Historically artwork has played a powerful role in shaping settler colonial subjectivity and the political imagination of Westphalian sovereignty through the canonization of particular visual artworks aesthetic theories and art institutions methods of display 0Engaging directly with Indigenous contemporary artists this book makes the case that decolonial aesthetics is a form of knowledge production that calls attention to the foundational violence of settler colonialism in the formation of the world order of sovereign states Contemporary Indigenous artists projects that engage with the political violences of settler colonialism demonstrate how artwork can play a key role in decolonizing political imagination and academic knowledge production about territorial sovereignty and in Indigenous peoples reclamations of relationships with traditional lands and waterways 0This book contributes a transnational feminist intersectional analysis of artwork as a powerful force in world politics and argues that contemporary artwork is a site of knowledge production that provides vital insights for scholars of world politics The objective is to contribute to IR debates on aesthetics anarchy hierarchy in world ordering and structure agency as well as to contribute to public conversations on the politics of reconciliation between Indigenous peoples and non Indigenous settlers in global contexts Rebecca Belmore Ingeborg Marshall, Kristina Huneault, Jennifer Adese, 2018 This is a unique book It is not an exhibition catalogue nor is it an artist s book It is a sustained multi faceted exploration of a single work of art by Rebecca Belmore March 5 1819 In this extraordinary video installation Belmore looks back two centuries to revisit a devastating encounter in Beothuk territory in the central interior of the island of Newfoundland Page 9 The Art of Global Power Emily Merson, 2020-02-04 Artwork and popular cultures are crucial sites of contesting and transforming power relationships in world politics The contributors to this edited collection draw on their experiences across arts activist and academic communities to analyze how the global politics of colonialism capitalism and patriarchy are expressed and may be transformed through popular cultures and artistic labour Through their methodological treatment of artwork and popular cultures as material sites of generating aesthetic knowledge and embodying global power the authors foreground an analysis of global hierarchies and transformative empowerment through critically engaged political imagination and cultural projects By centralizing an intersectional analysis of the racialized gendered economic dimensions of the praxis of culture The Art of Global Power demonstrates how artwork and popular culture projects events and institutions are vital sites of transgressing the material conditions that produce and sustain unjust global power hierarchies This book intervenes in the international relations popular culture literature by problematizing the idea of a single homogenizing global popular culture and engaging with multiple popular cultures articulated from diverse global locations and worldviews To the international relations aesthetics literature this book contributes an intersectional analysis of aesthetics as an embodied process of knowledge production and action that takes place within global conditions of colonialism capitalism and patriarchy This book will be of interest to students researchers and practitioners of international relations and gender cultural and media studies Bodies of Water Astrida Neimanis,2017-01-26 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Water is the element that more than any other ties human beings in to the world around them from the oceans that surround us to the water that makes up most of our bodies Exploring the cultural and philosophical implications of this fact Bodies of Water develops an innovative new mode of posthuman feminist phenomenology that understands our bodies as being fundamentally part of the natural world and not separate from or privileged to it Building on the works by Luce Irigaray Maurice Merleau Ponty and Gilles Deleuze Astrida Neimanis's book is a landmark study that brings a new feminist perspective to bear on ideas of embodiment and ecological ethics in the posthuman critical moment Tom Burrows Ian Watson,Scott Watson,2019-04-23 Tom Burrows and the exhibition that preceded the book presents work by the artist from his early career to the present The book is a timely refocusing of attention on an artist who has made an immense contribution to the development of art in Vancouver not only as an artist but as an educator and activist as well Burrows first rose to prominence in the late 1960s and was included in several exhibitions at the UBC Fine Arts Library an institution that was seminal in encouraging Vancouver's growing and now vibrant art community In 1975 he received a United Nations commission to document squatters communities in Europe Africa and Asia a work that is now in the Belkin's collection Burrows work which demonstrates an interest in process and new materials has encompassed a number of disciplines including sculpture early performance art video painting and iconic hand built houses on the Maplewood Mudflats and Hornby Island Currently most well known for his innovative monochromatic cast polymer resin paintings sculptures produced during the last forty five years the book examines the full breadth of his career with works from the Belkin's permanent collection as the basis with other works from the artist collectors and public institutions Burrows has had solo exhibitions in London Rome Tokyo Berlin New York Edinburgh and across Canada His work is included in private corporate and public collections in Europe Asia and the Americas Desire Change Heather Davis,2021-08-15 Correcting an absence of writing about contemporary feminist work by Canadian artists Desire Change considers the resurgence of feminist art examining works that respond to themes of diversity and desire Historians artists and curators cover a range of artistic practices including performance installation video and photography Ravensong - a Novel Lee Maracle,2011-08 Set along the Pacific Northwest Coast in the 1950s Ravensong tells the story of an urban Native community devastated by an influenza epidemic Stacey a 17 year old Native girl struggles with the clash between white society's values and her family's traditional ways knowing that her future lies somewhere in between Celia her sister has visions from the past while Raven warns of an impending catastrophe before there is any reconciliation between the two cultures In this passionate story about a young woman's quest for answers author Lee Maracle speaks unflinchingly of the gulf between two cultures a gulf that Raven says must be bridged Ravensong is a moving drama that includes elements of prophecy mythology cultural critique and even humour Cover art by Columpa C Bobb      The Musical Brain César Aira, 2015 A collection of twenty short stories features tales about oddballs freaks and crazy people      Boarder X Jaimie Isaac, 2019      Creative Presence Emily Merson, 2020-09-11 This book contributes a transnational feminist intersectional analysis of artwork as a powerful force in world politics and argues that contemporary artwork is a site of knowledge production that provides vital insights for scholars of world politics      Desire Change Heather Davis, 2017-06-26 In the resistance to the violence of gender based oppression vibrant but often ignored worlds have emerged full of nuance humour and beauty Correcting an absence of writing about contemporary feminist work by Canadian artists Desire Change considers the resurgence of feminist art thought and practice in the past decade by examining artworks that respond to themes of diversity and desire Essays by historians artists and curators present an overview of a range of artistic practices including performance installation video textiles and photography Contributors address the desire for change through three central frames how feminist art has significantly contributed to the complex understanding of gender as it intersects with sexuality and race the necessary critique of patriarchy and institutions as they relate to colonization within the Canadian nation state and the ways in which contemporary critiques are formed and expressed Heavily illustrated with representative works Desire Change raises both the stakes and the concerns of contemporary feminist art with an understanding that feminism is always and necessarily plural      Performing Ground L. Levin, 2014-07-31 Performing Ground explores camouflage as a performance practice arguing that the act of blending into one's environment is central to the ways we negotiate our identities through space The book offers a critically rich investigation of how the performative practice of camouflage renders the politics of space power and gender in visible      Imagining Resistance J. Keri Cronin, Kirsty Robertson, 2011-09-23 Imagining Resistance Visual Culture and Activism in Canada offers two separate but interconnected strategies for reading alternative culture in Canada from the 1940s through to the present first a history of radical artistic practice in Canada and second a collection of eleven essays that focus on a range of institutions artists events and actions The history of radical practice is spread through the book in a series of short interventions ranging from the Refus global to anarchist inspired art and from Aboriginal curatorial interventions to culture jamming In each the historical record is mined to rewrite and reverse Canadian art history reworked here to illuminate the series of oppositional artistic endeavours that are often mentioned in discussions of Canadian art but rarely acknowledged as having an alternative history of their own Alongside authors consider case studies as diverse as the anti war work done by John Lennon and Yoko Ono in Montreal and Toronto recent exhibitions of activist art in Canadian institutions radical films performance art protests against the Olympics interventions into anti immigrant sentiment in Montreal and work by Iroquois photographer Jeff Thomas Taken together the writings in Imagining Resistance touch on the local the global the national and post national to imagine a very different landscape of cultural practice in Canada

Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing Danielle Taschereau Mamers, 2023-12-05 An innovative analysis of Indigenous strategies for overcoming the settler state How do bureaucratic documents create and reproduce a state's capacity to see What kinds of worlds do documents help create Further how might such documentary practices and settler colonial ways of seeing be refused Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing investigates how the Canadian state has used documents lists and databases to generate make visible and invisible Indigenous identity With an archive of legislative documents registration forms identity cards and reports Danielle Taschereau Mamers traces the political and media history of Indian status in Canada demonstrating how paperwork has been used by the state to materialize identity categories in the service of colonial governance Her analysis of bureaucratic artifacts is led by the interventions of Indigenous artists including Robert Houle Nadia Myre Cheryl L Hirondelle and Rebecca Belmore Bringing together media theories of documentation and the strategies of these artists Settler Colonial Ways of Seeing develops a method for identifying how bureaucratic documents mediate power relations as well as how those relations may be disobeyed and re imagined By integrating art led inquiry with media theory and settler colonial studies approaches Taschereau Mamers offers a political and media history of the documents that have reproduced Indian status More importantly she provides us with an innovative guide for using art as a method of theorizing decolonial political relations This is a crucial book for any reader interested in the intersection of state archives settler colonial studies and visual culture in the context of Canada's complex and violent relationship with Indigenous peoples

Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics Claire Raymond, 2017-04-21 Women Photographers and Feminist Aesthetics makes the case for a feminist aesthetics in photography by analysing key works of twenty two women photographers including cis and trans woman photographers Claire Raymond provides close readings of key photographs spanning the history of photography from nineteenth century Europe to twenty first century Africa and Asia She offers original interpretations of well known photographers such as Diane Arbus Sally Mann and Carrie Mae Weems analysing their work in relation to gender class and race The book also pays close attention to the way in which indigenous North Americans have been represented through photography and the ways in which contemporary Native American women photographers respond to this history Developing the argument that through aesthetic force emerges the truly political the book moves beyond polarization of the aesthetic and the cultural Instead photographic works are read for their subversive political and cultural force as it emerges through the aesthetics of the image This book is ideal for students of Photography Art History Art and Visual Culture and Gender

Western Voices in Canadian Art Patricia Bovey, 2023-02-03 The story of artists in Western Canada and how they changed the face of Canadian art Listen to the visual voices of artists They tell us so poignantly who we are what we must cherish and what we must address as a society Patricia Bovey Throughout her remarkable career as a gallery director curator and author Patricia Bovey has tirelessly championed the work of Western Canadian artists Western Voices in Canadian Art brings this lifelong passion to a crescendo delivering the most ambitious survey of Western Canadian art to date Beginning with the earliest European trained artists in Western Canada and moving up to present day Bovey amplifies the depth scope and importance of the diverse artists both settler and Indigenous whose distinct voices have contributed to the Western Canadian artistic tradition Bovey then adopts a thematic approach richly informed by her knowledge and experience connecting art and artists through time and across provincial boundaries Insights from Bovey s studio visits and conversations with artists enhance our understandings of the history and trajectory of and impetus for Canadian artistic creation Lavishly illustrated with over 250 works reproduced in full colour Western Voices in Canadian Art is a book that needs to be seen and its artists and art celebrated Trading on Art Sarah E.K.

Smith,2025-05-01 The 1989 Canada US Free Trade Agreement and 1994 North American Free Trade Agreement reinvented the concept of North America as a cohesive whole united by free trade But within the bold concept of continental unity lay a paradox While art was mobilized to frame the new narrative culture itself was explicitly excluded from the agreements that implemented this vision Trading on Art brings culture to the fore by examining how artworks exhibitions and museum programs from the 1980s to 2010 mediated North American free trade from government supported cultural diplomacy initiatives to activist art that confronted impending US hegemony Sarah E K Smith reveals how Canadian artists engaged with contested and reflected on free trade paying particular attention to the ways in which art was used to forge ties between Canada and Mexico and to circulate ideas about North American identity Her nuanced analysis convincingly makes the case for the centrality of art in conceptualizing continental unity Narratives Unfolding Martha Langford,2017-07-18

Somewhere between global and local the nation still lingers as a concept National art histories continue to be written some for the first time while innovative methods and practices redraw the boundaries of these imagined communities Narratives Unfolding considers the mobility of ideas transnationalism and entangled histories in essays that define new ways to see national art in ever changing nations Examining works that were designed to reclaim or rethink issues of territory and dispossession home and exile contributors to this volume demonstrate that the writing of national art histories is a vital project for intergenerational exchange of knowledge and its visual formations Essays showcase revealing moments of modern and contemporary art history in Canada Egypt Iceland India Ireland Israel Palestine Romania Scotland Turkey and the United Arab Emirates paying particular attention to the agency of institutions such as archives art galleries milestone exhibitions and artist retreats Old and emergent art cities including Cairo Dubai New York and Vancouver are also examined in light of avant gardism cosmopolitanism and migration Narratives Unfolding is both a survey of current art historical approaches and their connection to the source art making and art experience happening somewhere Making History Institute of American Indian Arts,2020-10-01 Making History The IAIA Museum of Contemporary Native Arts is a unique contribution to the fields of visual culture arts education and American Indian studies Written by scholars actively producing Native art resources this book guides readers students educators collectors and the public in how to learn about Indigenous cultures as visualized in our creative endeavors By highlighting the rich resources and history of the Institute of American Indian Arts the only tribal college in the nation devoted to the arts whose collections reflect the full tribal diversity of Turtle Island these essays present a best practices approach to understanding Indigenous art from a Native centric point of view Topics include biography pedagogy philosophy poetry coding arts critique curation and writing about Indigenous art Featuring two original poems ten essays authored by senior scholars in the field of Indigenous art nearly two hundred works of art and twenty four archival photographs from the IAIA s nearly sixty year history Making History offers an opportunity to engage the contemporary Native Arts movement
