Hepburn is annoyed At one point or another we've all been asked to name five people living or dead with whom we'd like to have dinner Why do we choose the people we do And what if that dinner was to actually happen These are the questions Rebecca Serle contends with in her utterly captivating novel The Dinner List a story imbued with the same delightful magical realism as One Day and the life changing romance of Me Before You When Sabrina arrives at her thirtieth birthday dinner she finds at the table not just her best friend but also three significant people from her past and well Audrey Hepburn As the appetizers are served wine poured and dinner table conversation begins it becomes clear that there's a reason these six people have been gathered together Sharp Michelle Dean, 2018-04-10 A deeply researched and uncommonly engrossing book profiling ten trailblazing literary women including Dorothy Parker and Joan Didion Paris Review In Sharp Michelle Dean explores the lives of ten women of vastly different backgrounds and points of view who all made a significant contribution to the cultural and intellectual history of America These women Dorothy Parker Rebecca West Hannah Arendt Mary McCarthy Susan Sontag Pauline Kael Joan Didion Nora Ephron Renata Adler and Janet Malcolm are united by what Dean calls sharpness the ability to cut to the quick with precision of thought and wit Sharp is a vibrant depiction of the intellectual beau monde of twentieth century New York where gossip filled parties gave out to literary slugging matches in the pages of the Partisan Review or the New York Review of Books It is also a passionate portrayal of how these women asserted themselves through their writing despite the extreme condescension of the male dominated cultural establishment Mixing biography literary criticism and cultural history Sharp is a celebration of this group of extraordinary women an engaging introduction to their works and a testament to how anyone who feels powerless can claim the mantle of writer and perhaps change the world

The Fountain Overflows Rebecca West, 2010-12-21 A talented eccentric London family tries to find their place in the world in this semiautobiographical novel by a New York Times bestselling author Papa Aubrey's wife and twin daughters Mary and Rose are piano prodigies his young son Richard Quin is a lively boy and his eldest daughter Cordelia is a beautiful and driven young woman with musical aspirations But the talented and eccentric Aubrey family rarely enjoys a moment of harmony as its members struggle to overcome the effects of their patriarch's spendthrift ways Now they must move so that their father a noted journalist can find stable employment Throughout it is the Aubreys hope that art will save them from the cacophony of a life sliding toward poverty In this eloquent and winning portrait West's compelling characters must uncover their true talent for kindness in order to thrive in the world that exists outside of their life as a family

The Sentinel Rebecca West, 2002 This volume presents text and commentary on an unknown novel by the suffragette Rebecca West which aims to shed light on the society and culture of the period and the emergence of the young Rebecca West as fiction writer and critic on the literary and political scene

River of Shadows Rebecca Solnit, 2004-03-02 A New York Times Notable Book Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Criticism The Mark Lynton History Prize and the Sally Hacker Prize for the History of Technology A panoramic vision of cultural change The New York Times Through the story of the pioneering photographer Eadweard Muybridge the author of Orwell's Roses explores what it was about California in the late 19th century that enabled it to become such a center of technological and cultural innovation The world as we know it today began in California in the late 1800s and Eadweard Muybridge had a lot to do with it This striking assertion is at the heart of Rebecca Solnit's new book which weaves together biography history and fascinating insights into art and technology to create a boldly original portrait of America on the threshold of modernity The story of Muybridge who in 1872 succeeded in capturing high speed motion photographically becomes a lens for a larger story about the acceleration and industrialization of everyday life Solnit shows how the peculiar freedoms and opportunities of post Civil War California led directly to the two industries Hollywood and Silicon Valley that have most powerfully defined contemporary society

Augustine and Literature Robert Peter Kennedy, Kim Paffenroth, John Doody, 2006-01-01 The influence of Christianity on literature has been great throughout history as has been the influence of the great Christian Augustine Augustine and Literature explores Augustine's influence on literature from the Middle Ages to the present day and discusses the implications of expressing Augustine's religious themes both in literature and in more directly theological works

Women in Europe between the Wars Angela Kimyongür, 2017-11-30 The central aim of this interdisciplinary book is to make visible the intentionality behind the forgetting of European women's contributions during the period between the two world wars in the context of politics culture and society It also seeks to record and analyse women's agency in the construction and reconstruction of Europe and its nation states after the First World War and thus to articulate ways in which the writing of women's history necessarily entails the rewriting of everyone's history By showing that the erasure of women's texts from literary and cultural history was not accidental but was ideologically motivated the essays explicitly and implicitly contribute to debates surrounding canon formation Other important topics are women's political activism during the period antifascism the contributions made by female journalists the politics of literary production genre women's relationship with and contributions to the avant garde women's professional lives and women's involvement in voluntary associations In bringing together the work of scholars whose fields of expertise are diverse but whose interests converge on the inter war period the volume invites readers to make connections and comparisons across the whole spectrum of women's political social and cultural activities throughout Europe

All the Single Ladies Rebecca Traister, 2016-10-11 Today only twenty percent of Americans are wed by age twenty nine compared to nearly sixty percent in 1960 The Population Reference Bureau calls it a dramatic reversal This book presents a portrait of contemporary American life and how we got here through the lens of the single American woman covering class race and sexual orientation and filled with anecdotes from contemporary and historical figures

