If You Meet the Buddha on the Road Michael Jerryson,2018-03-27 It is said that the famous ninth century Chinese Buddhist monk Linji Yixuan told his disciples If you meet the Buddha on the road kill him The deliberately confounding statement is meant to shock people out of complacent ways of thinking But beyond the purposeful jolt from complacency there is another intention This axiom suggests that for liberation one should seek the Buddha nature that resides within rather than a mere Buddha exterior The metaphor of killing the Buddha dislodges a person from the illusion that enlightenment lies outside the body The proclamation also highlights the power of violence even on a symbolic level Violence abounds in Buddhist thoughts doctrine and actions however unacknowledged or misunderstood If You Meet the Buddha on the Road addresses an important absence in the study of religion and violence the religious treatment of violence In order to pursue an understanding of the relationship between Buddhism and violence it is important to first consider how Buddhist scriptures and followers understand violence Drawing on Buddhist treatments of violence Michael Jerryson explores the ways in which Buddhists invoke support or justify war conflict state violence and gender discrimination In addition the book examines the ways in which Buddhists address violence as military chaplains cope with violence in a conflict zone and serve as witnesses of blasphemy to Buddhist doctrine and Buddha images Transnational Death Samira Saramo,Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto,Hanna Snellman,2019-09-24 With so much of the global population living on the move away from their homelands and in diasporic communities death and mourning practices are inevitably impacted Transnational Death brings together eleven cutting edge articles from the emerging field of transnational death studies By highlighting European Asian North American and Middle Eastern perspectives the collection provides timely and fresh analysis and reflection on people s

From Comrades to Bodhisattvas Gareth Fisher, 2014-08-31 From Comrades to Bodhisattvas is the first book length study of Han Chinese Buddhism in post Mao China Using an ethnographic

approach supported by over a decade of field research it provides an intimate portrait of lay Buddhist practitioners in Beijing who have recently embraced a religion that they were once socialized to see as harmful superstition The book focuses on the lively discourses and debates that take place among these new practitioners in an unused courtyard of a Beijing temple In this non monastic space which shrinks each year as the temple authorities expand their commercial activities laypersons gather to distribute and exchange Buddhist themed media listen to the fiery sermons of charismatic preachers and seek solutions to personal moral crises Applying recent theories in the anthropology of morality and ethics Gareth Fisher argues that the practitioners are attracted to the courtyard as a place where they can find ethical resources to re make both themselves and others in a rapidly changing nation that they believe lacks a coherent moral direction Spurred on by the lessons of the preachers and the stories in the media they share these courtyard practitioners inventively combine moral elements from China s recent Maoist past with Buddhist teachings on the workings of karma and the importance of universal compassion Their aim is to articulate a moral antidote to what they see as blind obsession with consumption and wealth accumulation among twenty first century Chinese Often socially marginalized and sidelined from meaningful roles in China s new economy these former communist comrades look to their new moral roles along a bodhisattva path to rebuild their self worth Each chapter focuses on a central trope in the courtyard practitioners projects to form new moral identities The Chinese government s restrictions on the spread of religious teachings in urban areas curtail these practitioners ability to insert their moral visions into an emerging public sphere Nevertheless they succeed at least partially Fisher argues in creating their own discursive space characterized by a morality of concern for fellow humans and animals and a recognition of the organizational abilities and pedagogical talents of its members that are unacknowledged in society at large Moreover as the later chapters of the book discuss by writing copying and distributing Buddhist themed materials the practitioners participate in creating a religious network of fellow Buddhists across the country thereby forming a counter cultural community within contemporary urban China Highly readable and full of engaging descriptions of the real lives of practicing lay Buddhists in contemporary China From Comrades to Bodhisattvas will interest specialists in Chinese Buddhism anthropologists of contemporary Asia and all scholars interested in the relationship between religion and cultural change

The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity Lene Kühle,Jørn Borup,William Hoverd,2018-06-19 Drawing on international and thematic case studies The Critical Analysis of Religious Diversity asks its readers to pay attention to the assumptions and processes by which scholars religious practitioners and states construct religious diversity The study has three foci theoretical and methodological issues religious diversity in non Western contexts and religious diversity in social contexts Together these trans contextual studies are utilised to develop a critical analysis exploring how agency power and language construct understandings of religious diversity As a result the book argues that reflexive scholarship needs to consider that the dynamics of diversification and homogenisation are fundamental to understanding social and religious life that religious diversity is a Western concept and that definitions of religious diversity are often entangled by and within dynamic empirical realities Contributors are Martin Baumann Peter Beyer Jørn Borup Paul Bramadat Marian Burchardt Henrik Reintoft Christensen Andrew Dawson Mar Grier Anna Halafoff William Hoverd Lene Kihle Mar Marcos Stefania Travagnin and Andreas Tunger Zanetti The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lankan Diaspora Peter Reeves, 2013 Well over a million people of Sri Lankan origin live outside South Asia The Encyclopedia of the Sri Lanka Diaspora is the first comprehensive study of the lives culture beliefs and attitudes of immigrants and refugees from this island The volume is a joint publication between the Institute of South Asian Studies NUS and Editions Didier Millet It focuses on the relationship between culture and economy in the Sri Lanka diaspora in the context of globalisation increased transnational culture flows and new communication technologies In addition to the geographic mapping of the Sri Lanka diaspora in the various continents thematic chapters include topics on long distance nationalism citizenship Sinhala Tamil and Burgher diaspora identities religion and the spread of Buddhism as well as the Sri Lankan cultural impact on other nations
