Rebellious Women The New Generation Of Female African Novelists:

Rebellious Women Odile Marie Cazenave, 2000 This text reflects on writings by Francophone African women as it shifted from literature of testimony and complaint to one of power It examines the mechanisms of rebellion by the authors who reject defeatist visions of postcolonial Africa stricken with burdens and propose an alternative vision Afrique Sur Seine Odile Cazenave, 2006-09-01 Afrique sur Seine addresses the development since the 1950s of a new type of Francophone African novel created by first generation black African authors living in France Drawing parallels with other literatures like the beur and Antillean novels Odile Cazenave examines how these authors men and women are parting from mainstream African literature by exploring more personal avenues while retaining a shared interest in the community of African emigrants Cazenave deftly shows us how these writers maneuver between two cultures languages and spheres of being and how they struggle to appeal to their French audience without being untrue to the complex history and reality they portray Cazenave further discusses the stereotyping often promoted by French publishing houses to sell African authored texts and its impact At a time when immigration is an important issue in France and when post colonial identity and culture is the object of still increasing interest and attention Afrique sur Seine guides us through writing that surprises with its fresh insights into multiculturalism and integration African Women Writing Resistance Jennifer Browdy de Hernandez, Pauline

Dongala, Omotayo Jolaosho, Anne Serafin, 2010-08-19 African Women Writing Resistance is the first transnational anthology to focus on women's strategies of resistance to the challenges they face in Africa today The anthology brings together personal narratives testimony interviews short stories poetry performance scripts folktales and lyrics Thematically organized it presents women's writing on such issues as intertribal and interethnic conflicts the degradation of the environment polygamy domestic abuse the controversial traditional practice of female genital cutting Sharia law intergenerational tensions and emigration and exile Contributors include internationally recognized authors and activists such as Wangari Maathai and Nawal El Saadawi as well as a host of vibrant new voices from all over the African continent and from the African diaspora Interdisciplinary in scope this collection provides an excellent introduction to contemporary African women's literature and highlights social issues that are particular to Africa but are also of worldwide concern It is an essential reference for students of African studies world literature anthropology cultural studies postcolonial studies and women's studies A Choice Outstanding Academic Book Outstanding Book selected by the Public Library Association Best Books for High Schools Best Books for Special Interests and Best Books for Professional Use selected by the American Association of School Libraries

Writing from the Hearth Mildred P. Mortimer, 2007-01-01 Writing from the Hearth probes the relationship of gender to space in close readings of texts of Francophone women writers of Africa Aoua K ita Mariama B Calixthe Beyala and Aminata Sow Fall and the Caribbean Marie Chauvet Simon Schwarz Bart Maryse Condé and Edwidge Danticat It explores the hypothesis that the female protagonist moves toward empowerment by appropriating public space and transforming domestic space into alternative space New Directions in African Literature Ernest Emenyonu, Patricia Thornton Emenyonu, F. D. Imbuga, 2006 Contributors to this volume ask what are the new directions of African literature What should be the major concerns of writers critics and teachers in the twenty first century What are the accomplishments and legacies What gaps remain to be filled and what challenges are there to be addressed by publishers and the book industry What are the implications for pedagogy in the new technological era ERNEST EMENYONU is Professor of the Department of Africana Studies University of Michigan Flint North America Africa World Press Nigeria HEBN The Abandoned Baobab Ken Bugul, 2008 Despite its unflinching look at our darkest impulses and at the stark facts of being a colonized African the book is ultimately inspirational for it exposes us to a remarkable sensibility and a hard won understanding of one's place in the world CARAF Books Caribbean and African Literature Translated from French Women Writers of Gabon Cheryl Toman, 2016-10-07 This book demonstrates how the invisibility of women in Gabon has led to the omission of Gabon's literature from the African canon and discusses the unique elements of Gabonese women's writing that show it is worthy of critical recognition Toman explores the unique contributions Gabonese women writers have made to literature by exploring the works of major voices in Gabonese women's writing and provides a brief introduction to the younger generation of Gabonese women writers African Novels in the Classroom Margaret Jean Hay, 2000 Many teachers of African studies have found novels to be effective assignments in courses In this guide teachers describe their favourite African novels drawn from all over the continent and share their experiences of using them in the classroom Odious Caribbean Women and the Palpable Aesthetics of Transgression Gladys M. Francis, 2017-06-15 This book centers on visual and literary productions of Francophone Caribbean women It investigates their aesthetics of violence pain the abhorrent and the uglification of the feminine to unravel what makes them transgressive and uncommodifiable It probes the ways in which these works destroy the regimentation of the ideal body Beyond French Feminisms R. Célestin, E. DalMolin, I. Courtivron, 2016-04-30 This volume a collection of essays by a number of high profile personalities working in philosophy literature sociology cinema theatre journalism and politics covers a number of recent and crucial developments in the field of French Feminisms that have made a reassessment necessary Beyond French Feminisms proposes to answer the question what is new in French Feminism at the beginning of the twenty first century The essays reflect the shift from the theoretical and philosophical approaches that characterized feminism twenty years ago to the more social and political questions of today Topics include the parity and PACS debates the France USA dialogue the multicultural issues and the new trends in literature and film by women Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen E. Sheldon, 2005 This vast dictionary launches the new series Historical Dictionaries of Women in the World and fills a huge gap in the literature as there previously has not been any comprehensive reference work on African women This dictionary includes over 660 entries on notable women in history politics religion the arts and other sectors on events particularly associated with women on women's organizations and publications and on a range of topics that are important to women in general or that have a special importance for African women including marriage fertility market women goddesses and much more Entries include cross referencing information that facilitates readers ability to find related information The book also includes an introductory essay and a chronology on African women's history as well as an extensive bibliography divided into sub sections on different historical eras and subjects Access to finding specific information is further aided by a country index A wide range of users will find this reference extremely valuable including researchers in African or women's history high school and university students and people involved with African policy and development issues such as diplomats or aid workers