Men Explain Things to Me Rebecca Solnit, 2014-04-14 The National Book Critics Circle Award winning author delivers a collection of essays that serve as the perfect antidote to mansplaining The Stranger In her comic scathing essay Men Explain Things to Me Rebecca Solnit took on what often goes wrong in conversations between men and women She wrote about men who wrongly assume they know things and wrongly assume women don't about why this arises and how this aspect of the gender wars works airing some of her own hilariously awful encounters She ends on a serious note because the ultimate problem is the silencing of women who have something to say including those saying things like He's trying to kill me This book features that now classic essay with six perfect complements including an examination of the great feminist writer Virginia Woolf's embrace of mystery of not knowing of doubt and ambiguity a highly original inquiry into marriage equality and a terrifying survey of the scope of contemporary violence against women In this series of personal but unsentimental essays Solnit gives succinct shorthand to a familiar female experience that before had gone unarticulated perhaps even unrecognized The New York Times Essential feminist reading The New Republic This slim book hums with power and wit Boston Globe Solnit tackles big themes of gender and power in these accessible essays Honest and full of wit this is an integral read that furthers the conversation on feminism and contemporary society San Francisco Chronicle Essential Marketplace Feminist frequently funny unflinchingly honest and often scathing in its conclusions Salon

Lexie the Word Wrangler Rebecca Van Slyke, 2017-04-04 This clever celebration of words and their meanings features a strong cowgirl who wrangles words alongside cattle Lexie is the best wrangler west of the Mississippi word wrangler that is She watches over baby letters while they grow into words and ties shorter words together into longer ones she herds words into sentences hitches sentences together and pens them all in to tell a story But lately something seems off at the ranch First the d goes missing from her bandana leaving her with a banana to tie around her neck and soon afterward every S T A R in the sky turns into R A T S There s no doubt about it there s a word rustler causing this ruckus and Lexie plans to track him down even if it means riding her horse through the sticky icing of a desert that s suddenly become a giant dessert This fantastic spin on cowboy stories populates Lexie s ranch with lively letters and words alongside the typical cattle and horses and stars a smart confident charismatic heroine Rebecca Van Slyke s creative silly wordplay pairs perfectly with Jessie Hartland s lively illustrations and there s even a glossary of helpful terms for up and coming word wranglers Uncommon Arrangements Katie Roiphe, 2008-05-20 Katie Roiphe s stimulating work has made her one of the most talked about cultural critics of her generation Now this bracing young writer delves deeply into one of the most layered of subjects marriage Drawn in part from the private memoirs personal correspondence and long forgotten journals of the British literary community from 1910 to the Second World War here are seven marriages la mode each rising to the challenge of intimate relations in more or less creative ways Jane Wells the wife of H G remained his rock despite his decade long relationship with Rebecca West among others Katherine Mansfield had an irresponsible childlike romance with her husband John Middleton Murry that collapsed under the strain of real life problems Vera Brittain and George Gordon Catlin spent years in a semidetached marriage he in America she in England Vanessa Bell maintained a complicated harmony with the painter Duncan Grant whom she loved and her husband Clive And her sister Virginia Woolf herself no stranger to marital particularities sustained a brilliant running commentary on the most intimate details of those around her Every chapter revolves around a crisis that occurred in each of these marriages as serious as life threatening illness or as seemingly innocuous as a slightly tipsy dinner table conversation and how it was resolved or not resolved In these portraits Roiphe brilliantly evokes what are as she says the fluctuations and shifts in attraction the mysteries of lasting affection the endurance and changes in love and the role of friendship in marriage The deeper mysteries at stake in all relationships A Year with Mama Earth Rebecca Grabill, 2019-09-10 In September Mama Earth sighs out the first autumn frost which crunches under children s feet Mama Earth looks after nature s plants and animals throughout the year singing lullabies to fat bears in the fall dressing evergreens in icicles in winter and waking up the crocuses in spring And in the summer Mama Earth sends warm sunbeams to her beloved children so they can play outside and enjoy the amazing world around them With enchanting text and radiant artwork A Year with Mama Earth offers a joyous celebration of nature s beauty and the changing seasons Speaking Faithfully Rebecca Wilson,Jim Naughton,2012-11-01 A down to earth guide that syncs theology with technology Today Sunday morning worship competes with youth soccer Starbucks Facebook and the allure of being spiritual but not religious To share the gospel in a world like this Christians need to reach beyond the boundaries of concrete and virtual communities to become evangelists That takes faith It also requires skill with public relations social media traditional print materials and other techniques to increase church visibility The authors both recognized experts and consultants walk readers through the theology of church communications and introduce steps to help us deliver clutter busting messages to reach our technologically sophisticated and faith challenged world A Train of Powder Rebecca West,2000 Written between 1946 and 1954 these accounts of four controversial trials explore the nature of crime and punishment innocence and guilt retribution and forgiveness Astonishing Francine Prose
