Dickinson,2013-12-12 It is not uncommon for a Christian to want to accomplish great things for God And so in our zeal and passion for him we set out to do just that While there is certainly nothing wrong with such a mission many Christians are faulty in the way to go about it Too many set out with a zeal to accomplish something great for God without first submitting themselves to be the type of vessel through which God can do something great There is a great difference in wanting to be used and wanting to be usable One relies on self talent title personal strengths The other relies on Almighty God And as talented as a person may be his or her gifts pale in comparison to the power of God and what he could do through them if they would only submit to him and his ways The world needs more people through whom God can pour himself Churches need men and women who are willing to trust in God and be greatly used of him Homes need fathers and mothers who rely more heavily on the power of God to sustain them than they do their own muster Our generation needs people who will wait on God to make them usable before setting out to accomplish greatness in their own strength Rebel Pride Andre and London together Of the communes the missions the friendships and the relationships And of course my enduring faith in Jesus in the Prophet cult leader David Berg and in the inevitability of the coming end times which I fully believed would arrive But beyond the brainwashing and mistreatment is the extraordinary story of my family and the adventures of my early life which help me understand what happened and why so it doesn't happen to others The spirit of that defiant girl who escaped is still in there somewhere and through telling my story I wish to look into the eyes of evil with its many faces so I can send it on its way

The Measure of Katie Calloway Serena Miller, 2011-10 A determined young woman with a secret past hires on as a cook in an 1870s Northwoods lumber camp

Rebels in a Rotten State Kieran Mitton, 2015-01-10 The atrocities of civil wars present us with many difficult questions How do seemingly ordinary individuals come to commit such extraordinary acts of cruelty often against unarmed civilians Can we ever truly understand such acts of evil Based on a wealth of original interviews with perpetrators of violence in Sierra Leone's civil war this book provides a detailed response Moving beyond the rigid bounds of political science the author engages with sociology psychology and social psychology to provide a comprehensive picture of the complex individual motives behind seemingly senseless violence in Sierra Leone's war Highlighting the inadequacy of current explanations that centre on the anarchic nature of brutality or conversely its calculated rationality this book sheds light on the critical but hitherto neglected role played by the emotions of shame and disgust Drawing on first hand accounts of strategies employed by Sierra Leone's rebel commanders it documents the manner in which rebel recruits were systematically brutalised and came to perform horrifying acts of cruelty as routine In so doing it offers fresh insight into the causes of extreme violence that holds relevance beyond Sierra Leone to the atrocities of contemporary civil wars