"Toubab La!" Literary Representations of Mixed-Race Characters in the African Diaspora Ginette Curry, 2009-05-05 The book is an examination of mixed race characters from writers in the United States The French and British Caribbean islands Martinique Guadeloupe St Lucia and Jamaica Europe France and England and Africa Burkina Faso South Africa Botswana and Senegal The objective of this study is to capture a realistic view of the literature of the African diaspora as it pertains to biracial and multiracial people For example the expression Toubab La as used in the title is from the Wolof ethnic group in Senegal West Africa It means This is a white person or This is a black person who looks or acts white It is used as a metaphor to illustrate multiethnic people's plight in many areas of the African diaspora and how it has evolved The analysis addresses the different ways multiracial characters look at the world and how the world looks at them These characters experience historical economic sociological and emotional realities in various environments from either white or black people Their lineage as both white and black determines a new self making them constantly search for their identity Each section of the manuscript provides an in depth analysis of specific authors novels that is a window into their true experiences The first section is a study of mixed race characters in three acclaimed contemporary novels from the United States James McBride's The Color of Water 1996 Danzy Senna's Caucasia 1998 and Rebecca Walker's Black White and Jewish 2001 reveal the conflicting dynamics of being biracial in today's American society The second section is an examination of mixed race characters in the following French Caribbean novels Mayotte Capécia's I Am a Martinican Woman 1948 Michèle Lacrosil's Cajou 1961 and Ravines du Devant Jour 1993 by Raphaël Confiant Section three is about their literary representations in Derek Walcott's What the Twilight Says 1970 Another life 1973 Dream on Monkey Mountain 1967 and Michelle Cliff's Abeng 1995 from the British Caribbean islands Section four is an in depth analysis of their plight in novels written by contemporary mulatto writers from Europe such as Marie N Diaye's Among Family 1997 Zadie Smith's White Teeth 2000 and Bernardine Evaristo's Lara 1997 Finally the last section of the book is a study of novels from West African and South African writers The analysis of Monique Ilboudo's Le Mal de Peau 2001 Bessie Head's A Woman Alone Autobiographical Writings 1990 and Abdoulaye Sadji's Nini Mul tresse du S n gal 1947 concludes this literary journey that takes the readers through several continents at different points in time Overall this comprehensive study of mixed race characters in the literature of the African diaspora reveals not only the old but also the new ways they decline contest and refuse racial clichés Likewise the book unveils how these characters resist create reappropriate and revise fixed forms of identity in the African diaspora of the 20th and 21st century Most importantly it is also an examination of how the authors themselves deal with the complex reality of a multiracial identity

Writing Africa in the Short Story Ernest Emenyonu, 2013 Writing through the Visual and Virtual Renée Larrier, Ousseina Alidou, 2015-11-12 Writing Through the Visual and Virtual In Inscribing Language Literature and Culture in Francophone Africa and the Caribbean explores the various cultures of writing in Francophone Africa and the Caribbean and their relation to literature orality language the visual arts film and popular culture It is an invaluable resource to Francophone and cultural studies alike Historical Companion to Postcolonial Literatures - Continental Europe and its Empires Prem Poddar, 2011-09-21 The first reference work to provide an integrated and authoritative body of information about the political cultural and economic contexts of postcolonial literatures that have their provenance in the major European Empires of Belgium Denmark France G Operation Freak Christian Flaugh, 2012-06-01 In Operation Freak Christian Flaugh embarks upon an exploration of the intricate connection between the physical bodies and narratives that subjected to all manner of operations generate identity The author spotlights such voluntary and involuntary acts to show how discourses of ability disability and bodily manipulation regularly influence the production in and of various Francophone texts Flaugh's foundation is the critical examination of mutually informing narratives Francophone novels that hyperbolically signal normative discourses through quintessential freaks monstres such as the Siamese twin the bearded lady and the exotic witch and the related sociocultural master narratives from North America North Africa and the Caribbean Employing disability and freak culture theories alongside studies of identification and narrative Flaugh's close readings move beyond polarized discussions of disabled and non disabled bodies They expand such discussions to articulate how ability like identity and narrative is impermanent It passes and it is passed throughout a spectrum at the same time that it intersects regularly with various narratives of identity like citizenship gender and race Each chapter reveals how operation is a profit driven identification process informed by abilities and constantly reproduced by surgeons slave masters writers and the freak protagonists themselves An unflinching look at such manipulation Operation Freak illustrates the undeniably visceral relation between bodily ability identity narrative and normality carved onto the body of the freak of culture monstre de la culture Violence in Francophone African and Caribbean Women's Literature

Chantal Kalisa, 2009-01-01 Chantal Kalisa examines the ways in which women writers lift taboos imposed on them by their society and culture and challenge readers with their unique perspectives on violence Comparing women from different places and times Kalisa treats types of violence such as colonial familial linguistic and war related specifically linked to dictatorship and genocide She examines Caribbean writers Michele Lacrosil Simone Schwartz Bart Gis le Pineau and Edwidge Danticat and Africans Ken Begul Calixthe Beyala Nadine Bar and Monique Ilboudo She also includes Semb ne Ousmane and Frantz Fanon
