Rebecca Salter Jill George Gallery (London),1996 Japanese Popular Prints Rebecca Salter,2006-06-30 In the West Japanese woodblock printing tends to be associated with the ukiyo e tradition and the familiar portrayals of kabuki actors or courtesan beauties These well known images were produced by a publisher and artist using the extraordinary skills of carvers and printers whose identities are rarely known The same craftsmen also produced woodblock printed objects for use in everyday life such as decorative paper chiyogami votive slips senjafuda playing cards karuta and board games sugoroku As the market changed in the late nineteenth century the craftsmen increasingly turned to the production of these low value essentially ephemeral objects Although the prices were kept low many were imbued with the same glorious visual sophistication that had attracted Westerners to ukiyo e Approaching the subject as an artist rather than a print scholar Rebecca Salter focuses on the craftsmen and the complex visual culture within which they worked Through information gained from interviews with some of the remaining practitioners and analysis of the objects themselves she builds up a picture of the quiet role woodblock played in the lives of the Japanese as they moved from the isolation of the Edo period to embrace modernization in the early twentieth century This book is a fascinating exploration of this area of cultural history and the numerous color illustrations encourage a playful investigation of the many threads of Japan's visual culture Rebecca Salter is a well known British printmaker She lived in Japan for six years and is an acknowledged authority on Japanese woodblock printing She is the author of Japanese Woodblock Printing Rebecca Salter Rebecca Salter,Anna Moszynska,Jill George Gallery,2000 Rebecca Salter Rebecca Salter,1996-01-01 Japanese Woodblock Printing Rebecca Salter,2001 Of all the traditional arts and crafts of Japan woodblock prints are probably the most widely known in the West This work highlights the history of the Japanese woodblock discusses the materials tools and papers available and shows how to use them in step by step projects Rebecca Salter Rebecca Salter,1998 Rebecca Salter Rebecca Salter,Andrew Lambirth,Howard Scott M-13 Gallery,1999 Rebecca Salter Andrew Lambirth,M-13, Howard Scott Gallery (N.Y.),1999 Rebecca Salter Rebecca Salter,2011 Published to accompany an exhibition held at the Yale Center for British Art New Haven Conn Feb 3 May 1 2011 Late Constable Hb ,2021-11-15 On John Constable as a proto abstractionist of pastoral landscape One of Britain's greatest landscape painters John Constable was brought up in Dedham Vale the valley of the River Stour in Suffolk The eldest son of a wealthy mill owner he entered the Royal Academy Schools in 1800 at the age of 24 and thereafter committed himself to painting nature out of doors His six footers such as The Hay Wain and The Leaping Horse were designed to promote landscape as a subject and to stand out in the Academy's Annual Exhibition Despite this he sold few paintings in his lifetime and was elected a Royal Academician late in his career With texts by leading authorities on the artist this handsome book looks at the freedom of Constable's late works and records his enormous contribution to the English landscape tradition John Constable 1776 1837 is one of Britain's best known artists and is often considered one of the greatest landscape painters of all time He was born near the River Stour in Suffolk an area the artist depicted so frequently that it is referred to as Constable country Pastoral scenes were unfashionable at the time and Constable struggled to establish himself as a painter He was finally elected a Royal Academician in 1829 and in 1832 he exhibited The Opening of Waterloo Bridge an effort 13 years in the making at the Summer Exhibition Kate Kelly Rebecca Wilson,2021-02-16 Kate Kelly has always been overshadowed by her famous brother Ned but the talented young woman was a popular public figure in her own right This moving biography tells her astonishing story in full for the first time Kate Kelly the daring sister of legendary bushranger Ned Kelly was mysteriously found dead in a lagoon outside the NSW town of Forbes in 1898 At the inquest Kate s husband Bricky Foster claimed that she was addicted to drink and frequently spoke of suicide However a neighbour testified that she had only known Kate to drink since the recent birth of her baby and that she never spoke of suicide Was it suicide accident or murder and why had she changed her name to Ada While only a teenager Kate rode as a messenger and decoy for the Kelly Gang and was present at the gruesome Glenrowan siege After Ned s execution she appeared at public gatherings around Australia Huge crowds came to see her talk and ride and she helped to popularise the Ned Kelly story as a celebrity in her own right Then she disappeared from the public eye Rebecca Wilson is the first to uncover the full story of Kate Kelly s tumultuous life It will surprise anyone who thought they already knew the story of Australia s most famous outlaw Rarely told in full this is the fascinating life of one of the great characters in one of our greatest stories Paul Terry author of The True Story of Ned Kelly s Last Stand Thoroughly recommended not only to those who have an interest in bushranging and the Kelly dynasty but anyone who enjoys a well written and riveting yarn based on fact Rob Willis OAM National Library of Australia Oral History and Folklore Collections Fine Art and Perceptual Neuroscience Paul Hackett,2014-01-10 Over the past decade the integration of psychology and fine art has sparked growing academic interest among researchers of these disciplines The author both a psychologist and artist offers up a unique merger and perspective of these fields Through the production of fine art which is directly informed by neuroscientific and optical processes this volume aims to fill a gap in the literature and understanding of the creation and perception of the grid image created as a work of art The grid image is employed for reasons discussed in the text to illustrate more general processes associated with the integration of vision visual distortion and painting Existing at the intersection of perceptual neuroscience psychology fine art and art history this volume concerns the act of painting and the process of looking More specifically the book examines vision and the effects of visual impairment and how these can be interpreted through painting within a theoretical framework of visual neuroscience Anthony Whishaw ,2016-07-19 The subjects and styles of Anthony Whishaw RA s creations span a truly exceptional range He paints in concurrent series which sometimes overlap to form unexpected hybrids His paintings vary in scale from only 20 cm to nearly 7 metres in length and a similar breadth of scope also exists within his subject matter which examines both macro and microcosms from the depths of space to electrochemical activity in
