Lenguaje, arte y revoluciones ayer y hoy Alejandro Cortazar,Rafael Orozco,2011-05-25 This book depicts new paradigms in Hispanic linguistic literary and cultural studies Part I Literary and Cultural Studies includes eight essays focusing on a new trend of cultural representation attempting to find new meanings They explore a series of reflections on some of those moments from the period that begins with the cry for independence in 1810 and that spans beyond 2010 textually translated as new approaches of analysis on the recollections of things to come The contexts examined evince critical occurrences related to periods of change toward democracy and social justice that eventually lead to revolutionary or emancipating ends by way of artistic textual manifestations Part II Linguistic and Cultural Studies contains nine articles representative of the most current ground breaking research on Hispanic linguistics It focuses on important linguistic and cultural issues pertaining geographically to various corners of the Hispanic world spanning from central Florida and New York City to Bolivia and on to the Prince Islands in Turkey The issues explored include the sociolinguistic and cultural identity of Puerto Ricans in the United States the pragmatics of humor in Mexican film the effects of language evolution on modern Spanish and the acquisition of Spanish by English speakers Photographing the Mexican Revolution John Mraz,2012-05-02 The Mexican Revolution of 1910 1920 is among the world's most visually documented revolutions Coinciding with the birth of filmmaking and the increased mobility offered by the reflex camera it received extraordinary coverage by photographers and cineastes commercial and amateur national and international Many images of the Revolution remain iconic to this day Francisco Villa galloping toward the camera Villa lolling in the presidential chair next to Emiliano Zapata and Zapata standing stolidly in charro raiment with a carbine in one hand and the other hand on a sword to mention only a few But the identities of those who created the thousands of extant images of the Mexican Revolution and what their purposes were remain a huge puzzle because photographers constantly plagiarized each other's images In this pathfinding book acclaimed photography historian John Mraz carries out a monumental analysis of photographs produced during the Mexican Revolution focusing primarily on those made by Mexicans in order to discover who took the images and why to what ends with what intentions and for whom He explores how photographers expressed their commitments visually what aesthetic strategies they employed and which identifications and identities they forged Mraz demonstrates that contrary to the myth that Agustín Víctor Casasola was the photographer of the Revolution there were many who covered the long civil war including women He shows that specific photographers can even be linked to the contending forces and reveals a pattern of commitment that has been little commented upon in previous studies and completely unexplored in the photography of other revolutions Logic in Question Jean-Yves Béziau,Jean-Pierre Desclés,Amirouche Moktefi,Anca Christine Pascu,2023-01-11 This contributed volume collects papers related to the Logic in Question workshop which has taken place annually at Sorbonne University in Paris since 2011 Each year the workshop brings together historians philosophers mathematicians linguists and computer
