Rebecca West A Life:

Rebecca West Carl Edmund Rollyson, 1996 H G Wells Lord Beaverbrook and Charlie Chaplin were among the notable lovers attracted by Rebecca West's fame, beauty and wit. This authorized biography explores the life of the novelist, critic, biographer and travel writer whose writing left an indelible mark on 20th century British letters and whose razor wit and notorious love affairs have made her life almost as legendary as her work of photos. The Extraordinary Life of Rebecca West Lorna Gibb, 2014-05-13 Rebecca West was a leading figure in the twentieth century literary scene. A passionate suffragist, socialist, fiercely intelligent, Rebecca West began her career as a writer with articles in The Freewoman and The Clarion. Her first book, a biography of Henry James, was published when she was only twenty-four, and her first novel followed just two years later. She had a notorious affair with H G Wells, and their illegitimate son Anthony was born at the beginning of the First World War. The author of several novels, she is perhaps best remembered for her classic account of pre-war Yugoslavia, Black Lamb Grey Falcon, published by Macmillan in 1941, and as relevant today as it was sixty years ago, and for her coverage of the Nuremberg Trials. When she died in 1983 at the age of 90, William Shawn, then editor in chief of the New Yorker, said Rebecca West was one of the giants and will have a lasting place in English literature. No one in this century wrote more dazzling prose or had more wit or looked at the intricacies of human character and the ways of the world more intelligently. Formidably talented, West was a towering figure in the British literary landscape. Lorna Gibb's vivid and insightful biography affords a dazzling insight into her life and work. Happy Starts at Home Rebecca West, 2020-02-18 Use your home as a tool to make better changes happen in your life. Through aligning your heart, home and health, experience first-hand how small changes make a big difference. What does it take to be happy at home? It's not about buying or not buying a new sofa. It's about whether your home is working for you in the best way. Your home can directly improve your well-being and contentment with better health, sleep and relationships, and ultimately decrease your stress levels to increase your all-round happiness. Design expert Rebecca West helps you to learn how to achieve a geographical cure without actually relocating, and how to redecorate so you can feel best in your space. Along with beautiful photographs, there are a variety of self-assessment activities to connect your financial, emotional and physical health to your space to ensure it nurtures your vision, and while doing so, investing your time and money more effectively too. With the valuable advice in Happy Starts at Home, you can commit to a philosophy of buying fewer things and doing more to discover what's holding you back in order to find joy and create a home that makes you smile. Rebecca West Victoria Glendinning, 2012 Celebrated novelist, acerbic critic and journalist, without peer, friend and lover of the great and gifted social and sexual rebel, observer of modern history's turning points, Rebecca West led one of the great lives of the twentieth century. In this first full-scale biography of Rebecca West, the widely admired biographer Victoria Glendinning captures that life in all its disturbing brilliance and haunting pain. West's World Lorna Gibb, 2014-02-27 Born Cicely Fairfield in 1892 as a young woman and a budding actress, Rebecca
